

WHITE FOUND GUILTY, GETS THREE YEARS;
NEW TRIAL PLEADING SET FOR MAY 3

Georgia Physician Slays Wife, Kills Himself

LONG SEPARATION HELD RESPONSIBLE
IN DOUBLE KILLINGMrs. W. L. Harvey, 38, of Bartow, Shot Twice,
Dies on Way to Augusta Hospital.PAIR SEPARATED
TWO YEARS AGODoctor Ends Own Life by Placing Shotgun Against Breast and Touching Off
Trigger With Wire.BARTOW, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—Dr.
W. L. Harvey, 40, shot and fatally wounded his estranged wife, 38, here tonight with a shotgun, and then committed suicide by placing the gun against his own breast and pulling the trigger by means of a wire attached to a fence. The discharge blew the gun barrel to pieces. Mrs. Harvey died on the way to a hospital in Augusta.For two years Dr. Harvey and his wife have been separated, according to information reaching county officers tonight. He sought a reconciliation a number of times and shortly after 6 o'clock this afternoon he drove into his old home place in which he had allowed his wife to reside.
There was a shotgun beside him. His wife was feeding the chickens in the rear yard.Whether words were exchanged no one knows. Mrs. J. W. J. Harvey, next door neighbors, with whom Dr. Harvey had been living for the last month or two, heard a series of shots at the house and ran to the door, finding Dr. Harvey dead and his wife unconscious from two shotgun wounds.Doctors who examined the body of Dr. Harvey said that the full charge of the shotgun had entered his heart, causing instant death. The muzzle of the gun, having been pressed against his breast, when he touched off the trigger on the wire fence, caused the end of the barrel to be torn to pieces.First persons reaching the scene said that the trigger of the shotgun had been tied to the wire fence, so that Dr. Harvey must have deliberated over the matter for several minutes after firing two shots at his wife.The Whigham family said that there had been no recent quarrel between the two, but it was generally known throughout the community that he was anxious to obtain a reconciliation and had once remarked that he could not live without his wife.The Harveys had no children. She has a brother, S. D. Josey, of Jacksonville, Fla., and he has one brother, Will Harvey, of Stilton, Ga., and a sister, Mrs. Highsmith, believed to reside in Savannah.According to close friends of the family, Dr. Harvey had become a victim of the drug habit after treatment for injuries received in an accident, and that is said to have been responsible for the separation.For two years he is said to have made numerous threats to kill his wife if she would not return to live with him.Larsen Will Not Run For Harris' SeatWASHINGTON, April 3.—(Special).—Reports carried by Georgia newspapers that he may be a candidate for the United States senate this year in opposition to Senator W. J.
Harris were denied today in a communication made public by Representative W. W. Larsen, of the twelfth congressional district.The Georgia congressman took cognizance of the report in the following letter addressed to Israel Manning, clerk of the superior court at Hawkinsville:"Your letter calling my attention to press statements saying I will probably become a candidate for the United States senate this year, and asking my purpose in this respect, has been received.Senate Will Pass Shoals Bill TodayTEXTILE LEADERS MEET HERE TODAYMany Important Matters for Discussion on Cotton Manufacturers' Program.Important matters pertaining to legislation for cotton growers, taxation, methods of self-insurance and the most economical means of transportation of the staple will form the principal themes of discussion today when the thirtieth annual convention of the Georgia Cotton Manufacturers' Association gathers at the Atlanta Biltmore with approximately 125 textile representatives present.One of the matters of interest to the association and to cotton growers will be consideration of plans to stimulate interest in the 5-acre cotton contest designed to encourage the production of a greater quantity of long staple cotton suitable for use by Georgia mills. The association contemplates $1,000 each year to prizes for participants in this contest.The convention will be called to order by Clifford J. Swift, of Columbus, president of the association, at 10 o'clock in the Pompeian room at the Biltmore. Following the opening prayer by the Rev. Dr. L. R. Christian, pastor of the Ponce de Leon Battist church, the meeting will get under way with a concise program devoted to the subjects of legislation, taxation, traffic problems and insurance.The principal address will be delivered by Justice S. Price Gilbert, veteran jurist of the Georgia supreme court. Other speakers include Dr. M. L. Brittain, president of the Georgia School of Technology; President Swift, and Dr. Jeff Davis, of Toccoa, president of the association during the years 1928-29.Annual reports will be read by Dr.
W. Anderson, of New Holland, treasurer; T. M. Forbes, of Atlanta, secretary; and W. W. Chears, of Atlanta, traffic manager.Election of officers will be held following the luncheon at 1 o'clock this afternoon. The meeting will observe the fortieth anniversary and in honor of past presidents of the association.One of the outstanding guests of the convention will be George Sloan, of New York, president of the Cotton-Textile institute, who was scheduled to come down from Greensboro, N. C., where he recently presided over a large gathering of North Carolina textile leaders. Mr. Sloan is expected to outline plans of his organization for promoting the idea of shorter hours for textile workers as a means of creating closer harmony between mill owners and operatives.Out of 1,342,000 bales of cotton grown in Georgia last year, less than half a million were suitable for manufacturing purposes of Georgia mills.
E. C. Westbrook, cotton specialist with the Georgia State College of Agriculture, declared in a statement on the eve of the association's annual meeting."This means," Mr. Westbrook said, "that the mills will have to have about 700,000 bales shipped in from other parts of the cotton belt and 800,000 bales of our Georgia crop will have to go elsewhere to find a market. The Georgia farmer must pay freight on 800,000 bales of cotton going out of the state. At $4 per bale, this amounts to $3,200,000. The manufacturer must pay $2,800,000 on cotton imported to the state. There is a freight loss of $6,000,000 annually which might be saved."The cotton to be consumed by the Georgia mills this year, Mr. Westbrook pointed out, has a value of $8, 000,000 greater than the value of Georgia's crop last year. Georgia farmers, he said, are losing this huge sum through their failure to grow cotton that will staple 15-16 to 1-32 inch which would net them $40 each in addition to saving the $6,000,000 freight bill.Hawks Is Half Way
On Glider VoyageEAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., April 3.— (UN)—Having left the half-way mark of his transcontinental glider trip well behind, Captain Frank Hawks landed here at 6:19 p. m., tonight completing his day's journey from Tulsa, Okla.About 3,000 persons cheered the flyer when he cut loose at 5:30 p. m., above the airport, and sailed about for 20 minutes before landing. He was delayed by fog in the take-off this morning and said for was encountered twice during the trip. A stop was made at Springfield, Mo., for gasoline.Norris Successfully Beats Down All Amendments to Government Operation Plan Coolidge VetoedWASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)— Final action tomorrow on the Norris resolution for government operation of Muscle Shoals was in prospect tonight after the senate had rejected all attempts to amend the main features of the legislation.Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska, was confident of the votes for adoption of his resolution. It is in practically the same form as the measure sent to President Coolidge two years ago by congress. That proposal was given a pocket veto.Urging that "no peg be put in the resolution upon which a veto by the chief executive may be hung," the Nebraskan successfully beat down attempts by Senators Black and Hellin, of Alabama, democrats, to amend the measure today.In concluding a two-day speech for government operation of the $150,000, 000 nitrate and power plant put up by the government during the war at Muscle Shoals, Ala., Senator Norris assailed what he called the "power trust." He said it controlled natural resources, and that the government should operate the Alabama project as an example to the rest of the country.Senator Helfin and Black also attacked some of those interested in private operation of the power industry.Senator Norris said "there have been more lobbies in Washington who have lived on it, fattened on it and grown rich on it than on anything else I have heard of since I have been in the senate."Senator Black proposed an amendment to provide for construction of Dam No. 3 on the Tennessee river in connection with the Muscle Shoals project. This was turned down after Norris had pleaded it might impair final enactment of the legislation.On the same plea of Norris, the senate rejected another amendment by Senator Black which would have opened the cyanamid nitrate plant at Muscle Shoals to private operation upon a guarantee that nitrogen for use as a fertilizer would be manufactured.Senator Norris said that "largely by the efforts of Senator Black, the cotton committee has destroyed the proposed lease of the American Cyanamid Company" and he urged that the amendment be rejected.Infant Is Killed
As Mother Falls
From Back PorchDorothy Denison, 13-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Thomas Denison, of 2530 Cascade road, S. W., was instantly killed Thursday afternoon when her mother, who was holding the baby on the back porch of their home, lost her balance and fell down a steep flight of steps leading to the back yard. Mrs. Denison also was injured by the fall, being unconscious for more than an hour afterwards.According to neighbors who heard the young mother's screams as she pitched head-first down the steps, Mrs. Denison clung tenaciously to her small daughter in a desperate effort to protect the child as she fell. They rushed to her assistance and summoned an ambulance from Harry G.
Poole's, but the child was pronounced dead upon its arrival at Grady hospital.The condition of the mother was not known. Neighbors declared that for more than an hour after the accident she lingered in a state of unconsciousness but whether from the shock of her daughter's death or from injuries they were not able to state.Winslow Warren Dies at Age of 93DEDHAM, Mass., April 3.—(UN)— Winslow Warren, president-general of the Society of Cincinnati, high national Masonic order and descendant of the Mayflower Pilgrims, died in his 93rd year at his home here late today.He was born at Plymouth in 1838, the son of Dr. Winslow Warren, a direct descendant of Richard Warren, one of the Pilgrims, and a great-grandson of General James Warren, president of the provincial congress of Massachusetts during the Revolutionary War.INSURANCE FRAUDS LEAD TO INTERNES
AT CITY HOSPITALWholesale Signing of False Sick Benefit Certificates Charged by Insurers.Alleging that certain attaches of Grady hospital and other Atlanta physicians are reaping a rich harvest of unethical fees in assisting fraudulent claimants to collect workmen's compensation and other industrial benefits, representatives of every accident, health and industrial underwriters' company in this city will meet Monday night to perfect a plan of campaign against what leaders describe as one of the worst insurance frauds in the city's history.Not only are hospital attaches illegally charging a fee of 50 cents for signing sick benefit certificates, it is charged, but they are signing many for weeks in advance, always, it is alleged, collecting a flat rate of 50 cents for each certificate signed.
Fraudulent claimants, it is charged, thus are fortified with several such certificates, attested in advance, from which they are collecting benefits with such regularity that the percentage of claims paid gives Atlanta the highest ratio of any city in Georgia.As a previous meeting industrial insurers had banded together to take immediate steps that would discourage collusion between physicians and policy holders, the meeting next Monday night will be held with the determination of launching a widespread campaign involving thorough investigation of scores of claims recently paid and those pending. Criminal procedure will follow against both fraudulent claimants and physicians found to have certified falsely as to the condition of applicants for sick benefits or accident allowances, it was stated.The percentage of claims paid in Atlanta was pointed out, and it was indicated that this city is one of the unhealthiest spots in the United States, whereas it was set forth that the regular reports of Dr. John P. Kennedy, city health officer, show that Atlanta is one of the healthiest communities in America."Gastritis, nephritis and influenza are constantly in epidemic forms in Atlanta, according to the deluge of sick benefit certificates coming in to our offices from claimants whose certificates have been signed by physicians, one of the industrial underwriters declared Thursday."However, Dr. Kennedy's reports hardly ever show alarming existence of these maladies. We are up against one of the worst waves of collusion and fraud in the history of our service in Atlanta."One woman, insured by an industrial firm doing business in Atlanta,
this official declared, recently made
the mistake of presenting a sick-benefit certificate dated one week in advance. It was explained that under the insurance stipulations applicants must present such certificates every seven days. This woman, it was alleged, presented a certificate attested by a physician dated "April 7," although she also presented one for the current seven-day period.No person, insured by an industrial firm doing business in Atlanta,
this official declared, recently made
the mistake of presenting a sick-benefit certificate dated one week in advance. It was explained that under the insurance stipulations applicants
must present such certificates every
seven days. This woman, it was alleged, presented a certificate attested
by a physician dated "April 7," although she also presented one for the current seven-day period.At the meeting Monday night officers will be elected to head the Atlanta Adjustment Association, the name to be given the joint board of inquiry which will wage a relentless war against perpetrators of such frauds. Each of the 17 industrial insurance firms in the city will be represented.Fall Off Scaffold Fatal to WorkmanHarold Packard, 20, of Sanford, Fla., was killed Thursday when he fell 100 feet from the scaffolding on which he was working at Plant Atkinson, under construction by the Georgia Power Company across the Chattahoochee river in Cobb county.Packard, a 16-year-old helper employer by "Penshaw & McVey, subcontractors working on the steam plant project, was laying bricks when he lost his footing and fell to the ground below. He was pronounced dead when an ambulance arrived.So far as known, Packard has no relatives in Atlanta, having come to this city recently from Florida. Representatives of the sub-contractors and H. M. Patterson & Son, who took charge of the body, have notified his relatives in Sanford.

Convicted Broker Signs $10,000 Bond

Convicted of defrauding the city of Atlanta, Jack White, broker, Thursday night made an appeal bond of $10,000. He is shown above in the act of signing the bond. Left to right, White, Deputy Clerk Fred F. Lester, of superior court; Deputy Sheriff J. E. Nelms; and Defense Attorney Walter A. Sims.

Zeoditu, Queen of Abyssinia, Ruler of Ten Million, DiesADDIS ABABA, Abyssinia, April 3.—(UN)—Empress Zeoditu, joint ruler of the 10,000,000 subjects of Abyssinia, died suddenly today, aged 54 years. Her cousin, Ras Tafari, whom she crowned king of kings of Ethiopia, Conquering Lion of Judah and Elect of God about a year ago, immediately took over the imperial palace with strong detachments of troops.Order was being maintained in the face of possibility that Ras Tafari's rivals might become active.There were two possible claimants to the throne besides Ras Tafari. One was Lej Yasu, former emperor now held captive by ecclesiastical authorities. The other was Ras Kassa, a powerful chief who like the others was able to trace his ancestry back to the House of Solomon.Lej Yasu, grandson of the great Emperor Menelik, was designated by the latter to succeed him, but was overthrown in 1916 because of his sympathy with Germany in the World War and because of his leanings toward Mohammedanism in this Christian country.Zeoditu, an ambitious woman of 40, daughter of Menelik, was crowned empress 14 years ago with Ras Ta-fari, son of Menelik's nephew, as regent and heir.Both the rulers were ambitious, and it galloped Ras Tafari to sit a step below the empress at the coronation ceremony. Two trips to the principal cities of Europe with an imposing retinue of races and officials increased the ras' prestige, and in 1923 he won Abyssinia's admittance to the League of Nations subject to certain conditions as to the control of slavery and arms traffic.In 1922 Italy sent the Duke of Abruzzi to return, the regent's visit, and the envoy was received with the most lavish splendor. A treaty was concluded whereby Abyssinia was to obtain a port on the Red sea in the Italian colony of Eritrea, in return for which Italy was to win a railroad concession in Abyssinia, rivaling one held by France.Rumors became current that the regent's modern ideas were not shared by the empress, and such friction developed that Ras Tafari's adherents believed to share the cleric's slogan of "Abyssinia for the Abyssinians," at length yielded and with her own hands crowned Tafari as king. The crown he received was even larger than the one she wore. He also won a separate throne.In 1922 Ras Tafari married a granddaughter of the deposed Lej Yasu's father, and by her had two sons and three daughters to carry on the line should he become king.REPORT ON WARD RULE BAN BARREDWall Declares No Recommendation Will Be Made to Committee.J. P. Wall, chairman of the democratic committee of the borough of Atlanta, declared Thursday night that he would place the proposal to nominate all members of council from the borough at large instead of by wards before the entire committee at his next meeting without any recommendation from any committee.Announcement of Mr. Wall followed his expressed intention of several days ago to insist that such action be taken, but Thursday night his stand was regarded as final.It means that the entire committee will decide whether the proposal is to be adopted and that it will not be influenced by any partisan body whether disapproving or endorsing the plan."I feel that the entire committee should consider the matter without any recommendation being made by any sub-committee," Mr. Wall said.This is a matter in which the entire borough is vitally interested and every member of the committee should be given an equal voice in determining what should be done. If the committee wants the borough-wide nomination system, it should be placed in effect.The conference committee which sat last week with a council group will file no report with the general committee, but will sit as any other committee member and vote on the issue when it is brought up.The insistent public demand for the change is growing daily. Persons in all walks of life, business, labor, civic and political leaders, have endorsed the proposal which is championed by Councilman Joseph E. Berman, of the fourth ward, and his colleague John A. White.In addition, every one of the five members of the council committee which was named to confer with the executive committee from the executive committee, has championed the proposal and will vote for it Monday in council.Twenty-three of the 39 members of council favor the measure, and its passage Monday by council is assured.
This action will send the paper to the executive committee with endorsement of council and a request that the primary laws be so adjusted that the ward domination of municipal politics be crushed and the people be given unrestricted right to choose their council members.At the present time, councilmen are nominated in primaries from the ward they represent and the other dozen wards have no voice in their selection.YORK'S PARTNER ORDERED TO PAY FINES OF $3,500Defendant and His Attorneys Express Confidence That Verdict Will Not Stand.ONE JUROR CAUSES
FOUR-HOUR BATTLENumerous Ballots Taken Before State Wins Over Lone Defender of Accused Broker.Jack White, devious broker and business associate of the already convicted Councilman Harry York, early Thursday night was sentenced to serve three years on the chain gang and pay fines totaling $3,500 for defrauding the city of Atlanta, in the sale of disinfectants and two motor cars.
Conviction of White on all four counts in the fraud charging indictment came shortly after 7 o'clock, more than four hours after the jury began its deliberation of the case, but only after a lone juror, outvoted 11 to 1 through a long series of ballots, finally was won over to the state's side.Judge John D. Humphries immediately passed sentence, ordering the broker to serve 12 months each and pay a fine of $1,000 each on the first three counts, the chain gang sentence to follow one another, and to serve 12 more months and pay a fine of $500 on the fourth count, the fourth chain gang sentence to be concurrent with that assessed for the first count.NOTICE OF APPEAL
FILED BY LAWYERS.H. A. Allen and former Mayor
Walter A. Sims, counsel for White, immediately filed notice of appeal and motion for new trial, and a hearing was set for May 3. Judge Humphries fixed the appeal bond at $10,000, additional to bond of the same amount which White already has posted to insure his appearance on other charges. The appeal bond was signed by the National Surety Company in Sheriff James L. Lowry's office half an hour after White was sentenced and he was released.The first two counts in the indictment charged White with having defrauded the city of $1,222.50 and $1,348, respectively, in the sale of disinfectants, the state alleging that the broker received those sums in "rebates" from the companies to which he was purchasing. Agent W. P.
Price sent the orders. The third and fourth counts charged that White defrauded the city out of $60.50 and $82.51 in the sale of motor cars by the LeKroux Motor Company, it being alleged that White, through "using his influence," got the contract for Continued on Page 3, Column 1.The Weather FAIR.WASHINGTON—Forecast:
Georgia—Fair Friday and probably Saturday.Local Weather Report.
Highest temperature 70
Lowest temperature 56
Mean temperature 63
Normal temperature 57 Rainfall in past 12 hours, in-ches08
Excess since 1st of month30
Deficiency since Jan. 1, inches 4.03
Total rainfall since January 1, 11.387 a.m. Noon 7 p.m.
Dry temperature 57 65 67
Wet bulb 57 58 56
Relative humidity 98 95 90

Reports of Weather Bureau Stations.

STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER	Temperature Fahrenheit	Wind Direction	Wind Force	Clouds	Barometer Fahrenheit	Barometer Inches	Barometer Tendency
Atlanta, clear	67	70	28
Birmingham, pt. cldy.	68	78	12
Boston, cloudy	43	50	30
Buffalo, raining	44	50	30
Charlotte, pt. cldy.	64	70	10
Chicago, clear	62	62	30
Cincinnati, clear	64	64	30
Des Moines, clear	66	68	30
Galveston, cloudy	70	70	30
Hartford, clear	62	62	30
Harvey, pt. cldy.	62	70	30
Jacksonville, clear	64	64	30
Kansas City, clear	70	74	30
Little Rock, clear	62	62	30
Memphis, clear	72	82	30
Mobile, cloudy	78	84	30
Montgomery, clear	72	78	30
New Orleans, cloudy	74	80	30
New York, clear	62	62	30
North Platte, clear	72	78	30
Oklahoma City, pt. cldy.	72	78	30
Phoenix, clear	72	78	30
Pittsburgh, cloudy	48	58	30
Raleigh, clear	62	62	30
Salt Lake City, clear	62	64	30
San Francisco, cloudy	60	64	30
St. Louis, clear	64	64	30
Salt Lake City, clear	62	64	30
Savannah, cloudy	64	74	1,02
Tampa, cloudy	78	84	30
Tulsa, clear	50	60	30
Washington, cloudy	78	84	30

G. F. von HERMANN, Meteorologist, Weather Bureau.

Largest Circulation of Any Daily Newspaper, Morning or Evening, in Atlanta

Fireworks Factory Blast Kills Ten, Injures Thirty

Town of Devon, Penn., Nearly Wiped Off Map by Explosion Felt 30 Miles Away.

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—(P)—Ten persons lost their lives and more than 30 were injured today by a series of explosions which virtually wiped out the plants of the Pennsylvania Fireworks Display Company, Inc., at Devon, 16 miles west of Philadelphia.

Most of the dead were employees of the plant which was comprised of ten small buildings on a seven-acre tract of land.

Although hospitals reported treating only about 20 injured persons, many more were treated on the scene by emergency ambulances dispatched with physicians. Many others in the 200 homes in surrounding territory which were damaged, were treated by family physicians or administered first aid treatment themselves.

Police tonight were investigating reports that several employees were unaccounted for, but it is believed if they are missing they are represented among the unidentified dead.

The shock of the blasts was felt over a wide area, reports having been received that the heavier explosions were felt 30 miles away.

Heavy damage was done to houses nearby tenanted by workers. Roofs were caved in, porch roofs wrecked and windows blown out. There was extensive minor damage done over a large area, some places more than a mile away being affected.

There were three heavy explosions which caused most of the damage, followed by smaller blasts over a period of 20 minutes. At times the exploding fireworks sounded like the rattle of machine guns. Rescuers were forced to remain at a distance until the explosions ceased.

The debris caught fire and was burning briskly when firemen and other rescuers tackled the scattered debris of the small buildings.

Eight of those who lost their lives were killed outright and their bodies were badly charred, two others died later.

There was little left of the buildings when the last of the explosions on the leveled tract let go, and the fire was easily extinguished.

Great crowds rushed to Devon from all the surrounding suburban towns and there was much difficulty in getting the injured quickly to Bryn Mawr hospital, six miles east of Devon. The only road to the hospital was jammed with fire apparatus, ambulances and countless automobiles.

According to Alexander Vardaro, proprietor of the fireworks plant, the first explosion occurred in a building at the extreme northwestern corner of the property where a quantity of dynamite was stored.

"The only thing I could think of that would cause the explosion would be friction," said Vardaro. "It would be possible for the nails of the shoes of some of the workmen moving about the building to cause sufficient friction to set off the dynamite. The exact cause probably will never be known."

GAS EXPLOSIONS ROCK BROADWAY

NEW YORK, April 3.—(P)—Two series of explosions caused by leaking gas mains down in the labyrinth of subterranean passages that honeycomb the earth beneath the skyscrapers of New York hurled 20 manholes high into the air along lower Broadway today, ripped up great sections of pavement, and put telephones, electric lights, trolley cars, and traffic signals out of commission.

Several persons were slightly injured as they ran through the streets dodging debris.

The explosions occurred along Broadway from 20th to 33rd streets, between 5th and 6th avenues.

A section of the streets is being repaired, and workmen have scraped down deep to lay a solid concrete foundation for the asphalt. Shortly after a concrete mixer, drawn by a heavy tractor, had passed over the section that was being repaired, a manhole cover shot high into the air followed by a sheet of flame.

Other manhole covers blew up all along the street at intervals of seconds. While police and fire emergency squads and repair men tried to plug up the leaks, three large mains and several smaller ones developed leaks, and as the gas rushed out there was a second series of explosions, filling the air with fragments of a-palt, dust and debris, and gas.

Six of the police and firemen were slightly injured.

Several thousand persons were ordered by the police to evacuate near by hotels, office buildings, and department stores.

Underground, 25 telephone and telegraph cables were cut out of service, and 10,000 trunk lines were affected. The financial district was thrown into a turmoil as private wires between brokerage houses and the stock exchange were cut off.

Youth, Missing for 18 Months, Pauses Here on Way Home

OBJECT OF NATION-WIDE SEARCH TALKS FREELY

BY R. E. POWELL.

Dressed in a brand-new, natty-looking dark brown suit, but with his long black hair, which once parted squarely in the middle, now unruly, Robert Emmett Boyle, 21-year-old son of a Glens Falls (N. Y.) eye specialist, was on the Birmingham Special speeding to New York Monday night to meet the father he ran away from because he lost his Christmas check in a poker game.

Young Boyle, for whom a nationwide hunt costing thousands of dollars has been conducted since December, 1928, was discovered driving a taxicab in Vicksburg, Miss., the other day by the vigilant chief of police, Joseph Richie. And Mr. Richie, besides receiving the elder Boyle's $800 reward for finding his son, a junior at Fordham University when he disappeared, played the leading role in a dramatic climax to the anxious world hunt for young Boyle.

Monday night the lad talked to his father at Glens Falls after Richie, of a national detective agency, that he thought he had the missing boy spotted. The elder Boyle asked questions which no one but his son could answer and an hour afterward Smith was on the train going to Vicksburg. The detective and the long-lost mother passed through Atlanta late Thursday afternoon.

After Reward.

"They came mighty close to tying us up in Vicksburg and delaying the reunion of the boy and his family," Smith told a Constitution reporter. "It seems that after the chief talked with Emmett's father Monday night the identity of the boy and the sequel leaked out. When I reached Vicksburg Wednesday I found—to my surprise—that several people were claiming the reward."

"When I started to alight from a taxi at the chief's office, the latter's assistant jumped in the cab and warned me to take cover at once. He informed me that warrants of attachment against myself and the boy were in the hands of county constables and that if we remained in Vicksburg a minute longer we might have to remain there for a long-drawn-out trial. The chief, his assistant told me, was bringing the boy to me at Jackson, where I delivered him the check, and caught the train."

Young Boyle, described by Smith as a taciturn sort of lad, found it difficult to check his emotions as he talked of his experiences since disappearing from college. He frankly admitted that he was happy to be returning north.

Smith vouched for the story that the lad "got cold feet" when after cashing the check his dad sent him to come home for the holidays and losing it in a game of poker, he decided to conquer the world. Young Boyle said that he had made enough money to live on since he "for no good reason" checked out of Fordham and headed for the warm climate of Florida.

Varied Labors.

"But it hasn't been easy," he said, pensively. "I've done a little of everything. I've picked oranges in Florida, piled hay in Arkansas, laid natural gas pipe lines in Louisiana and driven a taxicab in Mississippi. I've had to work in restaurants for a number of months when I was hungry."

"This thing of starting out and conquering the world," he continued, with a philosophical touch which might have been born in the hay fields of Arkansas or under a blistering Louisiana sun, "is not what it's cracked up to be. Every young man should get an education and learn a trade besides. When prospective employers would ask me what I could do, I had to tell them I was 'just willing to work,' but had no knowledge of the work they desired a man for. A man without a trade is lost, as far as making real money is concerned, and is placed on a par with a laborer."

Boyle had little to say about his reason for cutting his college career so abruptly and remaining out of touch with his family for almost a year and a half. The poker explanation made by Detective Smith seemed enough to be said.

From other sources, however, it was learned that he did not want to follow the long line of doctors he is descended from in the medical profession. He was uncertain as to whether he would return to Fordham and pursue his studies where he dropped them—with the junior class.

"Emmett wants to come back to the south sometime," Smith said, but he wants to make enough money to come back the way he is returning to Glens Falls—in a drawing room.

Tallahassee Drive Nets 25 Dry Arrests

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 3.—(P)—A drive to rid Tallahassee and Leon county of illicit liquor retailing was instituted here today by the office of Sheriff Frank Stoutamire and before the campaign was over 25 persons had been docketed on charges of violating the prohibition law.

Acting upon tips of federal prohibition agents, the sheriff's office and police swooped down upon places located variously over the county.

Photo by Lawrence Cornett.
ROBERT EMMETT BOYLE.

PHILP WILL INSPECT SITE FOR P. O. AGAIN

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(Special).—If an adjustment of certain of his official affairs permits, Philip W. Philp announced tonight that he will leave here tomorrow afternoon for Atlanta to make a further inspection of sites proposed for the new federal building. Otherwise it may be at least two weeks before he will have an opportunity to go to the city, he stated.

If the assistant postmaster general, who is in charge of the postoffice department's end of the federal building program, is able to leave Friday afternoon he will catch a train scheduled to arrive in Atlanta around 9 o'clock Saturday morning, with plans calling for remaining over in the city through Sunday.

The proposal that he go to the city again for a further inspection of the several sites offering for reaching a final decision was made by Mayor Ragsdale and a number of prominent businessmen of Atlanta Tuesday.

At the time the proposal was received here Philp was engaged in a series of conferences with officials of the Atlanta Terminal Company and the Central of Georgia railway regarding the site owned by the latter company which was tentatively selected some months back. Mayor Ragsdale and the others strongly urged him to defer further consideration of the Atlanta site situation until he could go to the city for a final inspection and conference with civic leaders.

Philp said tonight he probably would be able to adjust his affairs in a manner to permit him to spend one day in Atlanta this week, arriving there Saturday morning and returning to Washington that night, but expressed the belief that this would not permit a sufficient amount of time to go over the situation properly. By devoting a part of Sunday to the survey, however, would allow adequate time for all, he said.

He explained that he will be compelled to return to Washington by Monday morning because of hearings he must attend before the budget bureau then in connection with the building program. His ability to leave for the full week-end trip depends on the preparation of certain material by tomorrow noon which he will be expected to present at the budget hearings.

The hearings and other matters, Philp said, will probably require his continued presence in Washington for a period of at least two weeks. After that time he may be able to go to Atlanta, but hardly until then.

The postoffice department official promised to advise Mayor Ragsdale and others definitely if possible tomorrow.

INDIAN GIRL PLEADS GUILTY TO MURDER

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 3.—(P)—The curtain was rung down today on a drama of nationwide interest in which an Indian woman was tried for the murder of a white artist's wife, and tonight the last of the scenery was being cleared away.

Lila Jimeron, the "Red Lila" of the Cayuga Indians, lay on a sick bed in the Buffalo City hospital and faced a prison term of 20 years to life, a sentence which became mandatory when she pleaded guilty today to a charge of murder, second degree, reduced from one of murder, first degree. She is suffering from tuberculosis and her conditions caused the court to halt her trial on the first degree charge.

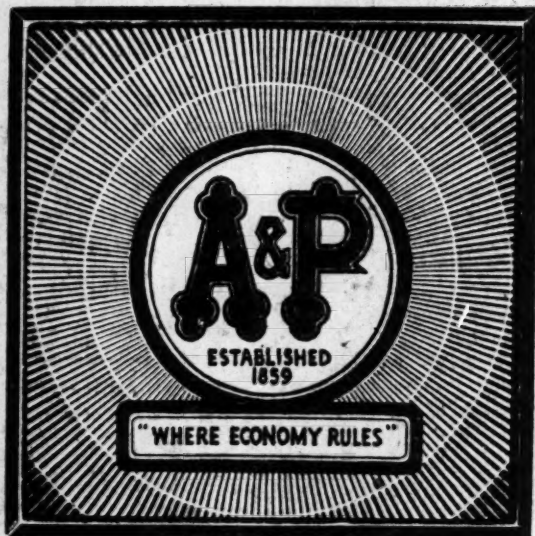

In sharp contrast to the earlier scenes of the trial of Lila Jimeron for murder, in connection with the slaying of Mrs. Clothilde Marchand, wife of Henri Marchand, internationally famous artist and sculptor, the final act of the drama took place in the auditorium of the hospital. A bare handful of spectators, most of them newspaper reporters, was present.

It was from her hospital bed, wheeled into the auditorium, that the emaciated, sickly Indian woman nodded her silent acquiescence to questions by Judge F. Bret Thorne, and thereby entered her plea of guilty to the reduced charge. Not once did she speak. Her plea accepted, she was removed to her room.

Henri Marchand, husband of the slain woman, who took the witness stand and admitted an intimacy with the Indian woman for professional reasons only, tonight was preparing to leave the county jail where he had been detained since the start of the trial as a witness. District Attorney Guy B. Moore said that Marchand would be released soon.

Mr. Moore said he probably would decide tomorrow what should be done with Nancy Bowen, a Cayuga Indian woman, jointly indicted with Jimeron for Mrs. Marchand's murder. She confessed to the witness stand that she killed the woman with a hammer and chloroform because she thought her a "white witch."

The state decided that Lila inspired the old woman to commit the murder because Lila was in love with Marchand.

FISH STEAKS

Your Choice of Many Different Varieties!

lb. 33¢

SEA FOOD FOR THE LENTEN SEASON

There is no better substitute for your meat diet than sea food. It is nutritious, easily digested and palatable.

YOU WILL FIND IN EACH A&P MEAT MARKET

HALIBUT
CROAKERS
SHRIMP OYSTERS
SHAD
AND GENUINE NORDIC
FILLET OF HADDOCK!

MULLET

Fresh!
Tempting!
Appetizing!

lb. 15¢

Since 1881

Atlanta has bought "Kamper" groceries!

Kamper's is an Atlanta institution that has served Atlanta for forty-nine years—growing with the town—taking interest and part in every civic enterprise—paying taxes! An integral part of Atlanta! • • And still Atlanta owned and operated!

Sale Kamper Cookies! 20c doz. - 2 doz.-38c

Fruit Bars
Oatmeal Cookies
Sugar Cookies

Sponge Cookies
Lady Fingers
Almond Macaroons

Bread-Rolls

Cream Loaf Bread 10c
Rye Bread, Loaf, 10c
Bran Rolls, Dozen, 20c

For Breakfast & Luncheon! Cocktails of Grape Juice and Tomato Juice

Luxury Concord Grape Juice, pints. 25c
Peerless Concord Grape Juice, quarts. 44c
Del Monte Tomato Juice, 15-oz. tins. 15c

for Hors d'Oeuvres

Imported Russian Caviar,
50c ea.—2 for 89c
Imported Russian Filet of Anchovies,
25c ea. 4 for 89c
Imported Hors
d'Oeuvres, 25c ea.—
4 for 89c

Sale! finest Imported Switzerland Cheese

Usually $1.00 lb

69c lb.
37c
1/2 lb.
20c
1/4 lb.

Boneless Codfish 40c lb.

A full pound box of boneless codfish that will make delicious dishes for both luncheon and breakfast! Very tasty served creamed on toast—or in small cakes fried crispy brown! The family will enjoy the change of menu!

Shad Roe, 75c. ea 6 for $4.00

Blue letter brand Shad Roe is of a very superior quality! Each can contains one whole roe! For this week end, a very special price is offered—6 cans for $4.00! You'll want a supply of this delicacy at this savings!

-- and Fresh dressed Turkeys - Capons - Squabs!

Kamper's Creole Coffee

35¢ lb.

A heavy bodied coffee of the very finest flavor!—each pound is ground especially for your coffee pot!—Kamper's Coffee must pass the most minute inspection before it is sold to you!

Kamper's Garden Tea 89¢ lb.
Delicious Served Hot or Cold!

Canned Vegetables---of Excellent Quality!

Reba Cut Green Stringless Beans, No. 2 tins. 15c ea.
Luxury Country Gentlemen Corn,
11-oz. tins. 12 for $2.00
Luxury Colossal White Asparagus Tips—Picnic size, 25c ea.
3 for 69c—No. 1 Square cans. 44c ea.—3 for $1.19
Luxury Early Garden Peas, 11-oz. cans. 12 for $1.50
15-oz. cans. 12 for $2.00—20-oz. cans. 12 for $2.75
Luxury Midget Peas, 11-ounce cans. 12 for $2.00

Easter Lilies! and other potted plants

The most beautiful Easter Lilies you could imagine—at prices ranging from $1.00! Hy-drangias, large Tulips in vivid reds and yellows—potted, blooming Rose Bushes.

Sweet, Spiced Fruits pt. Jars, 79c regularly priced, $1.25

Broken assortments, consisting of Sechel Pears, Apricots,
Peaches, Watermelon
Rind, Red Cherries, Black Cherries, Can-taloupe, Skinless Figs, Pineapple in Grenadine—The Fennell Brand.

Savings depositors are requested to bring in their passbook so we can credit their interest for the past quarter.

Quarterly interest compounded

Per Annum
EMPIRE TRUST COMPANY
(Organized 1912)

54 Broad St., N. W.

Henry B. Kennedy, Pres.
Resources more than $900,000.00
Interest from April 1 on deposits made by April 10

1881 Kamper's 1930

WHITE FOUND GUILTY ON FOUR COUNTS OF DEFRAUDING CITY

Broker Posts $10,000 Bond For Liberty Pending Appeal

Continued from First Page.

The LeRoux Company without the company being forced to give the city its usual discount of 15 per cent. It was alleged that the LeRoux Company gave White $50 on each of the two deals.

The jury's verdict was returned at 7:15 o'clock. The deliberations had consumed exactly four hours and five minutes. The case had been put in the jury's hands at 2:30 o'clock, but actual deliberations did not begin until 3:10, the intervening time being used for luncheon.

LONG JURY BARS VERDICT OF GUILTY.

Through the entire four hours, in which almost two score ballots are reported to have been taken, the vote was 11 to 1 for conviction. The lone juror had been adamant. Between ballots his colleagues pleaded with him to change his vote, but on each succeeding ballot it remained the same. Shortly before 7 o'clock Judge Humphries sent Deputy Sheriff J. Gordon Hardy to the jury room with instructions to inquire if there was any hope for a verdict and to announce to the jury that if not its members would be given their supper and locked up for the night.

Hardy delivered the judge's message to D. E. Rogers, the jury foreman, who turned to the fellow members of the jury.

"Tell him we're ready in a few minutes," the juror who had voted all along for acquittal informed the foreman, who relayed the message to Hardy. Fifteen minutes later Mr. Rogers, who lives at 200 Ivy road and is an engineer for the Westinghouse Company, sent word to Judge Humphries that the jury was ready to hand in its verdict.

The judge sent for Solicitor-General John A. Boykin, White and members of his counsel who were walking in the corridors and the jury was brought in.

JUDGE PLACES BAN ON DEMONSTRATION.
Before the verdict was read the judge issued a warning to the crowd of courtroom that he wanted no demonstration regardless of the decision which had been reached. He then directed Solicitor-General Boykin to read the verdict.

"We, the jury, find the defendant guilty on Counts 1, 2, 3 and 4," the solicitor-general read from the back of the indictment. The verdict was dated and signed by Mr. Rogers. "Mr. White, come forward," the judge directed.

White, who had been sitting with his counsel at a table, stepped forward, with Allen on one side and Sims on the other. The convicted broker was slightly pale and nervous but walked to the judge's bench with a firm step.

"Have you anything to say before sentence is passed?" the judge inquired.

"Nothing, your honor," White responded.

In answer to the judge's questions Allen and Sims also replied that they had nothing to say.

The judge then read the first count in the indictment silently.

SENTENCE PRONOUNCED BY JUDGE HUMPHRIES.
"Mr. White," he said on completion, "on the first count I sentence you to serve 12 months and pay a fine of $1,000."

He then read the second count and repeated the sentence, adding that the chain-gang term was "to follow" and so on the third count. On the fourth count he reduced the fine to $500 and announced that the sentence was to be concurrent with the first.

"Mr. White," the judge said, "the jury in finding you guilty declares you defrauded the city in which you live and the city in which thousands pay taxes that it may be governed properly. This court cannot in any way condone your actions. It is its duty to punish you. That shall be done."

The judge then thanked the members of the jury for their service as a part of the court but made no expression of approval or disapproval of the verdict. He also took pains to let the jury know that though he was following the usual custom of giving the thanks of the court he felt that in this specific case the members had done only a duty required of them by law. He then dismissed the 12 men from further service during the present term of court.

BOND OF $10,000 FIXED BY JUDGE.
Two sheriff's deputies stepped forward and took charge of White, whose attorney then offered a skeleton motion for a new trial, Judge Humphries announcing that the appeal bond would be $10,000.

Fred F. Lester, a deputy clerk of the superior court, was present to approve the bond as soon as White had arranged it. With the deputies and Mr. Lester, White was taken to the office of Sheriff James I. Lowry, where a representative of the surety company was summoned.

"My case will be carried to the higher courts and I am sure I shall be vindicated," White said as arrangements for the bond were being made. "I reiterate that I have done nothing more than carry on a legitimate business."

Mr. Sims and Mr. Allen declared that they had nothing to say other than to agree with the convicted broker that they did not expect the verdict to "stand up" in the higher courts.

"The higher courts will back up our contention that the state never made a case against Mr. White," Mr. Allen said.

Solicitor-General Boykin left for home immediately after reading the verdict.

"Of course I won't talk about it," the solicitor-general said. "I always let the verdict speak for itself, be it one of conviction or one of acquittal and nothing I could say tonight would speak stronger than the few words Mr. Rogers wrote on the back of the indictment."

TRIAL OF PRICE IS SET FOR TUESDAY.
He reiterated an announcement made yesterday that the trial of Purchasing Agent William P. Price, jointly indicted with White on the charges on which the broker was convicted Thursday, would be put on trial before a jury in Judge Humphries' court next Tuesday morning.

"We are going to stay on these issues until they are finished," Mr. Boykin said. "And any new ones returned by the grand jury will be tried as soon thereafter as is possible."

Judge Humphries had limited the arguments to two hours to each side, with the defense, by virtue of its failure to use any witnesses in White's behalf, winning both the opening and closing arguments. Former Mayor Ward A. Sims opened for White, Special Prosecutor Howard and Solicitor-General Boykin following for the state and Attorney Allen closing for the defense.

Though the speaking of all four lawyers lacked the rhetorical thunder that prevailed in the trial of York two weeks ago, all four arguments were decidedly strong, the defense sticking to its contention that the state had put made out a case and the state centering its attack on the alleged conspiracy between White, Purchasing Agent Price and Councilman York.

Defense Argument.
"Under the law as will be instructed to you by the court in my mind one avenue to follow and that is one that will bring acquittal to our client," Mr. Allen said in his closing argument. "The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The prosecution has offered Mayor Ragsdale, City Comptroller West and other officials of Atlanta in an effort to show that Price all the while was reporting to them that he was getting the best prices obtainable on every thing he bought for the city of Atlanta through his offices, but they did not get one of these witnesses to tell you of any specific instances in which Mr. Price made such reports. They have offered the rhetorical thunder of the state but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

WALTER TAYLOR TRIAL SET TO OPEN APRIL 16

Boykin Announces That Purchasing Agent Price Will Face Jury Tuesday.

Because of the return of an additional indictment of nine counts Tuesday night the trial of Walter C. Taylor, city clerk, accused of bribery and extortion, Thursday was postponed from April 8 to April 16. At the same time Solicitor-General John A. Boykin announced that the trial of William P. Price, city purchasing agent, accused of defrauding the city, would begin next Tuesday before Judge John D. Humphries.

The postponement of the Taylor trial was announced after his chief of counsel, Reuben Arnold, conferred with Solicitor-General Boykin and Special Prosecutor William Schley Howard. Mr. Arnold declared under the custom established by the superior court he should have at least two weeks to prepare his cases and that because of the return of the additional indictment Tuesday night this two weeks would be denied him if forced to go to trial next week.

In making the announcement Solicitor-General Boykin said that he wanted to get rid of the Price case first, because it has been on the calendar for 10 days and that if it is not tried before the Taylor case it probably would be several months before it was tried.

The solicitor-general Thursday announced also that the cases of Dr. J. E. Turner, Councilman William E. Saunders, Bruce Baxter, Harry York, Roy Warren, J. Allen Couch and J. E. Robinson had been placed on the docket for April 22 and would be tried in succession as rapidly as possible beginning on that date.

All of the cases were placed on the calendar of Judge Humphries.

The grand jury will resume its investigation today, centering its activities on the operations and management of Grady hospital.

A number of witnesses who were subpoenaed for Tuesday's session of the grand jury and dismissed that day have been ordered to appear today.

"None of these city officials was able to tell you that Jack White ever had anything to do with the operations of Mr. Price's office and none of them were able to tell you that ever saw White 'sneaking in and out of Price's office like a rat sneaking in and out of his hole," Mr. Howard said.

"We don't know that these orders came from Mr. Price himself. They may have come from anyone connected with the office of the purchasing agent."

Case Not Made, Is Claim.
Containing from the very start that the case had not been made by the state, Mr. Allen declared that neither White nor those subpoenaed to stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

"The state has put on the stand a parade of witnesses to accuse Purchasing Agent Price of neglecting his duty to such a point that the neglect must have been as a result of a desire to defraud, but they have not offered one witness to show that White ever knew or even was personally acquainted with Price or that the purchasing agent knew Councilman York."

'Guilty,' Says White Jury

JACK WHITE.

nothing for you to do but to vote the acquittal of Jack White."

Mr. Allen spoke for an hour and twenty minutes.

Boykin Closes for State.
The state's closing argument, a ringing and dramatic appeal for conviction of White on all four counts in the indictment, was made by Solicitor-General Boykin.

Mr. Boykin went over the testimony offered by the various prosecution witnesses, explained the purpose of the state in offering it and summed up his argument with the assertion that "every deal that we have shown you was engineered by White, York and Price and every deal we have shown you was made by White, York and Price."

Mr. Boykin spoke for one hour, using one-half of the time allotted to the prosecution.

The solicitor-general pictured White as the man responsible for the illegal deals, declaring that every salesman who went to the city hall on a bona fide errand of business saw in the background the frame of White, blocking their every move to carry on legitimate business.

White in Background.
"No one, without first seeing White and paying him tribute, was able to negotiate any deal for disinterested with the city of Atlanta," Mr. Boykin declared. "White had to have his share and he had to fix the prices the city was to pay for the stuff it bought so that he could get his 'rebate.'"

If the price of the commodity wasn't high enough for White to get his share he boosted the price and William P. Price, the man who was supposed to be there to see that Atlanta was not robbed, stood by and raised not a finger to prevent White from his continued raids on the treasury. He who had sworn to guard the city's treasury slept with his eyes wide open while the city was being robbed."

The opening defense argument was made by Special Prosecutor Howard, who made an unusually stinging attack on White and his defense for failing to offer any testimony to answer the state's charges.

"I wish they had placed Price on the stand," Mr. Howard declared. "I wanted to cross-examine him on how he did the duty he had to stand before you and make a plea that the state had no case."

"The state has a case and it has been made out thoroughly here," Mr. Howard continued. "We have shown you how Jack White boasted of his control of the city business and we have offered the testimony of a number of persons to prove that he did control it because of his arrangements with Purchasing Agent Price and Councilman York and others of his associates."

"We have proved to you that no one could sell disinfectants to the city unless White was the 'salesman' and got his share of the proceeds. Men have testified that they offered the same wares to the city that were bought from White at lower prices than White sold them and that they were turned down. Their goods were sold easily when they made arrangements with White to give him a rebate. Why weren't they sold before? Because Price and York and White were in a conspiracy to get every thing they could."

"About the motor car deals. The city could have saved a discount of 15 per cent on these cars if White had not intervened and charged the LeRoux Motor Company for his services. The purchasing committee didn't know it was being hoodwinked but White and Price and York knew it because White was getting a measly $50 out of each of the two deals. The company didn't say anything for fear of losing the sale."

Sims' Closing Argument.
Former Mayor Sims' opening argument was almost the same as that offered by Mr. Allen—that the state had made no case and that therefore the defense had been offered nothing to refute.

"If at any time the state had proven a case that even indicated there was a conspiracy between White and the purchasing agent we would have had lots of testimony to improve it," Mr. Sims declared. "But they offered nothing to refute and we therefore had nothing to answer to. I think we could well submit the case without argument. There is nothing for 12 fair-minded men to do but to free Mr. White."

Judge Humphries' charge to the jury was lengthy. It took 50 minutes. He read the indictment and explained its four counts in detail.

The only one of the three defendants named in the indictment whose case you are to consider is White," the judge declared. "His case is the only one on trial."

The judge then outlined in detail the laws governing conspiracy and explained to the jury that this was what was to be decided in the case.

"If you believe that White and Price conspired to defraud the city, as is charged in all four counts in the indictment, it is your duty to convict him on those counts which you believe the conspiracy existed," the judge declared. "If you believe there was no conspiracy it is your duty to acquit the defendant."

The defendant pulled a big surprise when it decided to submit the case without testimony. The state had rested at 9:45 o'clock Thursday morning. The Mr. Allen and Mr. Sims asked Judge Humphries to send the jury to its room in order that he might present a motion for a directed verdict of acquittal.

This appeal was refused and Mr. Allen and Mr. Sims decided after a short conference that no testimony would be offered. The arguments were begun at once.

Few Witnesses Presented.
The state presented only a few witnesses, the testimony of none of whom was considered important, in the morning session. Mayor I. N. Ragsdale and City Treasurer J. H. Ewing, Jr., were called to the stand to testify concerning the reports of Price on the prices he was obtaining before giving orders for city supplies. Both said they had been given such reports by the purchasing agent, but failed to recall specific instances when he made such reports and declared they did not remember his making such statements in connection with the purchase of disinfectants or the two motor cars from the LeRoux company.

The state had about a dozen witnesses for rebuttal testimony, but none of these could be used as the defense offered nothing to rebut.

Policeman To Die For Killing Negriss
NEW ORLEANS, April 3.—(P)—Charles Guerdan, 27, former policeman, was convicted tonight of the murder of Hattie McCray, 14-year-old negro girl. The verdict which carries the death penalty was returned after 45 minutes' deliberation.

Testimony offered during the trial was that Guerdan admitted after the killing of the girl that he had shot her when she repelled his advances. The shooting occurred in a restaurant where the girl was employed.

Veteran jurists and attorneys said the conviction of the former officer was the first time in their recollection that a white man locally had been found guilty as charged of the murder of a negro. A number have been found guilty of second degree murder for killing negroes.

FRANCE AND ITALY BLOCK NAVY PACT
Continued from First Page.

parity with the strongest continental power. They had in mind the future of Italy at the general disarmament conference of the League of Nations.

He asserted that the position of the delegation was that a concession on claims for naval parity with France might well involve the necessity at some future date of conceding superiority in military or in air power to a continental power, when these questions should come before the league for settlement.

In outlining the problem facing the Italians, the spokesman touched upon the question of European blocs, maintaining that the balance of power on the European continent was one of the most essential factors in preserving peace.

Complete satisfaction of the United States, Great Britain and Japan over their three-power naval construction agreement served today to veil to some extent the Anglo-French-Italian political problems which still delay complete success of the conference.

The American spokesman declared today that the American-British-Japanese accord is much better than could have been expected from the Geneva arms conference, where the same three powers failed diplomatically in their 1927 negotiations. Senator Reed, the principal American negotiator, said the discussions had been frank and fair, and that "the result was not a victory for anyone, but an honorable and reasonable settlement between the three."

The committee of American, British and Japanese experts named yesterday needed only a one-hour session this morning to accept the Japanese reservations in principle. Tomorrow morning they will meet again to work out the details.

These include the Japanese request that she be permitted to keep her dockyard and technical staffs employed by accelerating some features of her naval program, in compensation for which she wishes to scrap some ships before their allotted span of life.

The committee of American, British and Japanese experts named yesterday needed only a one-hour session this morning to accept the Japanese reservations in principle. Tomorrow morning they will meet again to work out the details.

These include the Japanese request that she be permitted to keep her dockyard and technical staffs employed by accelerating some features of her naval program, in compensation for which she wishes to scrap some ships before their allotted span of life.

The committee of American, British and Japanese experts named yesterday needed only a one-hour session this morning to accept the Japanese reservations in principle. Tomorrow morning they will meet again to work out the details.

These include the Japanese request that she be permitted to keep her dockyard and technical staffs employed by accelerating some features of her naval program, in compensation for which she wishes to scrap some ships before their allotted span of life.

The committee of American, British and Japanese experts named yesterday needed only a one-hour session this morning to accept the Japanese reservations in principle. Tomorrow morning they will meet again to work out the details.

These include the Japanese request that she be permitted to keep her dockyard and technical staffs employed by accelerating some features of her naval program, in compensation for which she wishes to scrap some ships before their allotted span of life.

The committee of American, British and Japanese experts named yesterday needed only a one-hour session this morning to accept the Japanese reservations in principle. Tomorrow morning they will meet again to work out the details.

These include the Japanese request that she be permitted to keep her dockyard and technical staffs employed by accelerating some features of her naval program, in compensation for which she wishes to scrap some ships before their allotted span of life.

The committee of American, British and Japanese experts named yesterday needed only a one-hour session this morning to accept the Japanese reservations in principle. Tomorrow morning they will meet again to work out the details.

These include the Japanese request that she be permitted to keep her dockyard and technical staffs employed by accelerating some features of her naval program, in compensation for which she wishes to scrap some ships before their allotted span of life.

The committee of American, British and Japanese experts named yesterday needed only a one-hour session this morning to accept the Japanese reservations in principle. Tomorrow morning they will meet again to work out the details.

These include the Japanese request that she be permitted to keep her dockyard and technical staffs employed by accelerating some features of her naval program, in compensation for which she wishes to scrap some ships before their allotted span of life.

The committee of American, British and Japanese experts named yesterday needed only a one-hour session this morning to accept the Japanese reservations in principle. Tomorrow morning they will meet again to work out the details.

These include the Japanese request that she be permitted to keep her dockyard and technical staffs employed by accelerating some features of her naval program, in compensation for which she wishes to scrap some ships before their allotted span of life.

The committee of American, British and Japanese experts named yesterday needed only a one-hour session this morning to accept the Japanese reservations in principle. Tomorrow morning they will meet again to work out the details.

Floridian Held for Quiz After Death of Wife, Son

SIX AUTO FATALITIES IN CITY DURING MONTH

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(P)—During the four weeks ending March 22 there were 570 persons killed by automobile accidents in the large cities of the United States, the department of commerce has announced.

Southern cities, submitting reports were as follows:

City	4 wks. end March 22	last 52 weeks
Atlanta	6	82
Birmingham	6	81
Dallas	5	66
Knoxville	1	34
Louisville	3	74
Memphis	2	68
Nashville	4	53
New Orleans	8	111

Six cities reported no deaths during the four weeks ending March 22. They were Canton, Ohio; Des Moines, Iowa; Lowell, Mass.; Somerville, N. J.; Utica, N. Y.; and Yonkers, N. Y. New York reported the largest number of fatalities, with 85 for the four-week period, with Chicago second with 63. Detroit reported 41 deaths.

HOOVER GOES FISHING IN VIRGINIA FOOTHILLS

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(P)—President Hoover will leave work behind him in Washington tomorrow and Saturday while

Soviets Found Retreating From Iron-Handed Policy

Three Developments Point to Back-Tracking of Party; Dictator Stalin Discovered Taking Orders.

BY EUGENE LYONS,
United News Staff Correspondent.

MOSCOW, April 3.—Russia's new policy of leniency in its drive for 100 per cent communism reached a climax today with three dramatic developments.

First, Dictator Josef Stalin issued a new warning that the communist party was in danger of "breaking with the peasant masses" and "undermining the proletarian dictatorship" unless it quickly and thoroughly corrected mistakes and excesses in getting peasants to join collective farms.

Second, the central committee of the communist party granted a series of economic inducements to peasants either remaining in or joining collectives.

Third, Stalin emphasized that his statement was issued in accordance with the central committee's desire, and asserted that a former statement on the same subject was made not on his personal initiative but by order of the committee.

Taking Orders.
This clear-cut declaration that Stalin is taking orders from the party and is entirely subordinate to it was likely to cause surprise in circles which regarded Stalin as the iron dictator of soviet destinies.

Today's developments were of a kind to rouse new world attention on the soviet, which the United States has refused to recognize and which has been increasingly in the news because of its aggressive campaign against private industry and religion.

While still maintaining its goal, the communist party has admitted that violence—held necessary by Lenin and later by Stalin—is not the way to the best results in some directions.

Stalin declared that peasants unripe for collectivization must be permitted to withdraw from the movement and that the country must concentrate on the immediate task of a successful spring sowing of grain.

"It is difficult to halt people who are flying headlong into an abyss," Stalin said, but he added that the party had already overcome the main difficulties.

5-Year-Old Plan Doubled.
He estimated that only 40 per cent of the grain regions had been collectivized, instead of the 60 per cent previously supposed, but that, even 40 per cent was double the original objective in the famous five-year plan. He denied that the party was engaged in a "retreat," saying it was merely pausing to consolidate its victories, eliminate abuses, remove the element of unfeeling elements and cause evaporation of "paper collectives."

He indicated the war for suppression of the kulaks, or rich peasants, whom he termed "bloodsuckers, spiders and vampires," must continue but that it was necessary not to attempt too much at once.

Urged to Remain.
At the same time Stalin urged peasants to remain in collectives; despite their righteous indignation against some of the methods used in placing them there. As an inducement he referred to the action of the central committee, also published today, in granting benefits to members of collectives.

The benefits include a moratorium on debts to the government, annulment of all fines and punishments for infringements of the agrarian laws, tax exemption for two years even on personal belongings not placed in the collective pools, and the full right to earn additional income by working in cities when not busy on the collectives. In addition, the government will extend 500,000,000 rubles (nominally about $250,000,000) credits to collectives and will greatly reduce their taxes.

Stalin termed the collectives "the only exit from poverty and darkness."

WOULD-BE FIREMEN FACE STRICT TESTS

Steps to eliminate politics in selection of Atlanta firemen and to establish a rigid eligibility test for all aspirants to the department, were taken at a meeting of the board of firemen Thursday night.

The new program voted unanimously by the department's governing body provides for immediate establishment of "maneuver grounds" at No. 7 station, where all candidate-firemen will be required to go through a period of intense training before their names are placed on the eligible list. Under the present system of selection all that is required is that the would-be fireman be between the ages of 21 and 35, weigh 140 pounds, or more, and be at least 5 feet and 7 inches tall.

The instruction school, which will be under the personal supervision of Chief John Terrell and three superior officers—either assistant chiefs or captains—as he may see fit to appoint—will be in daily sessions. The instruction in addition to rules and regulations of the department will be devoted principally to the fundamentals of fire-fighting and first aid. "The strenuous training—net-jumping, scaling of buildings, fire-fighting, rope acrobatics, and other stunts are to be indulged in," Chief Terrell declared.

"When a candidate shows no aptitude for the job, or if a fireman's name will be taken from the list of eligibles and another man put in his place."

The board Thursday night also announced that construction of a new fire station "somewhere between the city limits and Buckhead" would be started within the near future. The board has been advised by the Fulton county commission that a lot for the station would be selected immediately and work started on the engine house which will afford protection for "property owners outside of the city."

A $88,000 appropriation for the new station was recently made by the commission and it was specified that the station in reality would be a regular part of the city fire department.

Harry Phillips, a driver at No. 9 engine house, was promoted to the rank of fire inspector by the department board, raising the number now in service to five.

Yen Hsi-Shan Turns Against Nationalists

PEIPING, China, April 3.—(AP)—A representative of General Yen Hsi-Shan this morning informed the legation here that Yen, so-called model governor of Shensi, has assumed the post of commander-in-chief and would begin a punitive expedition against Chiang Kai-Shek, president of the nationalist government at Nanking.

He added that Yen had guaranteed full protection of foreign life and property, and he urged the powers to refrain from giving moral and material support to Chiang Kai-Shek.

The announcement was accepted here as indicating inauguration of the long-threatened movement from the north against Chiang.

BRITISH MISSIONARY REPORTED MURDERED

TIENSIN, China, April 3.—(AP)—The London mission was informed by telegram today that Yorke Scarlett, British missionary, was murdered at Peitaiho last night.

Scarlett, with a colleague, Augustus P. Cullen, were proceeding through Peitaiho to inspect the mission property prior to opening of the summer season. Details were not immediately available.

BANDIT OUTRAGES GROW DAILY

SEANGHAI, April 3.—(AP)—Reports today indicated that increasing numbers of missionaries and other foreigners were being caught in the network of bandit operations that has been spread over the Yangtze valley and several southern provinces of China.

Announcing a stern policy in dealing with attacks upon its missionaries, the China inland mission headquarters here said that no ransom money would be paid to bandits, as to do so "would endanger every foreigner in the interior of China and place a premium upon kidnapping."

Mme Emma Albani, Operatic Star, Dies

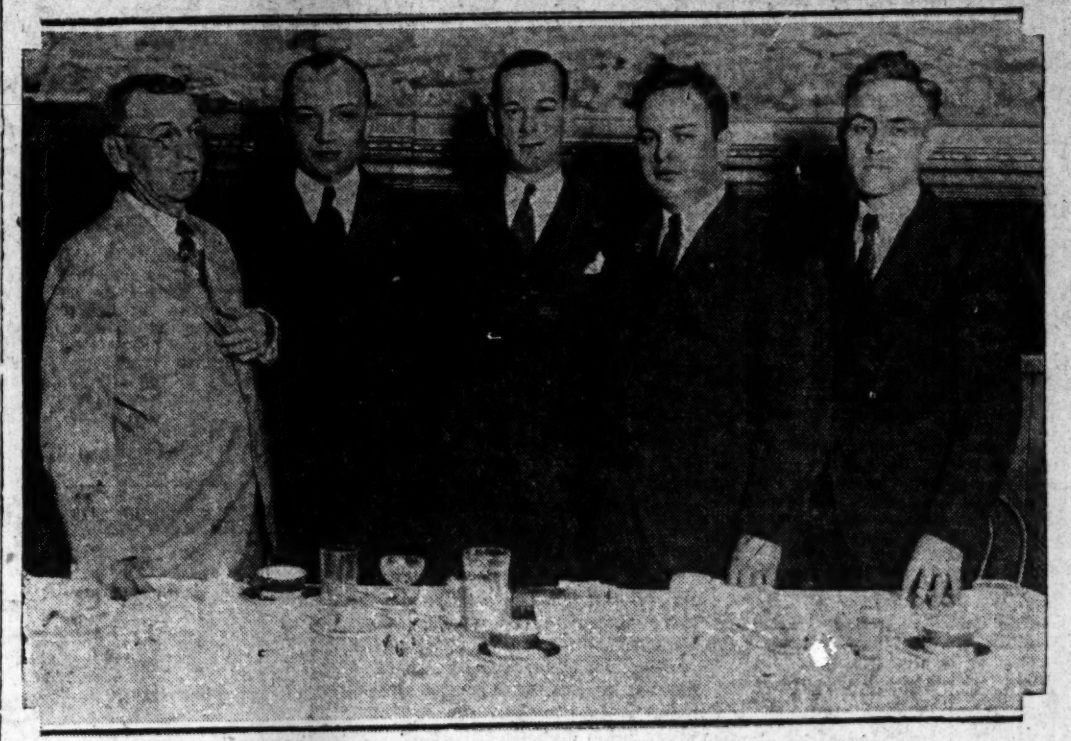

LONDON, April 3.—(AP)—Madame Emma Albani, famous operatic soprano of the nineteenth century, died at her home in Kensington today at the age of 77.

She had been ill only a week, but had not left the house for some months. She remained cheerful to the end and her interest in the operatic and concert world continued unabated. Madame Albani had a soprano voice which was applauded by thousands on every continent. She took leading roles at Covent Garden and charmed Queen Victoria at Windsor Castle. She was made a dame of the British empire in 1926 and was awarded orders of merit by Denmark and Germany.

She was born at Chambly near Montreal and much of her talent was ascribed to her father, Joseph Lejeune, musician, organist and harpist, who taught her from childhood. As a dame of her voice spread to the United States, she was invited to sing in Albany, N. Y. She made her operatic debut in Italy in 1879 after which her success became meteoric.

She was married to Ernest Gye, impresario, in 1898. Her farewell concert was given in Albert Hall, London, in 1924.

National Junior Chamber Officials Are Guests at Jaycee Luncheon Here

United States Junior Chamber of Commerce executives who visited Atlanta Thursday. Left to right, Mayor I. N. Ragsdale, National President Herbert F. McCulla; Joe W. Ray, president of the local organization; National Executive Secretary Harry J. Krusz, and Horace Russell, president of Atlanta's senior chamber of commerce.

Herbert F. McCulla, president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Harry J. Krusz, executive secretary, were guests of honor at a luncheon Thursday extended by the Atlanta Junior Chamber.

The visit to Atlanta terminated a southern tour undertaken by the national executives, during which they had visited 20 cities. They leave Atlanta for Lincoln, Neb.

A number of representative Atlanttans attended the luncheon. Among them were Mayor I. N. Ragsdale; Horace Russell and B. S. Barker, of the senior Chamber of Commerce; William Candler, J. G. Maxwell, G. C. Bowden, Dr. Herbert Kennedy, Fitzhugh Knox, Jr., John M. Slaton, Jr., Roy LeCraw and B. Graham West.

Mr. McCulla made the principal address, reviewing the work of the junior chambers. Mr. Krusz also spoke.

WICKERSHAM PLAN BELIEVED DOOMED

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—A decision on the legislative proposals of the Hoover law enforcement commission to strengthen dry enforcement measures set for next Wednesday by the house judiciary committee after failure today to reach an agreement on the major recommendations in the program.

With the committee divided on the commission's bills to permit juryless trials before United States commissioners and to define misdemeanor violations of the prohibition laws, indications were that these measures would not be favorably reported to the house without radical changes.

Although several committee members expressed the opinion that these measures had practically died in committee, Chairman Graham said the group would try to co-operate in formulating legislation to aid law enforcement.

"We refuse to rush action on measures that would result in unscientific legislation, just because somebody demands it," he added, however.

In a confidential communication to the judiciary committee, Attorney General Mitchell approved the bills, provided certain changes be made which would meet the approval of Chairman Wickersham of the commission.

Mitchell suggested the maximum penalty be increased from a $500 to $1,000 fine and six months' imprisonment or both, and favored a redraft of an original commission bill to prevent district attorneys from calling a defendant in a minor liquor case before a grand jury after a trial before a United States commissioner.

RASKOB IS FIRST IN WET-DRY PROBE

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—Preliminary to examination of John J. Raskob tomorrow by the senate lobby committee, Senator Robinson, republican, Indiana, said today he had obtained reports from the house of representatives which showed the democratic national chairman had contributed $84,500 during the last three years to the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment.

Raskob has been directed to appear before the lobby committee tomorrow questioning in regard to his anti-prohibition activities. He was called at the suggestion of Senator Robinson.

The Indiana said the reports made by the association against the Prohibition Amendment which are required by law, showed Raskob had contributed $17,000 in 1928, $30,000 in 1929, and $17,500 thus far this year.

Raskob will be the first witness in an inquiry by the lobby committee into wet and dry organizations to ascertain their method of operation and the amount of money expended.

Representative Tinkham, republican, Massachusetts, is scheduled to testify Tuesday. He wants the committee to investigate the Methodist board of temperance, prohibition and public morals and the Federal Council of Churches.

Authors Ask Bill To Change Copyright

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—Prominent authors, playwrights and publishers today told the house patent committee that a new and growing demand for American books abroad necessitates a sweeping change of "antiquated" copyright laws.

Will Irwin, author and a former war correspondent, marshalled before the committee Marc Connelly, playwright; Elmer Davis, novelist; Chester T. Crowell, magazine writer; Thayer Satterthwaite, short story writer, and Edwin H. Hart, attorney for his author-wife, Frances Noyes Hart, who is ill.

They all urged that the Vestal bill would give the individual author greater control over his product and permit this country to enter the international copyright union.

Publishers, declaring that American authors were producing a far better product than ever before, attracting a foreign demand, they cannot supply because of the "impulsive publication ruling, also approved the bill.

William J. Burns On Mosquitoes' Trail

SARASOTA, Fla., April 3.—(AP)—Mosquitoes beware! An international famous detective will soon be on the trail.

William J. Burns, who resides here during the winter, today was elected president of the Florida Anti-Mosquito Society, an organization engaged in eradication of the annoying and dangerous pests.

Alec MacWilliams, Vero Beach, was chosen vice president, and Ellsworth Filby, Jacksonville, was re-elected secretary and treasurer.

Clear, Warmer Days Forecast By U. S. Bureau

Brighter skies and slightly warmer weather was forecast for today by C. F. von Herrmann, in charge of the Atlanta office of the United States weather bureau. Temperatures are expected to range from 50 to 65 degrees.

A number of inquiries have reached the department from persons planning visits to Magnolia Gardens, Charleston, S. C., during the week-end. Fair, agreeable weather is forecast for several spring days to come, Mr. von Herrmann said.

PARENT-TEACHER BODY DEVELOPS HOT DEBATE

Fight over whether teachers of the Atlanta public school system shall hold positions on the executive committee of the Atlanta Parent-Teacher council Thursday caused summary adjournment of the monthly meeting of the council with a committee authorized to revise the by-laws of the association and bring a report to the next regular meeting.

The effort to place members of the instructional staff of the school system on the executive committee was regarded by several outstanding members of the council as an attempt by the school administration to dominate the council, and precipitated a heated debate.

Mrs. Henry Brower made the motion that the by-laws be so amended as to permit teachers to hold executive board posts, and a later suggestion by James P. Barron, principal of the Maddox Junior High school, was that Miss Allie Mann, president of the Atlanta Public School Teachers' Association, be placed on the board.

These moves brought comment from Miss Fannie Spahr, principal of the Ragsdale school, that she would be willing for the parents to run the council and let teachers attend to their duties and teach the children placed in their charge.

Miss Lamar Jeter, vice president of the teachers' organization, suggested that teachers attend the meetings, acquaint themselves with the operation of the council and then ask a change in the by-laws if such is deemed advisable.

Mrs. Charles Foster explained the formation of the by-laws and declared they probably need revision.

When the session adjourned, only a motion to authorize Mrs. H. G. Parks, president, to name a committee to revise the by-laws had been passed.

Mrs. Parks reiterated that she would withdraw at the expiration of her term as president of the council in June from active service in the organization "because the council has entered politics."

Officers Installed By Elks of Atlanta

Officers of Atlanta Lodge No. 78, B. P. O. Elks, were installed Thursday night at the Elks' home, 738 Peachtree street, before a large number of members in attendance on a meeting this year. Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Charles H. Smith, of Macon Lodge No. 230, conducted the installation.

Robert T. Williams, president of the Georgia Elks' Association, of LaGrange Lodge No. 1084, was among those present. Music was furnished by the Atlanta band, and after the program a barbecue supper was served.

Following the installation John S. McClelland, exalted ruler, named the following appointive officers: John T. Peel, exalted; the Rev. Russell K. Smith, chaplain; Emilio Volpi, organist; Walter L. Dunn, assistant organizer; and Charles G. Bruce, inner guard.

The following officers were installed: John S. McClelland, exalted ruler; Lewis J. Bailey, esteemed leading knight; Joseph R. Cooke, esteemed lecturing knight; William T. Jordan, esteemed loyal knight; R. E. Lee Reynolds, secretary; R. B. Cunningham, treasurer; James J. Bonner, tiler, and Newman Lauer, trustee, five years.

Mrs. Conway, Victim Of Burns, Improving
Mrs. J. P. Conway, 50, of 423 East Cambridge avenue, College Park, was reported to be improving at her home Thursday night following an accident Tuesday when she was severely burned about the face and neck. Mrs. Conway was injured when a gas heater at her residence exploded.

Sutton and Ritchie Scored at Meeting

The second protest meeting against Willis A. Sutton and Raymond H. Ritchie, superintendent, and assistant superintendent of schools in charge of business affairs, respectively, was held Thursday night at the Fair Street school.

Several speakers scored what they termed the "whitewashing" of Ritchie at a recent trial of that official by the board of education on charges of waste and extravagance.

Among the speakers were Carl Hutcheson and James Cumbe. William C. Slate, school commissioner from the second ward, and one of the members of the board who voted against the findings of the investigation committee of the board, has been one of the moving forces in the present gatherings.

If Cleopatra had owned an Atwater Kent Radio

Can you picture Cleo and Mark drifting down the moonlit Nile with Rudy Vallee crooning "What Is This Thing Called Love?" over a deep-toned Atwater Kent? More destruction in the history of Rome!

Atwater Kent Model A100 (Complete Installed)
$146.50
Deferred Payments If Desired.
Radios—Fifth Floor

DAVISON-PAXON CO.

Fire Department Car Burns Day and Night

A fire that was right in the middle of the fire department, exactly under Captain George W. Tumlin, of station No. 6, at Boulevard and Auburn avenue, and burned for a whole day and night without being discovered, became generally known Thursday when firemen started a "kidding campaign" against their captain.

On Thursday a fire at Forrest avenue and Butler street was answered by station No. 6 and a spark fell on the cushion of the official car. Friday, when Captain Tumlin came on duty he answered a call and found that the cushion of the car was so hot he could hardly sit upon it. The next call, he had to drive standing up, and thinking that "the boys" had put some chemical on the seat as a joke, he took it in to clean it. It was then found that a fire was glowing down inside the cotton stuffed seat and had been burning all day and the night before.

Committee Meets.
Only routine matters were considered Thursday at the regular meeting of the electric lights committee of council.

This Is Atlanta's Outstanding Opportunity In

Wilton Rugs

$59.75
Size 9x12-ft.

A WILTON RUG at the Price You'd Have to Pay for a Good Axminster!

Rugs of quality—marked with the distinction of fine weaving and authentic as well as beautiful patterns. Rugs worthy of YOUR home in soft subdued colorings that will blend with walls, draperies, furniture!

Size 8' 3"x10' 6" $54.75
Rugs—Fourth Floor

DAVISON-PAXON CO.
ATLANTA—affiliated with MACYS, New York

Mrs. Conway, Victim Of Burns, Improving

Mrs. J. P. Conway, 50, of 423 East Cambridge avenue, College Park, was reported to be improving at her home Thursday night following an accident Tuesday when she was severely burned about the face and neck. Mrs. Conway was injured when a gas heater at her residence exploded.

DAVISON-PAXON CO.

Don't Cry Over Split Waistlines!

Wear a . . . Comfortable Capable Combination

Gossard All-In-One

$10

Seeing is believing that a comfortable boneless garment can be as efficient a check on ruffled waistlines as the old-time armor! This particular one is as beautiful to see as it is to feel. It's chief materials are ecru lace and Skinner satin. Silk elastic is inserted at the hipline to curb every impulse to bulge. The lace brassiere-top is cup-form. The satin straps are detachable. The hipline and diaphragm are reinforced. The back is low. So is the price—incredibly so for such a competent thing of beauty.

You'll simply have to come in and see for yourself what Gossard has done for you! Sizes 34-40.

Ask for Gossard 6642

Corsets—Main Floor

Wear a DIAMOND NOW! and pay for it LATER!

Unusual Values are Now being offered at $50 ONLY $1 WEEKLY

Think of it! You can purchase a fine diamond ring and pay as little as $1 weekly on it and have the pleasure of wearing it while you pay for it. Why not take advantage of these liberal terms? Select a fine diamond ring and pay for it conveniently either weekly or monthly as you prefer.

$1 a Week $1 a Week
Atlanta's Foremost Jewelers
Le Grand JEWELRY CO.
106 Peachtree St., Piedmont Hotel Bldg.
Next to Piedmont Flower Shop
Expert Watch Repairing—All Makes. Only Genuine Material Used

They said the world was flat and that Columbus was crazy!

CORD FRONT DRIVE

47 Years a "Modern" Store

Procrastination!

Will Rob You of One of These Fine Awards

Win One of These Prizes in Your Spare Time

FIRST GRAND PRIZE

$3,120 Pierce-Arrow Sedan
$1,000 in Gold

$4,120 Total Value

SECOND GRAND PRIZE

$2,835 Franklin Sedan
$ 500 in Gold

$3,335 Total Value

DIVISION AWARDS

$1,615 Nash Sedan
$1,495 Reo Sport Sedan
$1,295 Marmon Roosevelt Sedan
$1,180 Chrysler Brougham
$ 965 Pontiac Sedan
$ 935 Essex Coach

DISTRICT AWARDS

$685 Chevrolet Coach
$685 Chevrolet Coach
$685 Chevrolet Coach
$685 Chevrolet Coach
$608 Ford Tudor Sedan
$608 Ford Tudor Sedan
$608 Ford Tudor Sedan
$608 Ford Tudor Sedan
$608 Ford Tudor Sedan
Ten $174.50 Atwater Kent Radios
Ten $146.50 Atwater Kent Radios
10 Per Cent Cash Commissions and 5 Per Cent Cash Commissions for Active Non-Prize Winners.

Don't put off until tomorrow entering The Atlanta Constitution's $25,000 prize campaign. DO IT NOW!

The $3,120 Pierce Arrow Sedan and $1,000 in gold won't be won by somebody who always thinks that "maybe I'll do something about it tomorrow." The eighteen automobiles, gold awards, Atwater Kent Radios and cash commissions will not become the possession of those who remain inactive, day after day, to the possibilities contained in one of the most liberal prize offers in the annals of journalism. The $25,000 in awards and cash commissions will be given to those who have learned the primary and most important lesson of material success—SEIZE THE OPPORTUNITY TODAY!

Here is a fortune in rich rewards offered for spare-time effort! You are given the chance to share in these awards by merely collecting credits—and credits are given you for securing renewal and new subscriptions to The Atlanta Constitution. The campaign is just getting started and ends May 31. And now is the best possible time to enter—there never will be a better time to get credits. New subscriptions secured now bring extra credits and you also have the opportunity of winning a part of $500 in Extra Gold.

Enter today! Don't procrastinate! Use the Entry Blank at once—and share in these fine awards.

100,000-50,000 Extra Credits

Good Until 9 p. m., April 19

Here are the GREATEST extra credit offers of the entire campaign: For every $30 club or combination of New prepaid subscriptions turned in up to 9 p. m., April 19, a bonus of 100,000 extra credits will be given. For every $30 club or combination of New contract subscriptions turned in a bonus of 50,000 extra credits will be given. A pro rata share of extra credits will be given for any amount over a club. These extra credits are given in addition to the regular credits allowed on each subscription as shown in the regular credit schedule.

$500 In Gold Special Awards

By entering the campaign today you have a wonderful opportunity to share in $500 in gold to be given as special awards to the seven candidates turning in the highest amounts in New subscription business during the period starting March 26 and ending at 9 p. m., April 19.

First Prize	$200	Fourth Prize	$50
Second Prize	100	Fifth Prize	25
Third Prize	75	Sixth Prize	25
	Seventh Prize		$25

These special gold awards are given in addition to the regular awards and the winning of one will in no way interfere with your winning a regular award, too. Both New contract and New prepaid subscriptions apply on this offer and these same subscriptions will count in the 100,000 and 50,000 extra credit offer.

First Grand Prize

3,120 PIERCE-ARROW SEDAN
$1,000 IN GOLD

$4,120 Total Value

$3,120 PIERCE-ARROW SEDAN
Purchased and on Display at Yarborough Motor Co.
568 W. Peachtree St., N. W.

Second Grand Prize

$2,835 FRANKLIN SEDAN
$ 500 IN GOLD

$3,335 Total Value

$2,835 FRANKLIN SEDAN
Purchased and on Display at Franklin Motor Car Co.
481 W. Peachtree St., N. W.

$1,615 NASH SEDAN
Purchased and on Display at Knowles Nash Co. 419 Peachtree St., N. E.

$1,495 REO SPORT SEDAN
Purchased and on Display at Reo Sales and Service, Inc.
402 Peachtree St., N. E.

$1,295 MARMON-ROOSEVELT SEDAN
Purchased and on Display at Marmon Atlanta Motor Co.
512 W. Peachtree St., N. W.

$1,180 CHRYSLER BROUGHAM
Purchased and on Display at
Harry Somers, Inc. 446 Spring St., N. W.

$965 PONTIAC SEDAN
Purchased and on Display at Oakland-Pontiac Co., Atlanta 435 Spring St.

$935 ESSEX COACH
Purchased and on Display at
Goldsmith-Becker Co. 230 Spring St., N. W.

$685 CHEVROLET COACH
Purchased From the Chevrolet Motor Co.
ON DISPLAY AT ALL CHEVROLET DEALERS

$608 FORD TUDOR SEDAN
Purchased and on Display at
ERNEST G. BEAUDRY 169 MARIETTA ST.

$685 CHEVROLET COACH
Purchased From the Chevrolet Motor Co.
ON DISPLAY AT ALL CHEVROLET DEALERS

$685 CHEVROLET COACH
Purchased From the Chevrolet Motor Co.
ON DISPLAY AT ALL CHEVROLET DEALERS

Ten $174.50 Atwater Kent Radios, models 1460, equipped with 60 Chassis Set, F4C Dynamic Speakers and including tubes.

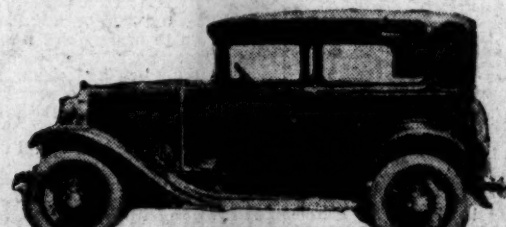

These radios are on display at any authorized Atwater Kent dealers.

$608 FORD TUDOR SEDAN
Purchased and on Display at
ERNEST G. BEAUDRY 169 MARIETTA ST.

$608 FORD TUDOR SEDAN
Purchased and on Display at
ERNEST G. BEAUDRY 169 MARIETTA ST.

$608 FORD TUDOR SEDAN
Purchased and on Display at
ERNEST G. BEAUDRY 169 MARIETTA ST.

$685 CHEVROLET COACH
Purchased From the Chevrolet Motor Co.
ON DISPLAY AT ALL CHEVROLET DEALERS

$685 CHEVROLET COACH
Purchased From the Chevrolet Motor Co.
ON DISPLAY AT ALL CHEVROLET DEALERS

$608 FORD TUDOR SEDAN
Purchased and on Display at
ERNEST G. BEAUDRY 169 MARIETTA ST.

Enter With This Blank

ENTRY BLANK GOOD FOR 5000 FREE CREDITS

Enter Name

As a Candidate in The Atlanta Constitution's $25,000 prize campaign.

Address

Town or City..... State.....

Phone No..... District No.....

Signed

A bonus of 10,000 EXTRA CREDITS will be given with the first subscription. Only one of these blanks credited to any candidate. The campaign ends May 31.

Ten $146.50 Atwater Kent Radios, models A 1055, equipped with 55 Chassis Set, F4C Dynamic Speakers and including tubes.

These radios are on display at any authorized Atwater Kent dealers.

Children's Home at Alto Dedicated, Given to State

High Georgia Officials and Masonic Members Attend Presentation Exercises.

ALTO, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—In the presence of high Georgia officials and prominent members of the Masonic fraternity Governor L. G. Hardman today accepted an behalf of the state the children's building erected at a cost of $125,000 by the Masons of Georgia at the state tuberculosis sanitarium here. Presentation was made by Most Worshipful Hugh W. Taylor, grand master of the Georgia Masonic lodge.

A heavy downpour of rain last night and this morning interfered with the program of the dedication exercises, and greatly reduced the attendance at the ceremonies. Originally scheduled to take place on a platform on the sanitarium grounds, the exercises had to be held inside the new building, which was donated by the Masons to take care of tubercular children from all parts of the state.

THOMASVILLE RAINFALL RECORD IS BROKEN

THOMASVILLE, Ga., April 3.—The month of March outdid itself in Thomasville, in 1936. Always a treacherous season, it broke the rainfall record for 30 years, with a total precipitation of ten and two-thirds inches. Also, it was, with two exceptions, the average coldest March in 38 years, with a mean temperature of 56 degrees. This was only exceeded with an average of 52 degrees in 1915, and a 55-degree average in 1926. There were only seven clear days during the month and seven more that were registered as "partly cloudy." All the other 17 days were decidedly cloudy and 15 of them recorded actual rain. One day, the 7th, total rainfall was six inches, which established another March record for a 24-hour period. The total sunshine was 194 hours, which is only 52 per cent of the total daylight hours, which is decidedly unusual for Thomasville and vicinity.

Georgia Land Title Filed for Henry Ford
SAVANNAH, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—A certificate of title covering a 50-acre island in the Ogeechee river was filed in superior court here today for Henry Ford, automobile manufacturer.

The property, which is known as Marsh Island, is near the tract recently acquired by Mr. Ford from J. L. Budeau.

The proceeding today is under provision of the Torrens land registration act.

Court To Determine Significance of Wife In Tax Levy Action

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—Whether the term "wife" has any legal significance will be determined Monday in superior court when Judge Peter W. Meldrum acts on the petition for an injunction filed today by Mrs. Irene Mays to restrain Sheriff Merritt W. Dixon from proceeding to seize goods in her grocery store to satisfy a $151 tax execution issued from Wilkeson county for state and county taxes for 1927.

The petition alleges the execution is illegal because Mrs. Mays did not own property in Wilkeson county in 1927, and therefore no execution could be issued against her; that she was not named in the execution and that the words therein, "R. S. Mays and wife," could have no relation to her as they do not denote either a natural or artificial person but merely a term of relationship.

The petition recited that the sheriff made a constructive levy Wednesday and the injunction was asked to prevent him from proceeding further.

Judge Meldrum granted a temporary restraining order this morning.

DENTAL MEETING HELD AT COLUMBUS

COLUMBUS, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—Technical papers and open forum discussion marked the one-day meeting here Thursday by the Fourth District Dental Society, attended by dentists from every section of the fourth congressional district.

The meeting began with a paper by Dr. John A. Knight, Manchester, Ga., followed by an open forum. Others on the program included Dr. G. W. Eason, LaGrange; Dr. F. M. Miller, Columbus; Dr. Shelby Cramer, Carrollton; Dr. G. C. Hunter, LaGrange; and Dr. M. Norman, West Point.

General table clinics were held in the afternoon. A banquet and election of officers compromised the night session.

Heads Glee Club

PRINCE H. PRESTON, JR., Of Statesboro, president and interloper of the 1936 University of Georgia Glee and Instrumental Club. He is a student in the Lumpkin law school, a member of the Pi Kappa Phi fraternity, of the Girdillon Club, the Hellenic council and the Bittid Club.

Col. Moore Dies At Villa Rica

VILLA RICA, Ga., April 3.—Colonel John M. Moore, 73, died here Thursday of paralysis. Colonel Moore was one of this section's most prominent men. He was president of the Farmers Merchants bank, mayor for 24 years and representative in the state legislature for two years. He is survived by his widow; two sons, J. T. Moore, of Atlanta, and R. H. Moore, of Birmingham, Ala.; and a daughter, Mrs. W. A. Kinney, of Birmingham. Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon with the Rev. G. B. Henderson officiating.

MANY VISITORS VIEW MT. BERRY SCHOOLS

MT. BERRY, Ga., April 3.—Visitors from widely scattered points were included among those at the Berry schools here this week. M. B. Wooding, Asheville, N. C., educator, who addressed the Rome Kiwanis Club, spent the morning looking over the buildings and grounds.

Dr. and Mrs. L. T. Kaufman, of State Center, Iowa, old friends of the schools, motored through and stopped to visit. Rev. A. H. Nabors, of Birmingham, Ala., who graduated in one of the first classes, that of 1906, with Mrs. Nabors, was a visitor, bringing two friends, Mrs. J. T. Vandaman and Mrs. W. P. Williams, also of Birmingham. Rev. Nabors is a Methodist minister. It is interesting to note that students of Berry have gone into the pastorate of practically all the Protestant denominations, Baptist, Presbyterian, Methodist, Lutheran, and many others.

Atlanta visitors included Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. May and Mrs. R. A. Manning. Mrs. Jack Deland, of Manchester, Ky., visited friends here.

Mrs. H. C. Allen, of Blue Ridge, Ga., former student here, with her daughter, Miss Frances Allen, left today after several days' visit.

VALDOSTA AIRPORT CONTROVERSY SETTLED

VALDOSTA, Ga., April 3.—The misunderstanding between the Chamber of Commerce and the city council regarding rental payments of the land for the municipal airport has been settled and the airport committee will proceed immediately with the work of completing the field. It is planned to have the formal opening sometime early in May and it will be fittingly celebrated. A committee representing the Chamber of Commerce appeared before the council and smoothed out the matter. The committee included P. W. Robertson, chairman of the airport committee; F. W. Webb, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; A. J. Strickland, Jr., of Little and John, T. Mathis.

Guests in Savannah.

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—Louis R. Cheney, Hartford, Conn., governor general of the Society of Colonial Wars: Howland Fell, New York, honorary governor general; George De Benneville Keim, Philadelphia, vice governor general, and Dr. Arthur Adams, Hartford, Conn., registrar general, were guests at a special court held by the Georgia society Wednesday. The general assembly of the society will be held May 22 to 24 at Hartford, Conn., it was announced.

ATLANTA'S FEATURE MUSICAL PROGRAM

Selections by Well-Known State Artists Given at Tifton Conference.

TIFTON, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—Social events and routine business session, interspersed with musical selections by well-known state artists, constituted the second day's program of the eleventh annual convention of the Georgia Federation of Music Clubs here Thursday.

Opening with the press breakfast under the direction of Helen Knox Spain, editor of the State Music Bulletin, the convention heard an address by Mrs. Helen Harrison Mills, of Peoria, Ill., editor of the National Music Club Magazine, on the subject, "Come, Let's Tell the World," giving concise and interesting suggestions for music club publicity.

The morning session was devoted principally to reports by district directors, describing the progress of music throughout the state. This was presided over by Mrs. John B. Guerry, of Montezuma, first vice president of the state federation.

The delegates then were entertained at luncheon by the Tifton Parent-Teachers Association and the local U. D. C. chapter, and later in the day attended a concert given by the Tifton Music Club and the Twentieth Century Library Club.

The day's musical program included piano recitals by Miss Helen Moore, Donald and songs in costume by Miss Helen Coyne Riley, both of Atlanta.

The convention closes Friday evening after electing officers. The nominating committee includes Mrs. Frederic E. Vaisiere, of Rome; Mrs. C. E. Glausier, of Quitman; Mrs. Louis Bradley, of Adrian; Mrs. M. B. Nichols, of Savannah; Mrs. James C. Chant, of Columbus; Mrs. C. C. Collier, of Montezuma; Mrs. J. M. Leonard, of Decatur; Mrs. R. A. Lovelace; Mrs. E. E. Lindsay, of Rome; Mrs. Paul Rhodes, of Madison; Mrs. J. T. Moore, of Atlanta; Mrs. L. H. Miller, of Waycross; and Mrs. H. A. Threlkeld, of Vidalia.

One of the chief events of the afternoon was the selection of songs for music in religious education which was conducted by Mrs. Grace W. Mabey, of Los Angeles, who urged use of more hymns in church services.

The young men of the convention predicted that the day of adult choirs and said church singers was passing.

Mrs. J. J. Simpson, of Atlanta, is being sent through the Sunday schools in teaching religious music.

LUCY COBB PROPOSAL TO BE GIVEN VOTE

ATHENS, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—Clark county commissioners have given their approval to a proposed election to determine the propriety of voters regarding annual appropriations of $5,000 each by the city and county for operation and maintenance of a junior college at Lucy Cobb.

The election will not determine whether the appropriations will be made but is merely to permit an expression of the views of citizens. The commissioners and the city and county may decide the issue without regard to the outcome of the election.

Howell C. Erwin, trustee of Lucy Cobb, said the election would be held this month.

In presenting the matter before the council several days ago the petitioners pointed out that girls of Athens and Clark county would be enabled to take two years of college work at Lucy Cobb for $15 a year, whereas they would pay $100 and more at other colleges and universities.

W. CAMERON FORBES VISITS SOUTH GEORGIA

THOMASVILLE, Ga., April 3.—W. Cameron Forbes, former governor general of the Philippines islands, and at present the head of President Hoover's commission to Haiti, is visiting in this section. He was in Thomasville several days and now is visiting Colonel Lloyd C. Griscom, of New York, at the latter's estate, Luna plantation, situated between this town and Tallahassee, Fla. General Forbes has purchased real estate within a mile of the city limits of Thomasville, and it is understood will likely build there a winter home. He will also have stables constructed and tracks made for his riding of polo, a notice, which he is expected to bring here to have trained.

State Deaths And Funerals

ROBERT D. RULE.
ATHENS, Ga., April 3.—Staff Sergeant Robert D. Rule, of the United States army, died at a private hospital here late today after two weeks' illness. He was brought here for a major operation, but doctors found that his condition was too weak.

He contracted pneumonia a few days ago. The funeral will be held at the home of Sergeant Rule at Deerfield, Va., for funeral services and interment.

SERGEANT RULE was attached to the 82nd division. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Vera L. G. Rule, two daughters, Misses Laurene O. and Willie Brown Rule, and his mother, Mrs. J. R. Rule, of Deerfield, Virginia.

MRS. H. C. SMOOKS.
SPRINGFIELD, Ga., April 3.—Mrs. H. C. Smooks, 80, died today. The funeral will be held at 4 p.m.

W. D. WILSON.
MACON, Ga., April 3.—W. D. Wilson, 68, prominent cotton buyer, of Cordale, Ga., died at a private hospital here late today after two weeks' illness. He was brought here for a major operation, but doctors found that his condition was too weak.

Mr. Wilson had resided in Cordale practically all of his life. He was associated with the Williams-Connors Company, of Atlanta, for many years. He was survived by his wife, Mrs. H. C. Wilson, of Atlanta; two daughters, Mrs. H. C. Wilson, of Atlanta; two sons, J. T. Wilson, of Mulberry, Fla., and J. T. Dodd, of St. Petersburg, Fla., and three grandchildren.

He was a member of the Cordale Methodist church and of the Masonic lodge of Cordale.

FUNERAL OF P. W. WHITE.
FORSYTH, Ga., April 3.—The funeral of P. W. White, 55, who died Tuesday, was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Forsyth, Ga. Rev. Jesse Hunt officiated. Mr. White had not been in the best of health for some time. He was a well-known and respected citizen of Forsyth county and was highly esteemed. Besides his wife he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. J. W. Woods, Kennesaw; Mrs. J. L. Dumas, Valdosta, and Mrs. C. E. White, Atlanta; and a son, Mr. P. W. White, Grogans, and Glen White, Florida; three brothers, J. P. White, Florida; Ed White, Florida; and Hugh White, Giffin.

MRS. T. C. TREADWELL.
FORSYTH, Ga., April 3.—Mrs. T. C. Treadwell, 72, died at her home in Russellville after an illness of five weeks. The funeral was held from the Russellville Methodist church at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Rev. George Acree officiating.

MRS. T. C. TREADWELL was in the Russellville church cemetery.

Prize Winner.

MRS. J. M. TRIBBLE.

Mrs. J. M. Tribble, of Senoia, Ga., submitted the coal slogan which has just been awarded second prize in the nationwide coal slogan prize contest sponsored by the National Retail Coal Merchants' Association. Her winning slogan was, "Use coal—unless you have money to burn."

Herbert Moeller, struggling student instructor at the University of Illinois, came under the tape ahead of the entire field, his acrostical slogan: "Coal—'Comfort of American Life,' being placed first of the 172,670 slogans by the seven nationally known judges, chairman by Dr. Julius Klein. Thirty-eight other winners came from 25 states and one from Canada."

In announcing the winners Harry Turner, of Topeka, Kan., contest chairman, stated that the contest reached an unbelievable number of people to the fullest co-operation on the part of the entire coal industry.

Georgia Man Dies of Poison

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 3.—(AP)—A man believed to be J. W. Cole 25, of Cordale, Ga., died here today of poison that Assistant Coroner William M. Borge said was administered. The young man was found unconscious in a downtown hotel and taken to a hospital, where he died.

An envelope addressed to J. E. Cole, 1167 Lee place, Atlanta, Georgia, was found on the young man.

GEORGIAN IS KILLED AS AUTO OVERTURNS

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—Thomas Hinton, 34, died Wednesday at a local hospital of a fractured skull following an accident earlier in the evening about two miles from Savannah on the Louisville road when the automobile he was driving ran off the road, turned over nose end several times and landed in a plowed field.

Parker's face was crushed and the base of his skull was fractured. J. T. Waters, his companion in the car, was not seriously injured. The car was said to have been driven at high speed. Parker was on his way to Savannah from Monticello, Ga., a small place near here.

VALDOSTA BANK SHOWS $2,000,000 RESOURCES

VALDOSTA, Ga., April 3.—At the close of business on March 27 the First National bank had resources amounting to $2,880,905.45, according to a report made to the comptroller of the currency.

The bank showed among its resources $443,000 in United States bonds and treasury certificates, together with loans and discounts up to $1,832,258.11.

In addition to its capital of $125,000 a surplus of $200,000 is shown together with $1,376.75 in undivided profits. The deposits were listed at $2,387,905.45.

GAINSBORO TELEPHONE AND SOUTHERN MERGE

CARROLLTON, Ga., April 3.—Local stockholders of the Gainsboro Telephone and Telegraph Company have disposed of their interest in the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company. On April 1 property of the Gainsboro company was merged with that of the Southern Bell system and service will be furnished with the new company. The company will hereafter be known as the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company, but it is announced that there will be no change in the personnel of the organization. The Gainsboro company was organized 30 years ago and served 13 towns with lines extending over seven counties.

HEAD COLDS

Ment in boiling water and inhale vapors; also sniff up nose.

VICKS VAPORUB

OVER 25 MILLION JARS USED YEARLY

Tetterine Heals Skin Diseases

If you suffer from skin eruptions of any kind, pimples, itch, tetter, ringworm, eczema, etc., a pleasant ointment, known as Tetterine, containing highly effective parasite, germ-killing and skin-healing properties, never fails to bring quick and permanent relief.

Tetterine, by its clean, cooling, soothing, antiseptic effect kills the parasites that bore into the skin, causing irritation and itching. Tetterine is sold and guaranteed by all druggists at 60c per box.—(adv.)

CORNS REMOVED FOR 10 CENTS

Corn, Callous, Roots and All Come Out—Pain Gone Instantly.

SHOES DON'T HURT RESULTS GUARANTEED

Many a man and woman has exclaimed O-Joy when they found their corns and callous gone—pain gone—and shoes hurting no more. Pay a dime for an envelope of six O-Joy Corn Wafers. Press a wafer, thin as paper, on the corn, slip on shoes, pain is gone. Later peel off wafer and out comes corn, callous, roots and all. Absolutely guaranteed. No bulky, doughnut pads or burning acids. Just a wafer, thin as paper. Avoid higher priced substitutes. O-Joys are newest, best, remedy yet. Six for dime at drug stores.—(adv.)

ARMY BOARD TRACES CLANTON MOVEMENTS

Hardware Salesman Tells of Selling Pistol to Young Aviator.

MACON, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—Evidence that Charles W. Clanton, 22, enlisted man at Maxwell Field, Ala., who was found by a coroner's jury to have committed suicide, bought a pistol shortly before he was found dead was given to a board of United States army officers here today.

The evidence covered an extensive investigation. The three members of the army board—Captain S. A. Bedinger, Captain J. T. Zellars, and Captain William Burt—continued to take testimony, but said they would complete the record in another day.

Officers traced the steps of young Clanton from the time he arrived in Macon about 2 o'clock Tuesday morning, until the time his body was discovered on the side of a road in North Macon shortly after 1 o'clock of the same day.

The officers ascertained that he left a cheap hotel and went to a local hardware store. There he met a salesman and asked for a rifle.

The rifle was too expensive, it appeared, and he was shown a small .22 calibre Derringer pistol.

"Will that kill a squirrel in a tree?" the salesman quoted him as having asked.

The salesman explained to young Clanton that the pistol was made to kill only at close range, and probably would not kill the squirrel. The young man purchased it, however, and also a box of cartridges.

From the store, Mr. Stevens told the investigating board, Clanton went to another hotel—that was around 10 o'clock Tuesday morning—and registered there, again paying in advance. He went to his room, the officers were told, and asked to be awakened at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Soon, however, he was seen to leave the room.

SEALED VERDICT GIVEN IN RAILROAD SUIT

MACON, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—Two hours after being given the case, a jury in Bibb superior court Thursday night returned a sealed verdict in the suit of J. Stanley Dumas vs. the Central of Georgia Railway Company in which Mr. Dumas sought $25,000 damages.

Mr. Dumas was hunting for negro labor for his peach orchards in the summer of 1926. He drove onto a lower Elm street crossing, below Broadway, in the path of cars that were being shunted by a switch engine. Mr. Dumas was badly bruised. A negro who was riding with him was killed.

Exalted Ruler

JUDGE H. B. HEERY.

Who was this week elected exalted ruler of the Savannah lodge, E. P. O. Judge Heery has made a notable record as one of the three judges of the municipal court of Savannah.

Lowndes County Widens Highway

VALDOSTA, Ga., April 3.—Lowndes county authorities are carrying out one of the most important road projects undertaken in many years outside of paving programs.

The Bemis road, from Valdosta into Berrien county, touching various important points in the trading territory, is being made wider, regraded and surfaced with a fine mixture of sand and clay. On the road northeast of Valdosta is Cherry creek, which is approached by long hills from each side, with a sharp curve on one side of the creek bridge.

The entire highway is being made the standard width as required by a state highway commission, it being recognized that in years to come this road will be taken over by the state and paved. At the creek, besides making the approach wider, the dangerous curve is being lessened considerably by slight changes in the direction of the road. The Bemis road will eventually become a part of the state system of county-seat-to-county-seat connections and Lowndes county is properly preparing the highway the entire distance from Valdosta to the Berrien county line.

OFFICERS INVESTIGATE PRACTICE OF PHYSICIAN

78-Year-Old Doctor Held at Savannah on Statutory Charge.

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—Authorities today were investigating the medical practice in Springfield, Ga., of Dr. A. G. Grenoble, of Jacksonville, Fla., who is held in the Chatham county jail.

The 78-year-old physician was taken into custody after he left Springfield before conferring with two physicians he had called in as consultants in cases of two women patients.

The sheriff at Effingham trailed Dr. Grenoble, arrested him, and returned him here.

Officers said Dr. Grenoble, who operates a private hospital in Jacksonville, set up an office in Springfield recently with an announced "treatment for cancer."

Dr. Grenoble later was removed from the Chatham county jail and taken in an automobile by Sheriff Marsh and Solicitor-General Usher, of Effingham county, to a destination which they refused to divulge.

Major J. C. Varnell, of Springfield, where Dr. Grenoble was arrested, today refused to discuss the case.

STATUTORY OFFENSE CHARGED IN WARRANT.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 3.—(AP)—Armed with a warrant charging a statutory offense, Georgia officers came here two days ago searching for Dr. A. G. Grenoble, operator of a private hospital, but found he had disappeared. The warrant was signed by Mayor J. C. Varnell, of Springfield, Georgia.

Sure Relief For Biliousness

Constipation

Sour Stomach Indigestion

Dr. Hitchcock's Laxative Powder

SPECIAL SALE CONTINUED BY POPULAR DEMAND!

Saturday is Positively the Last Day of this Amazing Introductory Sale

The greatest sale of fine toilet requisites, which this city has ever had. Do not miss this unusual opportunity to secure the $1.50 jar of Thayer's Cream of Creams, $2.00 bottle Narcissus Perfume and $1.00 box Jerome Face Powder—all for only $1.00

4.50 all $1.00 Value for

THAYER'S CREAM OF CREAMS has been introduced to thousands of American women at $1.50 a jar. Now it is available to you in a sensational three-day sale, at $1.00. And as an additional offer, to make you acquainted now with the beauty, we will give you FREE, during this sale, a full size box of genuine JEROME'S FINEST ANTIQUE, regularly priced at $1.00. Also you will receive a full size bottle of NARCISSUS. On sale regularly at $2.00. All three during this introductory sale for $1.00. Simply bring out this ad with you to receive your $1.00. ADD 25 CENTS FOR MAIL ORDER.

Bring this Ad Save $3.50 4.50 value for only $1.00

J. M. HIGH CO.

47 Years a "Modern" Store

HAGE AND HAGE DRY PALE GINGER ALE

Be sure you get the genuine Hage & Hage. Every bottle is labeled for your protection. Sold everywhere.

AN OLD SCOTCH BLEND

Hage & Hage is a delicious, sparkling, dry, mellow ginger ale made from an old Scotch blend. It is a delightful drink and the finest mixed that ever touched a glass. Take a Scotch tip and try Hage & Hage. Those who can afford the best regardless of price serve Hage & Hage as a matter of preference.

Packed in convenient cartons of six bottles (split). Just right for a drink—no waste—sold everywhere for 50c a bottle. Hage & Hage is also put up in pints and sold in the better drug stores.

Red Rock Co. Atlanta, Georgia

HAGE AND HAGE DRY PALE GINGER ALE

Red Rock Co. Atlanta, Georgia

Atlanta, Georgia

Atlanta, Georgia

Atlanta, Georgia

Atlanta, Georgia

B. Y. P. U. CONVENTION OPENS AT AUGUSTA

300 Delegates From Various Parts of State Attend Session.

AUGUSTA, April 3.—Three hundred Baptist young people and leaders from all over the state gathered at Curtis Baptist church here this afternoon for the first session of the central eastern regional B. Y. P. U. convention, which will be in session through Friday night.

President Harry V. Smith, of Greensboro, presided over the opening session. The program was arranged by Miss Edna West, of Dublin, regional leader. Song services were led by Sibley C. Burnett, of Atlanta. A welcome address was made by Rev. E. C. Sheridan, pastor of the church. Reports from the organization were read by Walter Blanchard, of Augusta, and a report from the churches by Rev. Fred E. Smith, pastor First Baptist church.

The association then formally organized, with delegates registering from half a hundred counties from Augusta to Savannah, Dublin and Madison. Rev. Willis E. Howard, pastor of Waynesboro Baptist church, presided during the afternoon on "Playing the Game."

James W. Merritt, executive secretary of Georgia Baptist convention, will address the night session.

A sunrise session Friday morning at 6:30 o'clock, addresses by Mrs. Edwin S. Preston, Atlanta, and by W. H. Preston, Nashville, will precede the closing business session of the afternoon, and the inspiration meeting Friday night.

James W. Merritt, executive secretary of the Georgia Baptist convention, tonight addressed the assembly on how youth could aid the work of the church.

G. O. P. MASS MEETING SET FOR LOUISVILLE

LOUISVILLE, Ga., April 3.—The republican adherents of Jefferson county will hold a mass meeting at the courthouse here Saturday. This will be the meeting held every two years for the purpose of electing and the election of a county chairman. It is understood that the meeting will have some little lively times injected into it, because, because an effort will no doubt be made to make it a Hoover or a progressive organization, rather than one of the old guard republicans of the county. At the same time it is understood that the Hooverists, or Hoover republicans, are split among themselves.

Church Institute Opens.

CEDARTOWN, Ga., April 3.—A Sunday school institute for this district opened here Thursday at the First Methodist church.

Rev. G. L. King, the presiding elder, and all the ministers of the district with representatives from all the Sunday schools, were present.

Happy Woman Tells How She Lost 19 Pounds of Fat in 27 Days

During October a woman in Montana wrote: "My first bottle of Kruschen Salts lasted almost 4 weeks and during that time I lost 19 pounds of fat—Kruschen is all you claim for it—I feel better than I have for years."

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses.

Every morning take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast. Stop overeating—exercise regularly.

Be sure and do this every morning for "It's the little daily habit that takes off the fat."—Don't miss a morning. The Kruschen habit means that every particle of poisonous waste matter and harmful acids and gases are expelled from the system.

At the same time the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are toned up and the pure, fresh blood containing Nature's six life-giving salts are carried to every organ, muscle and fibre of the body and this is followed by "that Kruschen feeling" of energetic health and activity that is reflected in bright eyes, clear skin, cheerful vivacity and charming figure.

If you want to lose fat with speed get an 85c bottle of Kruschen Salts from Jacobs' Pharmacy or any live druggist anywhere in America with the distinct understanding that you must be satisfied with results or money back.—(adv.)

WHETHER YOU Spend Your Time Socially, in Welfare Work, in the Office, or Teaching, Health is Your Most Valuable Asset.

If you are listless, thin, pale and pimply, why not write to the Dr. Pierce Clinic, in Buffalo, N. Y., for good medical advice? No fee required.

DR. PIERCE'S

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

is a nationally known tonic, worthy of a trial. You can procure it in any drug store in liquid or tablet form; or send 10c to Dr. Pierce for a trial package of the tablets.

Overnight Relief for Colds, Grippe and Bilious Fever

Sick headache, chills, fever, "grippy" pains and irritated nose and throat—these are only a few of the needless miseries of a neglected cold. Don't let a cold get a grip on you! Take Lax-ana and check it before it leads to more serious complications.

Lax-ana gives overnight results because it is Double Strength. Every prescription drug store is authorized to sell the 35c bottle of Lax-ana on a guarantee of satisfaction or money refunded. Don't accept anything "just as good." Insist on Lax-ana and look for the words "Double Strength" which appear in red on every bottle.

LAX-ANA

(Double Strength)

Interest at 4 per cent if left 90 days. We offer these as attractive investments for temporary idle funds.

4% Certificate of Deposit 4%

Georgia Savings Bank & Trust Co.

74 Peachtree Street Member Federal Reserve System

Capital and Surplus, $1,000,000.00

Youths of Class Build Addition to Church

WAYCROSS, Ga., April 3.—The Baraca Class of the Central Baptist Sunday school is completing the construction of a classroom in the rear of the church building. All of the funds and all of the labor on the new classroom is being arranged for by the 47 young men between the ages of 16 and 25 years who compose the class. The Central Baptist Sunday school now has an enrollment of 620 pupils, with 31 classes. This large enrollment is causing crowded conditions. The Sunday school annex recently erected has seven classrooms.

GEN. MCCOY SPEAKS AT ATHENS BANQUET

ATHENS, Ga., April 3.—There are not many pacifists, "people of no backbone," in the south, declared Major General Frank R. McCoy, commander of the fourth corps area, of Fort McPherson, Atlanta, at a reserve officers' association banquet here Thursday night.

Speaking of the London naval party, General McCoy stated that some of America's most able and practical statesmen are representing this country at the conference.

Chancellor Charles M. Snelling, of the University of Georgia, and Dr. Andrew M. Soule, president of the Georgia State College of Agriculture, also spoke.

"The best assurance of peace is preparation, I am sure," Dr. Soule said. "Material and training are necessary in the face of a great crisis which may not be far away," he added.

The chancellor commended the United States army for the discipline it gives, in addition to other helpful points.

OCMULGEE RIVER
RISING AT MACON

MACON, Ga., April 3.—(P)—The Ocmulgee river was rising tonight as a result of a heavy rainfall which measured 2.58 inches for the 24 hours ending at 8 o'clock. Most of this rainfall occurred between 3:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m.

By Friday morning the Ocmulgee's crest is expected to pass here at about 14.5 feet, or 3.5 feet below flood stage. There were heavy rains in the watershed above Macon.

Church Celebration.

CEDARTOWN, Ga., April 3.—Rally Day will be observed at the First Baptist church Sunday in celebration of extensive improvements made on the church.

DR. CHARLES PROCTOR IS HONORED AT ROME

Donor of Berry Schools' Dental Clinic Is Feted
at Dinner.

MOUNT BERRY, Ga., April 3.—(P)—Dr. Charles W. Proctor, professor of oral surgery at Tufts college, Boston, and donor of the Berry Schools Memorial Dental Clinic, Thursday finished his free examination of the teeth of more than 500 Berry school students.

Also Dr. Proctor announced he will send a resident dental hygienist to the Berry schools next year. Dr. Proctor said the hygienist would stay one year at the school.

During his three-day examination of the students, Dr. Proctor was the honored guest at a dinner here given by the seventh district of Georgia State Dental Association in Rome.

Addressing the dental association, Dr. Proctor told of the aims of the dental clinic and the work it was doing below cost to the mountain boys and girls who are students at the Berry school.

Dr. Proctor told of his first visit to Rome nearly 30 years ago, when he came to practice dentistry after graduation from school. He stayed six months in Rome. Following that he went to London, England, and practiced dentistry there with an internationally famous surgeon. For years he has maintained his offices in Boston.

The dinner was under the auspices of the district dental association, Dr. W. Ray, of Rome, presiding. Dr. Ray is secretary and treasurer of the organization. Dr. F. C. Bolding, of Calhoun, is president. Besides Dr. Ray and Dr. Bolding and the honor guest were present the following dentists: Drs. William Winston, D. F. White, Carl Betts, M. T. McCall, T. L. Morgan, T. C. Mason, A. A. Orr, F. P. McKoy, of Rome, and M. E. Ellis, of Calhoun; W. T. Edwards and F. L. Rountree, of Cedartown.

Fire Destroys Tennille Hotel

TENNILLE, Ga., April 3.—(P)—The Newsome hotel in Glascock county was destroyed by fire late last night. Three guests had narrow escapes, as they had been cut off by the flames and were forced to jump from a second story window. All were uninjured.

The loss is estimated at $12,000, which is partially covered by insurance. The blaze is believed to have been started by a defective fuse.

TAX CASE HEARING BEGUN AT MACON

MACON, Ga., April 3.—(P)—Hearing of an action brought early in February by 22 Bibb county lumber dealers in an attack on the constitutionality of the general tax act of 1927, as amended in 1929, was begun in Bibb superior court before Judge H. A. Matthews this week.

The lumber dealers are attacking that part of the act which imposes a special occupation tax on lumber dealers. In addition to the attack on its constitutionality the petition declared that part of the act is "vague, uncertain and indefinite."

Testimony of lumber dealers occupied all of Wednesday and was not finished then.

The state, against which the petition was brought, it being represented by Assistant Attorney General T. R. Gross, the local law firm of Sparks and Russell, E. B. Weatherly, of Macon, and W. H. Key, of Monticello. The petitioning lumber dealers are represented by the local law firm of Harris, Harris and Popper; Jones, Jones, Johnston and Russell; Martin, Martin, Snow and Gillen, and Nottingham and Nottingham.

WAYCROSS MERCHANTS WILL ERECT BANNERS

WAYCROSS, Ga., April 3.—At the request of the Waycross Independent Merchants' Association the city commission has granted the association permission to erect three banners across the streets, two on Plant avenue and one on Tebeau street.

Mayor Sam T. Wright and Commissioner Henry S. Redding strongly opposed permitting the banners to be erected. They were of the opinion that the banners would tend to attract a group of businessmen against another group; that such permission might be interpreted as the city taking sides in a business controversy; and that the only attitude of the city should be one of welcoming all legitimate business to the city and of helping all legitimate business to prosper in Waycross.

It was expressly stipulated in the motion granting permission for the banners to be erected that the slogan on the banners be signed by the Waycross Independent Merchants' Association so as to make it clear that the city commission is not erecting the banners and is not responsible for the wording on the banners.

FOUR PERSONS HURT
IN AUTO ACCIDENT

WAYCROSS, Ga., April 3.—(P)—Mrs. M. A. Cox, of North Carolina, was in a critical condition in a local hospital today from injuries received in an automobile accident on the Waycross-Jacksonville highway late Wednesday. Her husband and two daughters were slightly injured.

Postoffice Report.

ROME, Ga., April 3.—Sale of stamps at Rome postoffice for March, 1930, amounted to $10,337.44, according to report made by Mrs. John Barclay, postmaster, showing an increase of 18.06 per cent over sales for March, 1929.

Negro Woman Held
For Reckless Driving

ATHENS, Ga., April 3.—(P)—Some drivers acquire reckless, some are made reckless, but Betty Strickland, negro woman, started out reckless. It all began because a negro boy insisted Betty could drive an automobile, although she had never tried before.

Betty entered the car, a tourist, stored in a local garage, and stepped on the starter. The gears were in reverse. The automobile made half a circle backwards, sped through the doorway, across the street and dealt death to two large show windows.

The Georgia Power Company installed a new front to its main office and Betty faced a charge of reckless driving in city court.

Reduction of Naval Arms Urged by Methodist Women

Resolution, Adopted at South Georgia Conference, Bids Hoover To Support Representatives at London.

AMERICUS, Ga., April 3.—(P)—The Women's Missionary Society of the Southern conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, adopted a series of resolutions on peace as the principal business of this afternoon's session.

One resolution, addressed to President Hoover, informed him that the society believed in a reduction of naval arms and begs you to support our representatives at the London conference in every effort to bring about the best possible agreement for the greatest possible reduction of arms.

Another addressed to United States Senators Walter F. George and W. J. Harris declared that "continued delay in presenting a treaty to the senate for ratification is hindering the cause of world peace."

Reports were given by Mrs. H. W. Doster, superintendent of the Savannah district; Mrs. C. C. Sapp, superintendent of the Thomasville district; Mrs. J. Strickland, superintendent of the Valdosta district, and Mrs. L. E. Heath, superintendent of the Waycross district.

Mrs. G. W. Mathews, of Fort Valley, president emerita, presided at tonight's session. Miss Sadie Maude Moore, of Korea, spoke of conditions in that field and Dr. Fred Barnett, former secretary of stewardship of the M. E. Church, South, spoke of women and stewardship.

The business session of the morning was conducted by Mrs. H. W. Pittman, of Macon. Mrs. T. J. Stewart, of Macon, presented the report for the Macon district.

22 New Organizations.

Mrs. J. T. Douglas, of Albany, reported that 22 new young people's organizations had been formed during the year.

Mrs. Loy Warwick, superintendent of supplies, gave the annual report of her department and, as a supplement, had Miss Laura Stillwell, of Columbus, Ga., tell of the progress that is being made by the organization. It was shown that the conference had contributed $1,000 in supplies to the nursery during the year.

Yacht home at Thomasville also received $1,414 for supplies.

The principal address of the morning was given by Dr. Janet Miller, practicing physician in central Africa. Mrs. E. C. Atkins, temperance lecturer, also spoke.

Georgia News Told in Brief

Farewell Class Party.

MT. BERRY, Ga., April 3.—The annual farewell party for the graduating senior class of the high school and the sophomore class of the Junior college was given in the recreation hall Tuesday night by Miss Martha Berry, founder and director of the Berry schools.

Doern School Enlarged.

DOERN, Ga., April 3.—In following with modern trend of educational advancement, the Doern school of education has decided to increase the number of its teachers and lay a foundation for the school to become one of the highest ranking in the state.

Superintendent J. J. Salter was elected to succeed himself and within the near future the faculty will be completed.

Methodists in Conference.

LENEX, Ga., April 3.—Presiding Elder J. H. House and Rev. J. P. Dell spent Wednesday here, and the presiding elder held quarterly conference with the Methodist congregation.

Legislation was discussed by both the presiding elder and Mr. Dell.

$17,000 Poultry Sale Seen.

LOUISVILLE, Ga., April 3.—The hog and poultry co-operative car sales for first quarter of 1930 for Jefferson county will approximate $17,000, according to figures received by the county agent here, W. H. Hosch. The bulk of this amount was realized during the month of March, when a hog sale brought in nearly $6,000 and a poultry sale during the same month netted practically the same amount. On April 16 a co-operative hog sale will be held for the benefit of the farmers of the county.

One Hurt in Auto Crash.

BRUNSWICK, Ga., April 3.—(P)—Skidding on a wet pavement at Arco, near here, the automobile of Van E. Huff, of Miami, Fla., today overturned and injured George Frazier, of West Palm Beach, Huff's companion. The injured man was brought to a hospital here.

Unidentified Man Buried.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., April 3.—The white man who was killed Tuesday afternoon when he attempted to board a freight train of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, one-half mile west of the town of Boston, in this county, was buried Wednesday in the potter's field in Thomasville.

Could I Arrange for an Investment Program That Would Finance Retirement from Business in Twenty Years? Do You Have Any Suggestions to Offer?

By saving regularly each month for a number of years, a retirement fund can be established that will enable any one with regular employment to build an income that will finance an old age of independence and comfort in later years. For instance, $40.00 saved each month and invested in Southern Natural Gas Corporation Preferred Shares will be $20,734.00 in 20 years. During this period, $9,600.00 would be the amount actually paid in, while $11,134.00 represents the interest that would be earned at 7% and paid into the account over a 20-year period. This figure may be doubled or trebled, according to circumstances, by increasing the number of payments in proportion to the amount desired. For any information concerning our $7.00 Preferred Shares, communicate with us. Southern Natural Gas Corporation, Rhodes-Haverty Building, Atlanta, Ga.—(adv.)

DRIVEWAY
RAGGED?

To have it well fixed, quickly and at low cost

PHONE Main 3000

WEST LUMBER CO

316 Peters St., S. W.

1491 Piedmont Ave., N. E.

and at Scottdale

YOUTH FACES JURY FOR SLAYING FATHER

Maurice Brooks, 18, To Plead Justifiable Homicide in Colquitt Court.

COLQUITT, Ga., April 3.—(P)—The trial of Maurice Brooks, 18, for the slaying of his father, J. A. Brooks, last year, got well under way here Thursday.

The jury was secured by noon and the state immediately placed H. L. Fisher, a neighbor of the Brooks family, on the stand. Fisher testified that on several occasions he had heard the youth threaten to kill his father. On cross examination Fisher stated that these threats were made by Maurice in response to similar threats made by the father against his son.

Both the state and defense announced ready when the case was called in superior court here this morning and the questioning of the prospective jurors began.

Young Brooks has repeatedly declared that he killed his father to protect his mother, who, he claims, was being attacked by the elder Brooks. The defense is contending the slaying was justifiable homicide.

Jamaica Ginger Cases Increase

WASHINGTON, Ga., April 3.—(P)—Georgia's toll of victims afflicted with Jamaica ginger was increased considerably today when Wilkes county doctors reported 18 cases in that county. The victims are five, white men and 13 negroes.

It also has been learned that three deaths that occurred in the county recently were attributed to drinking the same concoction that has caused the paralysis. Two of the men, one a painter from Athens, Ga., and the other a piano tuner from Crawford, Ga., were stricken in a local hotel and both died shortly after their plight was discovered. The third man was a farmer living several miles from here. Numerous bottles were found in the hotel room of one of the men and an analysis revealed that the liquor contained Jamaica ginger, doctors said. A coroner's inquest was held in each of the deaths and the same verdict was received in each case—death from alcoholic poisoning.

None of the 18 stricken men is in a critical condition and all are responding to treatment, local doctors say.

Officers here are pushing an investigation in an effort to discover the source of the poison liquor.

Masons Plan Reunion.

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 3.—(P)—The spring reunion of Scottish Rite bodies of Masonry for the valley of Savannah, Orient of Georgia, will be held in Savannah, beginning on Tuesday, April 15, and lasting through Friday, April 18. The jurisdiction of the order for this reunion extends over more than 60 counties in south Georgia.

Tourists Prefer Detour To Georgia Highway

THOMASVILLE, Ga., April 3.—Due to the many rains in March, automobilists travelling from Thomasville and vicinity to Savannah are making the trip via Jacksonville, Fla. It is 168 miles from this town to Jacksonville, and 170 miles from the latter to Savannah, making the entire trip 338 miles, whereas from Thomasville to Savannah direct is only some 200 miles. But the difference in character of the roads makes for choice of the greater distance. The former route, via Jacksonville, is all paved, while the latter is not paved for more than 60 per cent of the way.

DUNLAP MAY ENTER RACE FOR GOVERNOR

GAINESVILLE, Ga., April 3.—When asked concerning the story in the Griffin News, which forecasts his entry into the race for governor, Edgar Dunlap said:

"Naturally I am gratified and flattered that my friends propose my name for the high office of governor of the great state of Georgia. But as the primary is six months off, and the state executive committee has neither met nor announced the rules of the primary, it would be premature if I should make any statement at this time."

Griffin News today says that Edgar Dunlap, of Gainesville, former state commander of the American Legion, will probably be a candidate for governor of Georgia.

Mr. Dunlap is a veteran of the World War, having served with the 82nd division, and has held several offices in his home city.

NEGRO PRISONER ESCAPES AT MACON

MACON, Ga., April 3.—(P)—Pate Sinner, negro, accused of stealing chickens, but who had been transferred by the police to the negro ward of the Macon hospital, disappeared from the institution early this morning.

Hospital attendants said that they still have the negro's clothing, but a short-tailed nightgown that the negro was wearing is gone, so they presume that he has his only garment to protect him from a heavy rain.

Valdostans Find
Air Mail Valuable

VALDOSTA, Ga., April 3.—Businessmen here are finding the new air mail service to Chicago and the Midwest very useful. With the establishment of the new night line from Atlanta to Chicago a letter mailed in Valdosta at 11:30 a.m., is delivered in Chicago the next morning at 7:30. Mail for the Midwest under this new arrangement makes almost as good time as that for New York and eastern points.

JUDGE JUNIUS HILLIER PASSES IN ANNISTON

Prominent Rome Jurist Succumbs After Several Months' Illness.

ROME, Ga., April 3.—Judge Junius Hillier, 80, able jurist and one of Rome's most influential citizens, died Thursday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. T. L. Robinson, in Anniston. He had been in failing health for many months.

Judge Hillier, after receiving his law degree at Mercer University, returned to Rome in 1878 to practice law. In 1883 he was made county judge. He was prominently identified with the First Baptist church of Rome and a deacon for more than 50 years. Judge Hillier was a Mason and held in high esteem the work of fraternal orders.

Judge Hillier was born near Forsyth, Ga., July 26, 1850, the son of Dr. S. G. Hillier and Mrs. Elizabeth Dagg Hillier. His father was a noted divine and scholar, serving as pastor at First Baptist church, of Rome. Judge Hillier's maternal grandfather, Rev. Dr. J. L. Dagg, was president of Mercer University. In 1890 Judge Hillier married Miss Elizabeth Bonasack, of Rosneok, Va., who died in 1919.

Judge Hillier is survived by three sisters, Mrs. T. L. Robinson, Miss Lullie Hillier, of Anniston, Mrs. Emily H. Owens, of Cuthbert, Ga., and Washington, Mrs. John Roach Stratton, of New York, is a niece of Judge Hillier's and Mrs. Ethel H. Brown, Mrs. Benjamin Yancey and Mrs. Calder Williamson, of Rome, cousins. Funeral services will be held from the residence Friday afternoon.

Serving as honorary pallbearers will be the deacons of the First Baptist church and the Rome Bar Association. Interment will be in the family lot in Myrtle Hill cemetery.

Gets Promotion.

ROME, Ga., April 3.—Announcement was made Thursday that Kenneth Elliott, baggage master of the Southern railway in Rome, has been promoted to ticket agent. Mr. Elliott succeeds G. M. Lawrence, who is being transferred to the New York city office.

Mr. Elliott has held several responsible positions with the Southern railway during the past seven years. He will start immediately in his new post.

DENTISTRY

Set of $7 I Specialize

Teeth Heolite Plates $50

Dr. E. G. Griffin

931 WHITEHALL ST., S. W.

Beginning Tomorrow

16 US TIRES

TRADE-IN

SALE

Big allowances for your old tires, on new U.S. TIRES

ROYAL MASTER / U.S. ROYAL / U.S. PEERLESS

Thrifty buyers—grasp this chance to get top-value for your old tires. Trade them in today on famous U. S. tires—get a big allowance and end your tire troubles for good. U. S. tires are built by the world's largest producer of rubber and guaranteed for life! You can't match them for value and you can't beat our allowances for your old tires. For safety and savings get the facts about this sensational offer—today!

MATCHLESS FOR QUALITY—DURABILITY—APPEARANCE

Quick Tire Service

344 W. Peachtree St. Phone JA. 0065

VISITORS FROM GREAT BRITAIN SPEND EARLY APRIL HERE

Philadelphia Matron Feted
As Guest of Mrs. Cronheim

Among the prominent visitors enjoying the first days of April in Atlanta are Mrs. Haywood Beatty, of Philadelphia, who is the guest of Mrs. Eugene Cronheim at her home on Maddox drive in Ansley Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin P. Lancaster, of London, England, who are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. Gregory Brown at their home in Druid Hills, these interesting English visitors stopping en route here from Florida, where they spent the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Cronheim will entertain at an informal tea next Sunday at their home in compliment to their guest and Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster. A group of close friends have been invited to meet the trio of visitors for whom a series of social gayeties are being given.

Mrs. Beatty will remain with Mrs. Cronheim for two weeks, during which time she will be honored at innumerable parties, the first of the number to be given today by her hosts at the Biltmore hotel, who will entertain at luncheon, the guests numbering 30 friends of Mrs. Cronheim.

Luncheon Guests.

The guest list includes Mesdames C. R. Mitchell, Page Rees, H. Frank West, Richard Battle, J. R. Fairman, Ralph Doak, Robert Cunningham, N. H. Moor, Paul Johnson, William Bailey Lamar, Charles Hammond, G. M. Phillips, James Girardeau, George Campbell, Jr., F. B. Ramey, Rogers Toy, James Budd, W. W. Anderson, A. Q. Smith, J. L. Wright, Jr., Henry K. Stanford, Gilbert Beers, H. H. Terhune, William Harding, of Worthington, Ohio, S. T. Cronheim, R. L. Cowles and J. A. Cole, of Knoxville, Tenn.

Mrs. George L. Campbell, Jr. will be hostess at ten Saturday, April 5, at her home on Seventeenth street in compliment of Mrs. Beatty.

Mrs. F. B. Ramey will entertain at luncheon Monday, April 7, at Hill House Inn for this Philadelphia ma-

Mrs. Fisher Issues
Tri-Delt Invitations.

Mrs. S. Aubrey Fisher requests members of Atlanta sorority Delta Delta Delta to attend a tea at her home, 600 Linwood avenue, Sunday, April 6, at 3:30 o'clock. Plans will be discussed for the entertainment of the delegates attending the convention meeting in Atlanta April 18, 19 and 20.

Cat Fanciers' Club Holds First Show

Photo by Lawrence Corbett, Staff Photographer.
Two members of Atlanta's cat aristocracy with their owners are seen in the above photograph, Mrs. M. L. Craig (left) with her prize-winning black Persian, "Blackie," and Mrs. J. L. Craig holding her beautiful white Persian, "Punkydunk." The cat show held at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday evening sponsored by the Atlanta Cat Fanciers' club, was the first of its kind ever held in Atlanta.

Mrs. Hal Dumas
Heads Garden Hills
Woman's Club

Mrs. Hal Dumas was elected president of Garden Hills Woman's Club at the meeting held Tuesday at the clubhouse. The following corps of officers was elected to serve with her: Mrs. W. L. Hallinger, first vice president; Mrs. H. J. Couch, second vice president; Mrs. J. H. Hoover, recording secretary; Mrs. T. C. Cox, corresponding secretary; Mrs. D. O. Martin, treasurer; Mrs. George Knapp, assistant treasurer; Mrs. L. T. Parham, auditor, and Mrs. Lake Quillian, parliamentarian. Mrs. R. H. Johns, Mrs. George Knapp and Mrs. E. E. Limbaugh, hostesses, served refreshments.

Mrs. H. McC. Stanford, the retiring president, presided at the meeting, and Mesdames R. H. Johns, George Knapp and E. E. Limbaugh were social hour hostesses.

A donation to the Tallulah Falls school was voted, and an interesting address by A. B. Heath was given on "Rock Gardens." A group of songs was rendered by Mrs. Louise Cunningham, accompanied at the piano by Miss Grace Nance.

Miss Johnston
Is Honored.

Miss Barbara Gladys Johnston was honor guest at a party given by her mother, Mrs. Ross Johnston, in honor of her third birthday. The guests were Miss Dan Brannett, Miss Jeanette Hudson, Miss Lucy Irby, Miss Elizabeth Hirliman, Dan Allen and Joe Floyd. Mrs. L. F. McClelland assisted Mrs. Johnston in entertaining.

Business Women's League To Be Entertained.

Mrs. Ella Cunningham and Mrs. Sadie Palmer will entertain the members of the Business Women's League of First Methodist church at their home, 422 Ponce de Leon avenue, Friday evening, April 11, at 6:30 o'clock. The social affair takes the place of the regular meeting at the church on Sunday afternoon, April 6, and every member is invited to be present.

Daily Calendar of Social Events

Mrs. Eugene Cronheim will be hostess at luncheon at the Biltmore hotel in honor of her guest, Mrs. Haywood Beatty, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Kenyon Zahner will entertain at a bridge-tee at the Piedmont Driving Club, complimenting Miss Harriett Turman, a bride-elect.

Teas at the Atlanta Woman's Club.

Miss Edith Marshall will give a bridge-tee at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue, honoring her guest, Miss Constance Fowler, of Brookline, Mass.

Mrs. Charles B. Nunnally will entertain at luncheon at her home on Peachtree road in honor of Mrs. F. M. Atkins, a recent bride.

Kappa Delta Alumnae of Atlanta will entertain from 4 until 6 o'clock at tea at the Ten Fifty apartment building, 1050 Ponce de Leon, in compliment to the national officers of Kappa Delta who are in the city.

Mrs. George Marshall Jackson will entertain at her home on Tupelo drive from 3 to 5 o'clock in celebration of the eleventh anniversary of her little son, Charles Earle.

Mrs. Josephus Camp will entertain the members of her study class at tea at the Atlanta Woman's Club.

Miss Effie Butner will be hostess at tea at Mimosa Hall in honor of Miss Eugenia McLean, of Lumberton, N. C.

A tacky party will be given by the Whiteford P. T. A. at 6:30 o'clock.

Atlanta Kindergarten Alumnae Club will give a unique program this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Atlanta Gas and Light Company auditorium, Peachtree and Harris streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Cauthorn entertain at dinner at their home on West Andrews drive in compliment to their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Abry, Jr., of New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hecht will entertain at 8 o'clock this evening at their home on Peachtree Battle avenue a group of Atlantans who were members of the recent Cuban good-will tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Bockover Toy will be hosts at an informal dinner this evening at their apartment on Park Lane for their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Smedley Darlington, of Westchester, Pa.

The Guild of the First Methodist church will give its annual supper this evening at 6:30 o'clock at Pinebloom, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Arkwright on Ponce de Leon avenue.

Miss Mell Speaks
To University Women.

ROME, Ga., April 3.—Miss Mildred Mell, dean of Shorter college, was one of the speakers at the third conference of the south Atlantic section of the American Association of University Women held at Williamsburg, Va., April 4-5. Dean Mell had the distinction of being one of the two honor guests, the other one being President Mary E. Wooley, of Mount Holyoke college. Dean Mell has for the past year served as president of the state organization of the American Association of University Women. Her subject at the conference was "The Women of the South in Education Today."

With the spring holidays over classes at Shorter college were regularly resumed Wednesday morning. Noteworthy among musical events at the college this year was the piano recital given Friday evening by Miss Caroline Gray, graduate of Shorter in the class of 1924 and later a pupil at the American Conservatory in Paris and more recently at the celebrated Juillard school in New York. Miss Gray was for a year associated with Hugh Hodgson in his Atlanta studio.

Miss Collins Weds
V. G. Grey, Jr.

ACWORTH, Ga., April 3.—Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Collins announce the marriage of their daughter, Lola Carol, to Virgil G. Grey, Jr., both of Acworth, the wedding having taken place Saturday, March 29. The bride is a popular member of Acworth's young social set, and is one of four sisters. Mr. Grey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Grey, and is a very prominent in Acworth. Mr. and Mrs. Grey will make their home in Acworth.

Miss Van de Vrede
To Speak Monday.

Miss Jane Van de Vrede, head of the Southern Nursing Service of the American National Red Cross during and following the World War, will deliver a lecture on "The Cost of Medical Care" at the Sisterhood meeting of the Anaveth-Achim synagogue Monday, April 7, at 3 o'clock. Miss Van de Vrede is now secretary of the Georgia State Nurses' Association, and is widely known not only in the south, but throughout the country as a leader in the nurses' field.

Miss Jane Sharp
Entertains at Home.

Miss Jane Sharp was hostess at a bridge tea yesterday at her home on Peachtree Battle avenue in compliment to Miss Elizabeth Roberts, the guest of Miss Martha Lewis. Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. Norma Sharp, mother of the hostess, and Mrs. Jack Sharp, the sister.

Miss Fan Gold
Weds Mr. Litch At Home Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Fan Gold and Melvin Litch was quietly solemnized yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weinberg, at 632 Park drive. Dr. David Marx performed the ceremony in the presence of a small gathering of relatives and friends.

The home was decorated with palms, ferns and foliage plants, interspersed with baskets of lilies of the valley and roses which formed an effective setting for the bridal party.

Mrs. Weinberg, the matron of honor, wore a becoming gown of pale blue crepe. Her corsage was of roses. The maid of honor was Miss Rose Gold, who wore a gown of cream-colored crepe and her corsage was also of roses.

The charming young bride was lovely in a crown of orchid crepe combined with real lace, and her small hat and accessories were all in blending tones. She wore a corsage of Ophelia roses and valley lilies.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held, after which the young couple left for a wedding trip to New York, the Carolinas, Niagara Falls and Canada.

Ladies' Aid Serves Dinner Today.

The Ladies' Aid of St. Philip's cathedral will serve a turkey dinner today at the lunch room, 11 Hunter street, S. W., opposite the state capitol, from 11:30 to 2 o'clock. The menu consists of north Georgia turkey, dressing, giblet gravy, dumplings or steamed rice, black-eyed peas, English peas or creamed carrots, candied yams, cold slaw or potato salad, lettuce with red devil dressing, hot biscuits or hot corn sticks with butter, 25 cents. Coffee, tea, milk or butter milk, 5 cents. Choice of stripped apple, cherry, coconut custard, egg custard.

lemon, potato or Boston cream pie, 10 cents.
Mrs. H. G. Greer is chairman of the following committee: Mesdames G. K. Howe, Theresa Lynde, Forrest G. G. Simpson, Fred Williams, Jr., Fred Williams, Sr., Lula Crittenden, F. G. Simpson, Fred Williams, Jr.

Marcus Field, J. M. Veal, A. F. Shivers, T. M. Shaft, W. R. Lyons, G. K. Howe, Theresa Lynde, Forrest G. G. Simpson, Fred Williams, Jr., Fred Williams, Sr., Lula Crittenden, F. G. Simpson, Fred Williams, Jr.

Hurlet, Emily Rosignol. The menu is changed daily and the public is invited.

Queen Quality Features
THE WALKING HEEL

It's nice to be comfortable at the same time
we're fashionable!

$10

MAIL SERVICE
STREET FLOOR

RICH'S

Suntan Kid

Suntan or Black Mat Kid

BONA ALLEN'S SPECIAL SIXES

for the Young Man—

$6.00

6 to 11

Made by Bona Allen Especially for Rich's

MAIL SERVICE RICH'S STREET FLOOR

RICH'S LEADS IN PLEASANT
ADJUSTMENTSSMART EASTER STYLES for Young MODERNS

Patent One-Strap
2 1/2 to 5$1.75
5 to 8$2.75
8 1/2 to 11$3.25
11 1/2 to 2$4.25

Two-Tone Crepe Sole Oxford
1 1/2 to 2$5.00
2 1/2 to 7$5.00

Patent Pump
Sizes 2 1/2 to 7$5.00

Patent Tie
2 1/2 to 7$5.00
7 1/2 to 11$4.00
8 1/2 to 11$3.00

With warmer days ahead the youngsters will be wanting Spring slippers just the same as their mothers.

Two-tone combinations, also in all Patent, Tan or Smoke E.L. 14 sizes 8 1/2 to 11; 1 1/2
to 2. $3.50.

Patent Leather one-strap with cut-outs; also pump. Sizes 1 1/2 to 2; 2 1/2 to 7. $5.00.

MAIL SERVICE

RICH'S

STREET FLOOR

Girl Scout Fashion Show and Demonstration at Rich's
Opens With Bugle Call at 3:30 O'Clock

... From 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock, in Rich's Tea Room today, seven tried and true Girl Scouts will model correct and official Scout togs for the enjoyment of their troupe-mates! The grey-green uniform of the Scouts will be worn by Miss Edith Epstein, of Troup No. 1... selected as Miss Girl Scout of 1930. Misses Beatrice Rothschild, Nell Echols and Betty Patterson, of Troup No. 1, and Sara Lewis, Tommy Quin and Emmakate Vretman, of Troup No. 25, will wear camp costumes... regulation knicker bloomers, middies, shorts and shirts... and shoes for hiking and out-of-doors.

Three Demonstrations for Qualifications for Merit Badges!

FOR HOSTESS BADGE... Miss Helen Elsas will demonstrate the etiquette of hostess and guest and show the correct china and silver service for luncheon.

FOR NEEDLEWORK BADGE... Mrs. Bertha Seymour and Miss Helen Nichols will exhibit samples of fabrics, give widths and prices—and show how to lay a pattern for cutting.

FOR CHILD'S NURSE BADGE... Mrs. Jean Wallace, registered nurse, assisted by Miss Maud Ashmore, of the city staff of nurses, will show how to bathe and dress a baby... discussing at length the food and daily routine necessary for an infant.

Girl Scouts, their families and friends, are cordially invited!

Rich's... Official Outfitters for the Girl Scouts of America!

TEA ROOM
—RICH'S, SIXTH FLOOR

Special Purchase 50 Imported Bar Harbor Chairs

$3.95

—Sun-loving chairs that will sprawl their leisurely lives away on porch or terrace... inviting you to rest and repose! Of natural willow—woven in the inimitable Bar Harbor fashion... sturdily constructed!

50 Slat-Back Porch Rockers.....$3.95

Bar Harbor Chair Cushions

—Colorful cretonnes and heavy linen crashes stitched into deep, comfortable cushions! Fit perfectly into the curve of the wicker Bar Harbor chair. Expertly finished!

Others priced $1.50 and $1.75!

—RICH'S, FIFTH FLOOR

—RICH'S, FOURTH FLOOR

RICH'S

Mr. and Mrs. Abry Are Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cauthorn

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Abry, Jr., of New York city, are numbered among the prominent visitors in Atlanta this week and are guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Cauthorn, at their home on West Andrews drive. Mrs. Abry was formerly Miss Sylvia Kress, daughter of Rush Kress, of New York, and she is a most beautiful and attractive young woman. Her mother was the late Miss Leila McCall, of Atlanta, a noted beauty. Mr. and Mrs. Cauthorn entertain informally at dinner this evening in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Abry, inviting eight guests to meet the visitors, who are enroute to their home in the metropolis, after spending several weeks at the hunting lodge of their father, Rush Kress, which is located near Asheville, N. C.

Miss Morrisette Is Hostess In Marietta

MARIETTA, Ga., April 3.—Miss Oreswell Morrisette was hostess at a bridge-ten Tuesday afternoon at her home on Forest avenue, in compliment to Miss Roberta Sylvester, of Denver, Col., and Miss Marguerite Letts, of St. Joseph, Mo. Included with the honor guests were Misses Lucy Tate, Jennie Tate, Mollie Nelson, Mary Hodges, Ida Brumby, Evelyn Lathrop, Lucy Turner, Martha Johnson, Gramling, Helen Lawrence, Mary Lawrence, Pollie Wellons and Mrs. George Hagood.

Miss Morrisette was one among the hostesses at the tea given by her normal class Saturday afternoon at the Conservatory of Music, Atlanta. Misses Florence Tower and Mabel Eager, of Abundant, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Kenney, of Newtonville, Mass., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Moseley at their home, Dan Roamin.

Stewart Lang and M. C. McQueen, of Columbia, S. C., were dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. Harry H. Bryan Sunday and assisted in conducting the Young People's evening service at the First Presbyterian church.

Miss Malene Lee, of Wesleyan College, Macon, Ga., is spending her spring holidays with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tomlinson on Seminole drive. Miss Tula McFarland, of Owensboro, Ky., is visiting Mrs. John Fowler on Church street and Mrs. Arthur Davenport on Forest avenue. Rev. and Mrs. Harry H. Bryan left Thursday for Birmingham, Ala., where they are the guests of their parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Bryan, and will be in attendance at the marriage of their brother, James H. Bryan, and Miss Louise Meyer, which will be solemnized Tuesday afternoon, April 8, in the Third Presbyterian church. Upon their return Mrs. Bryan will visit her mother, Mrs. R. A. Lancaster, Columbia, S. C.

Marietta Woman's Club sponsored a benefit bridge and 42 party Friday afternoon in the clubhouse. Philanthia class of the First Methodist olish church met with Mrs. J. C. Stansell Tuesday afternoon at her home on Lawrence street. Mrs. R. F. Lindsey will entertain the Priscilla Club Friday afternoon at her home on Forest avenue. James Ross and John Tate, of McCallie school, Chattanooga, were weekend guests of Mrs. W. B. Tate on Cherokee street.

Mrs. A. D. Grant has returned from a trip to New Orleans, La., and points in Texas. Mrs. R. F. Lindsey will entertain the Priscilla Club Friday afternoon at her home on Forest avenue. James Ross and John Tate, of McCallie school, Chattanooga, were weekend guests of Mrs. W. B. Tate on Cherokee street.

Mrs. Coleman Heads Seventh District P. T. A.

MARIETTA, Ga., April 3.—Mrs. M. H. Coleman, of Marietta, was elected president of the seventh district Parent-Teacher Association at the meeting held in Rome last Tuesday. The other officers elected to serve with her include: First vice president, Mrs. John Collins, Marietta; secretary, Mrs. Orlando Atwell, Acworth; treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Perkins, Marietta; chairman of organization, Mrs. C. A. Moore, Rome; chairman of extension, Mrs. Fred Balding Calhoun; chairman of welfare, Mrs. W. E. Wofford, Catterville; chairman of home service, Mrs. John Edwards, Taylorsville; chairman of education, Miss Maud Sewell, Summerville; chairman of health, Mrs. M. S. Lanier, of Rome.

Recital To Be Given Monday, April 14.

A recital will be given by the faculty and artist students of The Atlanta Conservatory of Music Monday evening, April 14, at 8:30 o'clock at the Studio Club, 104 1-2 Forsyth street. Those taking part will be Miss Eugenia Dozier, head of the department of dancing; Miss Mary Lansing, head of the voice department; Miss Louise Wicker Allensworth, soprano soloist; Miss Helen Douglas, contralto soloist; Miss Winifred Byrd Hopkins, prominent Atlanta soloist; Miss Mary Lansing, chairman of the program. Miss J. Clyde Withers and Miss Hazel Wood will be the accompanists. Admission to members will be free and to the public will be 50 cents.

Glee Club Gives Concert in Athens.

ATHENS, Ga., April 3.—The spring concert of the Glee club at the Georgia Teachers College was held last night. The club is composed of thirty young women, constantly in demand to sing before civic organizations of Athens and nearby towns. Miss Jennie Belle Smith, director of public school music, is also director of the Glee club. The program was as follows:

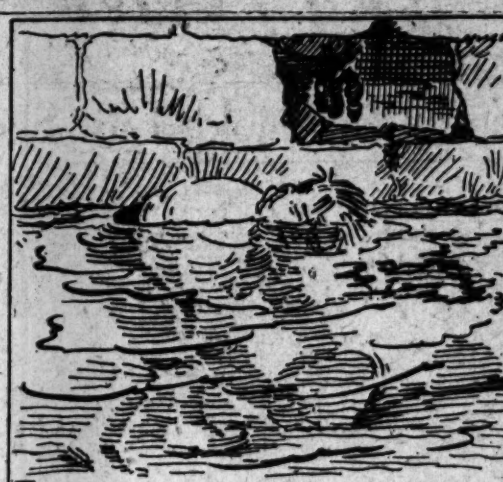

Part One.
1. Wood—Do You Know My Garden?; Gordon—The Far Away Belles; Coates—Little Lady of the Moon, by the Glee club; 2. Donza—Roses Everywhere; Salter—Miss Mary, by Misses Amelia Walker, Savannah; Rena Weaver Young, Elberton; 3. Chilen Folk Song—River, River, Glee club; 4. Brahe—A Japanese Love Song; Mrs. Ozella Hembree Youngblood; 5. Kreiser—The Old Refrain, Misses Walker, Drake, Lawrence, Scurry, Poindester and Ray; 6. Love Dream, Glee club.

Part Two.
Foster—Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming; Glee club; 1. In the Heart of the Hills; Salter-Bendemeers' Stream, Misses Sara Drake, Philomath, Rena Weaver Young, Elberton; Orly—Serenade, Myrtae—Marzuka, Miss Mary Elizabeth Lieb, violin; Miss Mabel Manning Wedge, piano; Strickland—Bayou Songs; Dreaming Time, Southern Moon, Glee club; West—Stars of the Summer Night, Glee club, accompanist Miss Mary Lou Stapleton.

Adventures of Seckatary Hawkins

TRAPPED IN THE TORTURE CHAMBER, LINK AND I DIDN'T KNOW WHAT TO DO. THE WATER WAS TRICKLING IN, SLOWLY BUT SURELY, SOON IT WOULD BE UP TO OUR NECKS—PERHAPS, I COULD SWIM UP AND HOLD MYSELF ABOVE THE WINDOWS BUT LINK—

AH—I COULD NOT DESERT LINK—HE WAS CHAINED TO THE WALL BELOW—THE WATER WOULD RISE ABOVE HIS CHIN—HIS HEAD—NO! NO! I GROPED AROUND—I SLUSHED THROUGH THE WATER—I GRASPED A LOOSE STONE—I PULLED IT OUT—

I BEGAN TO POUND UPON THE WALL WITH IT—POUND—POUND—POUND—HOPING THAT SOMEBODY WOULD HEAR ME—SOMEBODY WHO WOULD COME TO HELP US OUT OF HERE—THEN I IMAGINED I HEARD SOMEBODY CALLING "HAWKINS! HAWKINS!"

IT WAS WILL STANDISH—I KNEW HIS VOICE—I HEARD OTHER VOICES—THEN SLEDGE HAMMER BLOWS—SOMEBODY IS BREAKING THROUGH LINK—I CRIED, AND THEN I HEARD WILL'S SHOUT AGAIN, "GOOD BOY!" I YELLED, "COME ON, WILL! I KNEW YOU'D COME!"

BURGESS CHILDREN'S STORIES

WHY SOME DUCKS WERE LEFT BEHIND.

By Thornton W. Burgess.

These menfold seem to think that is all that's needed to make right.

Mrs. Quack had told Peter Rabbit that oil was the cause of some of her troubles on her long journey up from the Sunny South. Peter didn't even know what oil was, but of course

"Why don't they wash the oil off?" Peter asked.

he was curious to know all about it. "It is something that is on the water—something man puts there," explained Mrs. Quack. "It doesn't mix with the water, but floats on top. If a Duck, or other bird that swims on the water, doesn't see it and gets into trouble, it is dreadful. Yes, sir, it is dreadful."

"Why is it dreadful?" persisted Peter.

"Because," replied Mrs. Quack, "it gets our feathers all matted together. Birds often get in such condition that they cannot fly. We had to leave two of our flock behind us two days ago," Mrs. Quack said this sadly. "Do you mean you left them behind because they couldn't fly?" Peter asked. "That's it," replied Mrs. Quack. "They couldn't fly and they were sick besides. I think the oil made them sick. It gets worse and worse."

"But where does it all come from?" cried Peter. "I don't know just where it all comes from," replied Mrs. Quack, "but a lot of it comes from big ships. Of course you don't know what a ship is. It is a great big boat that ever so many men can live on at one time. And it sails on the ocean. You don't know what the ocean is? It is a great body of water and the water is salt. 'I shouldn't like that,' said Peter.

Many Architectural Photographs Shown At High Museum

An exhibition of architectural photographs by prominent photographers of New York are being shown at the High Museum of Art, 1262 Peachtree street. These remarkable studies of notable and widely varied types of architecture reveal an unusual feeling for the building and its relation to its surroundings. Examples of colonial architecture, a church of Savannah, structures in Alabama and neighboring sections are included in the show. The effect of mood found in more pretentious works of art has been produced in many of the photographs, by making the picture in a sunny atmosphere with its accompanying high lights and shadows. The High Museum is open to the public from 10 until 12 o'clock and from 1 until 4 o'clock throughout the week; from 7 until 9 o'clock Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, and from 3 to 5 o'clock on Sundays.

Mr. and Mrs. Hecht To Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hecht will entertain this evening at their home on Peachtree Battle avenue at 8 o'clock, the guests to include a number of prominent Atlantans who were members of the Cuban Goodwill tour to Havana. An interesting feature of the evening will be the showing of moving pictures made during the recent Cuban tour. Mr. and Mrs. Hecht will be assisted in entertaining by their sister, Miss Margaret Hecht.

Miss Fogel Weds William Kreiner

The marriage of Miss Fay Fogel and William Stanley Kreiner was an interesting event of Wednesday evening, taking place in the presence of the immediate families and a few intimate friends in a private reception suite of the Baltimore hotel. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fogel and has enjoyed popularity among a large circle of friends in Atlanta and New York. The bride's dress was of white silver cloth and her bouquet was of orchids, lilies of the valley and maiden-hair ferns. She was given in marriage by her father, Philip Fogel, and was attended by her sisters, Miss Eunice Fogel, Miss Shirley Fogel and Miss Elaine Fogel. Mr. Kreiner is a former resident of New York and is a graduate of the University of New York. After the ceremony the wedding party was entertained at dinner in the ballroom of the hotel, 35 guests being present. Mr. and Mrs. Kreiner left at midnight for a month's tour of the United States. On their return they will make their home at the Biltmore.

Mrs. George Sims Entertains Club.

Mrs. George H. Sims was hostess to the Friendly Ten club Wednesday at luncheon at her home in Morning-side. The house was decorated with Easter lilies. Covers were laid for Mesdames W. M. Pharr, C. B. Beacham, W. F. Griffin, R. K. Jordan, M. E. Williams, J. E. Garst, W. L. Campbell, James L. Finch, and John W. Ward, Sr.

to and from

EUROPE

These luxury speeders of the short St. Lawrence Seaway save 2 days open sea...white Empresses, new Cabin Duchesses, extra economy "Mont" fleet. Ask also about "all-ages" House Party Motor Tours, $395 and up, and Collapsible Tours, $335 and up, visiting principal European countries and Pashan Play. Your local agent or

K. A. Cook, General Agent, Canadian Pacific, Suite 1017, Healey Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Telephone Walnut 2217.

Canadian Pacific

WORLD'S GREATEST TRAVEL SYSTEM
Carry Canadian Pacific Express Travelers Cheques—Good the World Over

ENNA JETTICK
EASTER at the Enna Jettick Boot Shop brings to you these pretty new patterns in Junior Enna Jetticks for the Modern Miss.

We Fit the Foot!

"BILLIE"—In soft Patent Kid or Tan Calf. Leather heels with rubber toplists! $5

Ritz In Patent Leather $5.00 at Blonde and White $6.00 at

Leah In Patent Leather with all leather heel $5.00 at Blonde and White, covered heels $6.00 at

YOU NEED NO LONGER BE TOLD THAT YOU HAVE AN EXPENSIVE FOOT $5 $6

Sixty Spring Styles AAAA to EEE. Sizes 1 to 12. DAVIS & MCCLARY CO. ENNA JETTICK BOOT SHOP 124 PEACHTREE ARCADE

Bee BRAND INSECT POWDER AND GUN

Kills—Flies—Mosquitoes—Bedbugs—Roaches—Moths—Ants—Fleas—Waterbugs—Crickets and many other insects. Powdermost economical. No spot—no stain. Write for Free Booklet and say "Good-bye Insects!" MCGORMICK & COMPANY, INC., Baltimore, Md. Sold in 10c, 25c, 50c and $1.00 cans. Cans, 25c

Also "BEE" BRAND LIQUID SPRAY

The upsets of Children

All children are subject to little upsets. They come at unexpected times. They seem twice as serious in the dead of night. But there's one form of comfort on which a mother can always rely; good old Castoria. This pure vegetable preparation can't harm the tiniest infant. Yet mild as it is, it soothes a restless, fretful baby like nothing else. Its quick relief soon sees the youngster comfortable once more, back to sleep. Even an attack of colic, or diarrhea, yields to the soothing influence of Castoria. Keep Castoria in mind, and keep a bottle in the house—always. Give a few drops to any child whose tongue is coated, or whose breath is bad. Continue with Castoria until the child is grown! Every drugstore has Castoria; the genuine has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper.

Send 12 cents in silver or stamps for our up-to-date spring and summer 1930 Book of Fashions. Address orders to Beauty Fashion Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

Decatur Will Discuss Government Tonight

Discussion of the proposal to change the DeKalb county one-commissioner form of government to a five-commissioner form will take place in the courthouse at Decatur at 7:30 o'clock tonight. E. T. Blackmon, secretary of the DeKalb County League of Voters, has announced.

Beauty Fashions

6804. Neatness and comfort are expressed in this pleasing style, for which the new cotton prints are especially attractive. Fullness is created on the front through plait sections, above which serviceable pockets are placed. The pockets are faced in shaped outline, and a trimming tab decorates the front at the neck. The square outline at the armhole is very comfortable. As pictured in the large view the frock was made in printed dimity, with facings of organdy. Percale or linen would also be a good selection.

The pattern is cut in four sizes: Small, 34-38; medium, 38-40; large, 42-44; and extra large, 46-48 inches bust measure. To make the dress in a medium size will require 3 1-4 yards of material 32 inches wide or wider. To make the trimming, pickets, facings, and belt of contrasting material will require 1-4 yard 32 inches wide cut crosswise. To finish with bias binding as illustrated in the large view will require 3 1-2 yards 1 1-2 inch wide.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

Send 12 cents in silver or stamps for our up-to-date spring and summer 1930 Book of Fashions. Address orders to Beauty Fashion Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

Decatur Will Discuss Government Tonight

Discussion of the proposal to change the DeKalb county one-commissioner form of government to a five-commissioner form will take place in the courthouse at Decatur at 7:30 o'clock tonight. E. T. Blackmon, secretary of the DeKalb County League of Voters, has announced.

Decatur Will Discuss Government Tonight

Discussion of the proposal to change the DeKalb county one-commissioner form of government to a five-commissioner form will take place in the courthouse at Decatur at 7:30 o'clock tonight. E. T. Blackmon, secretary of the DeKalb County League of Voters, has announced.

Decatur Will Discuss Government Tonight

Discussion of the proposal to change the DeKalb county one-commissioner form of government to a five-commissioner form will take place in the courthouse at Decatur at 7:30 o'clock tonight. E. T. Blackmon, secretary of the DeKalb County League of Voters, has announced.

Decatur Will Discuss Government Tonight

Discussion of the proposal to change the DeKalb county one-commissioner form of government to a five-commissioner form will take place in the courthouse at Decatur at 7:30 o'clock tonight. E. T. Blackmon, secretary of the DeKalb County League of Voters, has announced.

Decatur Will Discuss Government Tonight

Discussion of the proposal to change the DeKalb county one-commissioner form of government to a five-commissioner form will take place in the courthouse at Decatur at 7:30 o'clock tonight. E. T. Blackmon, secretary of the DeKalb County League of Voters, has announced.

Decatur Will Discuss Government Tonight

SPICIA

for Atlanta

These famous Kraft-Phenix Foods

Good till April 12

Regular Full-Size Packages

Both for 33¢

TWO famous Kraft Cheese foods...distinctly different...offered to you at a special Lenten combination price...this week only!

"Philadelphia" Cream Cheese is the table dainty that looks like whipped cream and spreads like creamed butter. Fresh and cool as you take it from its silver foil wrapper, it can be put right onto the table.

Served with fruits and after-dinner coffee...salads. Spread on your morning toast with strawberry jam. And, of course, it's a classic for sandwiches!

Velveeta, the new cheese food, is as golden as "Philadelphia" Cream is snowy-white. In Velveeta the finest Cheddar cheese is combined with valuable elements of milk which are lost in the usual cheese making.

That's why authorities recommend Velveeta for children. That's why anyone can eat freely of this delicious cheese food. It's as digestible as milk itself.

Velveeta's so easy to use. It slices when chilled. Spreads like butter. Melts on the instant...toasts an even tempting brown.

Vary your Lenten menus with these exquisite cheese foods. Specially priced for this period.

Order them at your grocer's tomorrow

Kappa Delta Officers Honored At Series of Social Affairs

National officers of Kappa Delta sorority, who are Miss Marion Mullins, of Fort Worth, Texas; Mrs. Frazier Smith, of Memphis, Tenn.; Miss Katherine Byrd, of Jacksonville, Fla.; and Miss Thelma Chisholm, of Seattle, Wash., were honor guests yesterday at a luncheon given by the Atlanta Kappa Delta alumnae at the Henry Grady hotel. Miss Marion Mullins, inspector general, presided at the meeting following the luncheon and gave a most interesting talk regarding Kappa Delta activities. She stressed the importance of arousing interest of the local alumnae in attending the meetings and told of plans used in other cities toward getting the members to attend. She gave as the chief cause of lack of interest the fact that members are ignorant of the splendid work being carried on by Kappa Delta. She cited an incident in the Mobile (Ala.) alumnae association where a bulletin was presented to all members of the organization, and under a heading of "Do you know?" were listed numerous interesting and instructive facts relative to Kappa Delta activities. She also stressed the fact that all alumnae should be subscribers to the Angelos, the sorority publication. In this magazine are found the most interesting accounts and stories of work being done by Kappa Deltas all over the United States.

The members at the meeting included Misses Virginia Ray, Aileen Epps, Mary Walker, Margaret Wilson, Sophie Menkin, Elizabeth Meredith, Mesdames Monroe Bush, W. Street Russell, T. M. Davenport, G. M. Gifford, J. B. Courtney, Richard Bennett, Jr., of Chattanooga.

Yesterday afternoon the Zeta Tau Club of Oglethorpe University entertained at a large tea at the school library in honor of the visiting officers. The room was beautifully decorated with green and white, the official colors of the Kappa Delta sorority. Receiving the guests were the active members of Zeta Tau, who are Misses Margaret Newhoff, Helen Boardman, Mildred Bradley, Gertrude Murray, Martha Jean Osborne, Jean Nutting, while the pledges are Catherine Mauchand, Betty Crandall, Frances Mackinigan, Virginia Hastings, Virginia Cooledge Buford, Mrs. Adrienne Roberts, Miss Lee Bennett, Miss Miriam Varner, Miss Christine Bost.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Mrs. William L. Marshall, of San Francisco, Cal., arrives Sunday for a visit to her sister, Mrs. Preston S. Arkwright, at her home in Druid Hills.

Alva G. Maxwell left yesterday for St. Augustine, Fla., where he will attend the Florida bankers' convention in session there.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burdette and children, Polly and Arthur, Jr., have returned from Jacksonville, Fla.

Mrs. Frank S. Wise has returned to her home in Asheville, N. C., after a visit to her sisters, Mrs. Robert E. Hodgeson and Mrs. T. G. Williams.

Mrs. M. F. Gerow, of Asheville, N. C., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Fussell, on Lee street.

Miss Virginia Smoak has resumed her studies at Shorter college after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Smoak, in St. Augustine place.

Miss Emma Hardin Moss, of Irwin, Tenn., resumes her studies at Shorter college this week after spending the spring holidays with Miss Virginia Smoak in St. Augustine place, and Miss Genie Dowda in Columbus.

Miss Lamar Lowe visited Magnolia Gardens near Charleston last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aubry, of New York city, are visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cuthbert, at their home on West Andrews drive.

Mrs. G. W. Freney spent a few days in Macon this week.

Miss Helen Harrison, a student at Shorter college, is spending the spring holidays with her parents on Rock Springs road.

Mrs. H. L. Bennett and Miss Isma Bennett are visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. Lee Wicker and Miss Joyce Wicker in Tampa, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mellet and Ned Mellet have taken possession of their new home at 4 Poinc drive in Ansley Park.

J. F. Baxter and his daughter, Miss Bessie Baxter, have returned from a visit to Washington, D. C., and New York city.

Mrs. J. W. Langley and her daughter, Mrs. V. H. Shearer, returned Monday from Charleston, where they visited Magnolia Gardens and points of interest.

Mrs. Monroe Bush is the guest of Mrs. W. Street Russell.

Miss Marion Mullins, of Fort Worth, Texas, and Miss Thelma Chisholm, of Seattle, Wash., are the guests of Miss Mildred Bradley.

Miss Katherine Byrd, of Jacksonville, Fla., is the guest of Miss Frances McKirgan at her home on Peachtree street.

Mrs. J. Frazier Smith, of Memphis, Tenn., is visiting Miss Ruth Starke at her home on Rivers road.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pope and sons, Clark and Clinton, of Anniston, Ala., were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton A. Anderson.

Mrs. H. E. Davis, of Douglasville, has returned home after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Clinton A. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Burgess and Mrs. Carl W. Jewett, of Fort Oglethorpe, were the recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton A. Anderson.

Junior Chamber Wives Honor Mrs. McCulla

Mrs. Joe W. Ray was hostess yesterday at the Capital City Club at a luncheon for Mrs. Herbert F. McCulla, of Lincoln, Neb., who, with her husband, Mr. McCulla, national president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce, is here on a country-wide tour.

Assisting Mrs. Ray in the arrangements were Mesdames John N. Armour, Frank K. Shaw, Ed Robertson, Luther S. Turner, R. W. Tharpe, G. B. Yancey, H. B. Kennedy and E. M. Stubinger.

Last evening at 7 o'clock Mrs. McCulla was honored at a dinner by wives of officers and directors of the Junior Chamber at the Biltmore hotel. Those attending were: Mesdames H. F. McCulla, J. W. Ray, J. N. Armour, Ed Robertson, F. K. Shaw, G. B. Yancey, G. L. Kinsman, Walter E. Marshall, Duncan G. Peck, E. M. Stubinger, R. W. Tharpe, H. G. Turner, L. S. Turner, G. W. Withers, H. B. Kennedy, H. W. Gullatt and R. F. Hill.

Styles by Annette.

585

This scraggline printed crepe silk makes the hips appear extremely flat. A tie belt marks the natural waistline. The loose-hanging ends carry out idea of length. The fullness in the skirt is concentrated at the left side which gives height to the figure.

The bodice shows slight all-around blousing which is best for stout figures.

Style No. 585 comes in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust. Pattern price 15 cents in stamps or coin (coin is preferred). Wrap coin carefully.

Enclose 10 cents additional for

J.P. ALLEN & CO.

The Store All Women Know

Franco's Corsette is A Smart Foundation
$12.50

French Brocade and Ken-elastic are combined in Franco's new corsetette. The uplift brassiere is made of soft double net, and is cut low in the back so that it may be worn with an evening gown, as well as with a street or sports frock. Flesh color. For medium and heavy figures.

Sizes 34 to 40.

Daily Calendar of Women's Meetings

Georgia Association of Women Lawyers meets at the Henry Grady hotel and dinner will be served at 6 o'clock.

Membership committee of League of Women Voters meets at 10:30 o'clock in league headquarters.

Executive board meeting of the woman's auxiliary to the Fulton County Medical Society will be held at 10 o'clock at the Academy of Medicine.

Ladies' auxiliary of the Scottish Association holds a whist drive at 8 o'clock at the Burns Cottage.

Ben Hill chapter, No. 226, meets at 7:30 o'clock in Ben Hill Masonic hall.

Rev. N. R. High Moor's lecture at 10 o'clock at St. Luke's Episcopal church, Peachtree and Alexander streets, will be in the series, "Great Bible Characters."

The DeKalb League of Women Voters meets at the courthouse at 3 o'clock.

Martha Berry Circle Meets Monday at Piedmont Club

Atlanta Martha Berry circle meets Monday morning, April 7, at the Piedmont Driving Club at 11 o'clock, and Mrs. Frank M. Iman, the president, will preside. The program for the breaking of the ground for the mothers' building at Martha Berry school in Rome, Ga., will be presented the following day. The Atlanta circle is sponsoring and supporting this project which will be of inestimable worth to the school.

Miss Inez Wooten, from the Berry fashion book when you order your pattern.

Address orders to Annette Fashion Department, care the Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. Gifford Honors National Officers.

Mrs. G. W. Gifford will be hostess today at a luncheon at the East Lake Country Club in compliment to the national officers of Kappa Delta sorority who are in Atlanta for the installation of Zeta Tau Club of Oglethorpe University into national Kappa Delta. The guests will include the officers who are: Miss Marion Mullins, of Fort Worth, Texas; Miss Katherine Byrd, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. J. Frazier Smith, of Memphis, Tenn.; Miss Thelma Chisholm, of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Richard Bennett, Jr., of Chattanooga, Tenn.; the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Boykin, on Andrews drive, and Miss Elizabeth Meredith, president of the Atlanta Kappa Delta alumnae.

Miss Craven Weds James H. Mixon.

The marriage of Miss Gladys Craven, of Atlanta, to James H. Mixon, of Hamilton, Ala., was solemnized recently in the Phillips Memorial room in the First Presbyterian church of Birmingham, Ala., Dr. M. Mordecai officiating. The bride, a Brenau girl, is an accomplished teacher of piano and expression. The groom is a successful businessman and one of Hamilton's most prominent and influential citizens.

Poetry Forum Will Meet.

The Poetry Forum of the Atlanta Writers' Club will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Miss Marjorie de Leon, 322 Piedmont avenue, N. E., All poets and students of verse are invited to attend. Several new regulations governing material to be read at the meetings of the forum were passed at the last assembly, the attention of all patrons of the organization is called to these rules. First—No poem shall be read unless by special permission of the chairman, which has been written more than a month prior to the meeting. No poem exceeding 50 lines shall be read except by consent of the chairman. No poet shall read more than four poems at a meeting, except by special permission.

A Sale---at Allen's! SMART NEW HATS of BAKU AT A SPECIAL PRICE

ONE DAY ONLY!
$8.75

$8.75

It is an unusual day (and an important one!) in which you can get a genuine baku hat at this amazingly low price—not an old hat, reduced, but a brand-new one! They have been specially purchased in order that you might buy one at this price—and they are just as smart as they are new!

J.P. ALLEN & CO.

The Store All Women Know

Maj., Mrs. Franke Honor Col. Wagner And Mrs. Wagner

Major and Mrs. Gustav H. Franke entertained forty guests at dinner last evening at Cascade Terrace, honoring Colonel Henry S. Wagner and Mrs. Wagner. Jonquills and daffodils were artistically used in decoration. Colonel Wagner, who is stationed at Fort McPherson, and Mrs. Wagner leave next week for Front Royal, Va., where they will make their home.

Oakland O. E. S. Celebrates Birthday.

Oakland City chapter No. 280, O. E. S., meets Monday evening in the Oakland City Masonic hall, 1171 Lee street, S. W. The chapter will celebrate its fourth anniversary at this time. Mrs. Julia Jackson Turner and Will H. McLaren, past grand matron and past grand patron, and the members of the Oakland City Masonic lodge will be honor guests on this occasion. Visitors are invited.

Mrs. W. A. Steerman Honors Society.

Mrs. W. A. Steerman entertained the Center Hill Baptist W. M. S. at a silver tea at her home in Center Hill recently. Those present were Mrs. W. A. Steerman, Mrs. Roy Baker, Mrs. C. D. Thompson, Mrs. U. L. Torrance, Mrs. J. F. Taylor, Mrs. Nona Armstrong, Mrs. W. L. Stevenson, Mrs. L. M. McGuffey, Mrs. J. V. Barton, Mrs. T. T. Smith, Mrs. J. B. Bell, Miss Mattie McGuffey, Mrs. S. E. Jones, Mrs. Cordia Whitfield, Mrs. R. W. Griswell and Miss Myrtle Fuss.

Subscription Luncheon To Be Given April 12.

A subscription luncheon will be given Saturday, April 12, at the Piedmont Driving club, honoring the national officers of the Music Federation, passing through Atlanta next week, after attending the national executive board meeting to be held next week in Charleston, S. C.

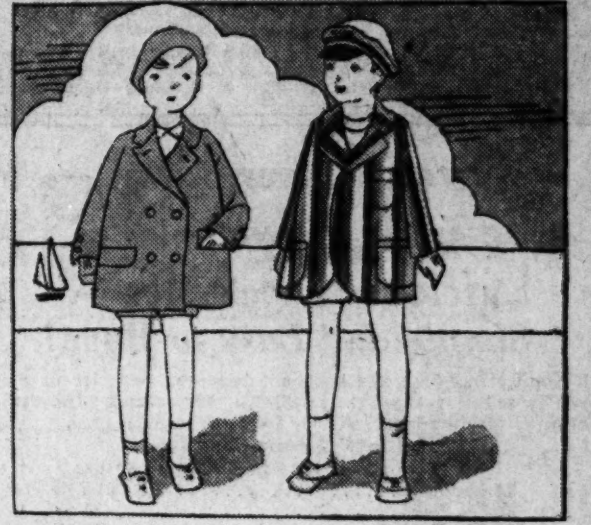

Mrs. Clifford C. Hatcher is chairman of the luncheon committee, and reservations may be made at $1.50 a plate through Mrs. Hatcher.

Atlantans Attend Dinner in Dallas.

DALLAS, Ga., April 3.—A number of Atlantans attended the surprise birthday dinner given Mrs. D. F. Wills at her home recently by a number of friends and relatives. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Holland and children, Mrs. Amy Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Maddox and children, Paul Camp, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Woodall, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Woodall, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Grogan, Herbert Grogan, Mrs. Amy Level, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McAfee.

Mr. and Mrs. Glover Foster, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wills and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chambers and Miss Nelle, and Mrs. Leon Wills, Miss Kathleen Foster, all of Atlanta, and Mr. and Mrs. Wills and Roy Wills, of Dallas.

Allen's Boys' Department—Third Floor

Smart Togs for Little Men (Ages from 1 to 6 years)

The little boy at the left wears a tan covert cloth coat with mohair lining and horn buttons, and a covert tam to match. There are other mannish coats of navy serge with embroidered emblem on the sleeve—also tweeds in both light and dark mixtures.

Coats$7.98 to $15
Caps$2.00 to $3.50

The youngster at the right has chosen a striped flannel blazer and a whipcord cap in tan or white with patent leather visor and embroidered emblem. The blazers are in different colored stripes. The caps come in tan and white.

Coats$7.98 to $10.95
Caps$2.00 to $3.50

J.P. ALLEN & CO.

The Store All Women Know

Peachtree at Cain

Allen's Reduces for immediate clearance:

185 DRESSES

in two groups

72 DRESSES

113 DRESSES

$8

Formerly $15
and $18

$12

Formerly $18
to $29.75

Broken sizes from 14 to 40, in crepes, georgettes, chiffons, a few nets and a few prints. All in good style, all desirable. Ones and twos of a kind, what's left from a big, successful month's selling!

75 ENSEMBLES and SUITS

$22.75

FORMERLY $29.75 AND $39.75

Forty ensembles of light-weight tweed, sharkskin wool, and silk crepe with silk blouses, sizes 14 to 38. Also forty-five tailored two-piece suits, without blouses, of twills, tweeds, coverts and tricolene. Many navy and pirate blues, also tans and grays. Sizes 14 to 40.

J.P. ALLEN & CO.

The Store All Women Know

To Clear Tomorrow!

KERCHIEFS
59c

A new shipment of chiffon dance handkerchiefs—in many floral and conventional designs, with picot and hand-rolled edges. . . . Some are in solid colors.

GLOVES
$2.95

A broken range of suede and kid gloves taken from our regular stock includes many styles and colors, but not all sizes in each color. . . . Formerly $3.95 to $7.95.

BAGS
$2.95

New large size sports bags of shagmoor, Dresden cloth, and tapestry, paisley, and crepes, are in both light and dark colors. . . . Their frames are shell, silver, and enamel.

Street Floor

J.P. ALLEN & CO.

The Store All Women Know

Miss Henderson and Walter Pope Wed at House Ceremony April 19

Plans for the wedding of Miss Mary Lou Henderson, daughter of Mrs. Annie Henderson, to Walter Calhoun Pope, are of interest. The marriage will be solemnized Saturday evening, April 19, at the home of the bride, 610 Cherokee avenue. The Rev. Dan Henderson, of East Point, will perform the ceremony in the presence of a gathering of relatives and friends. Following the wedding trip the young couple will make their home at 610 Cherokee avenue.

Miss Henderson will be entertained at a number of pre-nuptial parties. Mrs. A. D. Linch will be hostess at a Velvety Green Lawns--- Beautiful Flowers--- Luscious Vegetables--- Simple and Easy to Have!

If your planting results have not been the best, let us help you in selecting the right fertilizer. Remember! The cause of many planting failures is due to a lack of plant food.

Hastings' Special Fertilizer

Excellent for all-around garden and lawn use

25-Lb. Bag $1.00

50-Lb. Bag $1.65

100-Lb. Bag $3.00

Loma-Concentrated Plant Food

Scientifically prepared, complete fertilizer

5-Lb. Box $6.00

10-Lb. Bag $1.00

25-Lb. Bag $2.00

100-Lb. Bag $6.00

Wizard Pulverized Sheep Manure

Good as a top dressing for old lawns, flower beds and vegetable gardens.

25-Lb. Bag $1.00

100-Lb. Bag $3.00

Granulated Peat Moss

Finest mulch material; protects plants in winter and summer; retains moisture and fertility; lightens heavy soil and makes sandy soil loamy.

20 Lbs. (19 Bushels, Compressed) $1.00

Bale (19 Bushels, Compressed) $4.00

Bone Meal

A fine plant food—slow and steady availability

10-Lb. Bag $1.00

25-Lb. Bag $1.50

50-Lb. Bag $1.85

100-Lb. Bag $3.50

Hydrated Lime

A complete fertilizer

25 Lbs. $1.75

100 Lbs. $5.00

10-Lb. Bag 35c

50-Lb. Bag $1.00

100-Lb. Bag $1.50

H. G. HASTINGS CO.
"Everything for the Garden"
Mitchell St. at Broad Walnut 9241-9464

Precious white skin now yours—quickly, safely!

THINK of the joy of a perfect skin—the thrill of seeing your own complexion gorgeously radiant, glowing, healthy. Not a trace of tan, freckle, muddy-sallow color—not a hint of roughness or blemish to mar your precious beauty. Yet with just one wonderful beauty-aid, Nadinola Bleaching Cream—you can restore your skin to alluring beauty quickly and safely—while you sleep.

Just before you retire to-night, smooth over your skin a little of this pure white, delicately fragrant cream. You see your skin growing whiter, smoother, more lovely—all trace of tan, freckles, muddy-sallow color faded out. Even pimples, roughness and redness gently cleared away.

Nadinola Bleaching Cream

works mildly and gently, yet quickly and surely. Positive, money-back guarantee and full, simple directions in every package. Begin using Nadinola tonight—see how quickly it restores your skin to exquisite whiteness—clear, smooth beauty. Sold at all good drug stores and toilet counters. The 50c Nadinola package contains as much as other dollar bleaching creams—the dollar Nadinola package is more than twice as large. National Toilet Co., Paris, Tenn.

Nadinola Bleaching Cream
Whitens, Clears and Beautifies the Skin

For Young Mothers

MRS. CHESTER DECKER
R. R. #1, Wheatland, Indiana
"Before my little daughter was born I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound regularly. I was able to do my usual work and take pleasure in doing it. We were so happy when a wonderfully fine baby girl arrived to bless our home. I have enjoyed better health since the baby's birth than ever before. I am sure that I owe it all to your medicine and I heartily recommend it to all women who are weak or ailing."
—Mrs. Chester Decker.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

MRS. VERN L. DENNINGS
510 Johnson St., Saginaw, Michigan
"Although I am only 22 years old I have four babies to care for. Before my first baby was born my mother urged me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I was so terribly weak. I had to lie down four or five times a day. After three bottles I could feel a great improvement. I still take the Vegetable Compound whenever I need it, for it gives me strength to be a good mother to my family. I will write to any woman about it."
—Mrs. Vern L. Dennings.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

miscellaneous shower at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 5, at her home on Rosedale road, honoring this attractive bride-to-be. The guests will include Misses Henderson, Elizabeth Ragland, Glover Henderson, Gertrude Arline, Rosa Bennett, Alline Moore, Jamie Leonard, Lauralie Dunnean, Solita Dickerson, Alice Hunter, Lillie Mae Rogers, Pauline Rogers, Irma Dennis, Annie Cook, Medames Edith Coley, Laura Kilburn, Maude Petet, Marion Brooks, Lola Wilkins, W. E. Heard, Agnes Strickland, Ruth Jones, Eva Moore and Annie Henderson.

Kirkwood League Holds Meeting.

The Kirkwood Civic League met at the Kirkwood building recently. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Joseph Smith; first vice president, Mrs. L. J. Casperson; second vice president, Mrs. Fred Norris; Miss Nellie Emery, Mrs. H. Y. Britton, Mrs. C. A. Virgin; secretary, Mrs. R. S. St. Vincent; treasurer, Mrs. A. Braumhan. The league is a civic organization for the best of the section vice president was elected by Mrs. W. H. Busey, of the north-east section. The retiring president, Miss Nellie Emery, was given a basket of carnations by the league. The banquet was presented by Mrs. W. B. Saunders.

Rose Garden To Hold Plant Sale Today.

Rose Garden Club, of which Mrs. Morton Holliston is president, will sponsor a plant sale today at 1030 Peachtree road, with Mrs. J. W. Speas, chairman.

A wonderful assortment of plants has been promised, including annuals, perennials, many rock garden plants and some shrubbery. Among the most desirable ones that will be offered for sale are: 'low feverfew', purple pink and white; sweet Williams, foxglove, mixed oriental poppies, snapdragons, painted daisies, comfrey, Columbine, iris, and German iris. Four varieties of lilies, fox, rosy, hyacinths, gladioli, Canterbury bells, giant pansies and Johnny jump-ups and other flowers.

National Music Week Observance Set for May 4-10

National Music Week will be observed this year during the week of May 4 to 10, and, as formerly, the Atlanta celebration will be directed by the woman's division of the Chamber of Commerce, of which Miss Regina Corrigan is president.

The chairman of National Music Week is Mrs. L. A. Dove, and every civic organization in the city, together with the schools, churches, women's organizations, music conservatories and instructors in music and dancing, as well as interested individuals have been invited to co-operate with the woman's division in making the week a success.

National Music Week is being celebrated in some 3,000 cities, the plan being one which has evolved rapidly from a "music day" held about a decade ago. During the week special programs will be held over the radio, in the churches and schools. In Atlanta, as well as throughout the country, the slogan this year for National Music Week is "Make Music Your Friend From Youth to Age" and it is designed to stimulate adult interest in music in order that it may keep pace with the education in music given so generally to the young people in our schools and colleges.

A civic concert will be given at 8 o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 4, to mark the opening of National Music Week. All artists who are interested have volunteered their services and no admission will be charged.

Treasurer of Emory Committee Official

George H. Mew, treasurer of Emory University, was elected secretary of the national committee on Standard Reports of Institutions of Higher Education at a recent meeting in Washington, D. C.

Other charter members of the committee are Dr. Arthur J. Klein, chief, division of higher education, United States department of the interior; Lloyd Morey, comptroller, University of Illinois; F. L. Jackson, vice chairman, Davidson college, Davidson, N. C.; J. C. Wintinger, Princeton University. The committee is working out standard record systems for the income, expenditures, assets and liabilities of colleges and universities.

A general committee composed of 15 representative educators from the eastern, southern, western and Pacific coast sections was elected to assist the original committee of six to work out a uniform method of classification of college and university finances.

First Methodist Guild To Give Annual Supper

"Pinebloom," the home on Ponce de Leon avenue of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Ackwright, will be the scene this evening of the annual supper of the guild of the First Methodist church. Jonquil and peach blossoms will be used in decoration for the annual affair which will assemble 200 members of the organization at 6:30 o'clock. The receiving party will include Dr. Samuel Senter, pastor of the church, and Mrs. Senter; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Rosser; Mr. and Mrs. Arkwright. A group of young people of the church will assist in entertaining. Members of the guild and friends of the First Methodist church are invited.

BARNETT ASKS FIGHT ON HIGH CEMENT DUTY

The Georgia senatorial delegation was asked by telegram Thursday by Colonel J. W. Barnett, state highway chairman, to object to a proposed increase of six cents per 100 pounds on the tariff on cement which, if adopted, would cost the state highway department $150,000 a year.

The chairman also announced that the next meeting of the state highway board would be April 22, when bids to be advertised for within a few days will be received on cement.

Colonel Barnett stated that it was of vital importance that no further tariff be placed on cement. Prices recently advanced 50 cents a barrel, he said, and a further increase would be burdensome to the state.

It was estimated that the Georgia highway department could use between 600,000 and 700,000 barrels of cement this year. At 400 pounds to the barrel, the proposed tariff increase would cost the department more than $150,000 a year.

PROGRESS REPORTED BY CENSUS WORKERS

Substantial progress in the enumeration of Atlanta's population was reported to Dr. Elizabeth Broach, fourth Georgia district supervisor, at the conference with census takers Thursday.

Problems incident to the task of calling upon and questioning the entire population of the city were discussed at the meeting.

Twenty people who now are dead will be included in the roll of the city's population. It was estimated that these are persons who have died since April 1, but who will be enumerated because the survey is dated from that day.

Several cases of absent families were reported. In one instance a family living in Decatur asked that they be registered as residents of California, their real home.

Absent family blanks can be obtained at the headquarters. One was asked by a man who said he and his family were leaving within the next few minutes. They waited at home as long as they could, hoping an enumerator would make an early visit, he said. He stopped at the headquarters to get an absent family blank so that he and his family could be included in the city's population.

Willner President Of Hebrew School

Major R. L. Willner was unanimously elected president of the United Hebrew school at a supper meeting of the Purim ball committee held in the Ahavath Achim synagogue Wednesday night. Sam Gershon was chosen vice president and J. H. Rodbell was named treasurer for the ensuing 12 months. A board of directors was also appointed, consisting of 36 men and 20 women, with J. Faerman heading the finance board.

The financial report, read before the meeting, showed that $2,457.78 had been raised for the school, the largest sum ever raised, and the work of the committee, headed by Mr. Gershon and Major Willner, was praised by Rabbi Harry H. Epstein, who particularly lauded the efforts of the ladies' committee under the supervision of Mrs. Max Mandel.

During the meeting plans were laid for enlargement of the school's enrollment, and a large crowd pledged its support. Entertainment features included a number of folk songs sung by Cantor A. Lipitz, accompanied by Miss M. Rittelman. Oscar Gershon sang several operatic arias.

Mrs. Hoover Attends Church Society Meet

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—(UN) Mrs. Herbert Hoover attended unknown to most of those around her, the Friends' yearly meeting at the society's meeting house at Fourth and Arch streets.

Attended by a secret service man, Mrs. Hoover came here from Washington this morning. She asked particularly that no demonstration be held in connection with what she said was "purely a religious visit." Her wishes were respected.

Few of those in the congregation at the Friends' meeting house knew that the president's wife was there.

Mrs. Hoover planned to spend the night at the home of Mrs. George Vane Jr., and to return to Washington tomorrow morning.

STATE CHIROPRACTORS MEET HERE THIS WEEK

Two-Day Session Opens at Henry Grady Hotel This Morning.

Dr. Michael Gershon, of Atlanta, president of the Georgia Chiropractic Association, Thursday announced that the semi-annual convention of that organization would be held at the Henry Grady hotel on Friday and Saturday.

Dr. Gershon also announced that the association had been invited to hold the 1931 convention at Havana. Action will probably be taken on the invitation at the meeting here.

Officers of the association are: Dr. Gershon, president; Dr. E. E. Clark, Atlanta, first vice president; Dr. William E. Brown, Newnan, second vice president; Dr. J. M. Burgess, Statesboro, secretary-treasurer, and editor of the Georgia Cracker, official publication of the association.

The board of directors are: Dr. F. A. Strobel, Thomasville; Dr. Archibald England, Macon; and Dr. Leslie Adams, Atlanta.

Dr. C. E. Hodges, of Albany, and Dr. E. Linwood Morris, of Americus, will serve as toastmasters at the luncheon to be held Saturday in connection with the convention.

Local Hospitals Given Approval Of Medical Body

The American Medical Association, in the report of a nationwide survey of hospitals released in Baltimore Tuesday, placed its stamp of approval on 25 Atlanta hospitals.

The superior endorsement of the association is based on efficiency of the hospital. A staff of physicians who are graduates of reputable medical colleges, an able and ethical management, a competent pathologist, study tissues removed at all operations, competent nurses and regular staff conferences are included in the factors considered.

Institutions in Atlanta honored were the Atlanta hospital, Atlanta Neurological hospital, Battle Hill sanatorium, Blackman's Health resort, Dr. Brainerd's sanatorium, Confederate Soldiers' home, Contagious Disease hospital, Davis-Fischer sanatorium, Florence Crittenton home, Georgia Baptist hospital, Georgia sanatorium, Grady Memorial hospital, Henrietta Egleston hospital, Home for Incurables, Dr. Noble's private infirmary, Piedmont hospital, St. Joseph's infirmary, St. Mary's hospital, Southeastern sanatorium, Station hospital, Steiner Cancer clinic, United States Penitentiary hospital, United States Veterans' hospital, Colored institutions hospital, Mercy hospital and Emory division of Grady.

CO-EDS VS. MEN

Unique Debate Planned at Oglethorpe Today.

Three co-eds and three men of Oglethorpe University will debate this morning on the subject: "Resolved, That Co-education is Beneficial to American Education." The girls will uphold the affirmative. This debate is the culmination of many heated campus discussions to be settled finally today on the forensics battlefield.

Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, president of Oglethorpe, believes that co-education is an inalienable benefit in the morale of a university.

Those who will debate are Helen Boardman, Willie Woodall, Pansy Bugg, Clarence Krebs, William Deal and W. R. Massengale. The debate will be at 10:30 in the Oglethorpe chapel.

ATLANTAN PROMOTED TO BRANCH MANAGER

John W. Sears, assistant manager, life, accident and group departments, in the Atlanta office of the Travelers Insurance Company, Hartford, Conn., has been promoted to manager of the company's branch at Little Rock.

Mr. Sears is a native of this state and became connected with the Travelers in 1921 in the local territory of the company. After serving as a field assistant, life, accident and group departments, in the Atlanta office of the company he was promoted to assistant manager on May 1, 1928. Neill E. McKay is manager, life, accident and group departments, of the local office of the Travelers in the Healey building.

JURORS DISAGREE ON MAE WEST PLAY

NEW YORK, April 3.—(P)—A general sessions court jury tonight reported a disagreement in the case of Mae West, Broadway actress and playwright, and 23 other persons charged with violating the penal code by presenting her play, "Pleasure Man," which was closed as indecent by the police in the fall of 1925. The jury was then discharged.

The jury had deliberated about 10 hours and in discharging it Judge Amadeo A. Bertini expressed his thanks.

"Irrespective of the result in this case," he said, "the difficulty of legal regulation of the drama from the standpoint of morals and decency must be apparent to you from your observations of the procedure required to represent in a courtroom what may have actually been depicted behind the footlights."

Assistant District Attorney James G. Wallace consented to continuing the bail previously given by the defendants. He said, however, "in view of the length of time which has elapsed since this play was enacted and the fact that it will never again be presented on the boards, it may make it undesirable to try the case again."

Before the case went to the jury at noon Judge Bertini dismissed the indictments against all but 24 of the 57 original defendants.

Home Burns.
Fire late Wednesday night destroyed the home owned by J. C. Jett, on Pine Grove avenue, Brookhaven. The residence, which was occupied by a tenant, was a total loss. The building was covered by insurance but the furnishings were not. Damage was estimated at $2,000.

Gen., Mrs. McCoy To Give Tea For Mrs. Biddle

Major General Frank Ross McCoy and Mrs. McCoy will entertain at tea next Sunday at their quarters at Fort McPherson in honor of Mrs. Margaret Burrell Biddle, who has recently come to the post to reside with her son, Lieutenant William Biddle.

The tea will follow the polo game, which will be played between the Fort McPherson team and the Fourth Corps Artillery team. This is the first polo game of the spring season and will be witnessed by a large number of civilian society as well as the army set. The games are popular events of each Sunday afternoon during the spring months and are usually followed by a number of informal social gatherings given by members of army circles.

General and Mrs. McCoy have invited a number of military society to meet Mrs. Biddle Sunday.

PENN MUTUAL SERVICE DEMONSTRATION GIVEN

How thoroughly a modern life insurance company covers specific needs for protection and investment was demonstrated Thursday at a luncheon for Penn Mutual agents in this territory at the Atlanta Athletic Club.

Osborne Bethea, representative of the Penn Mutual Company, was in Atlanta in the course of a visit to many of his company's agencies for the purpose of conferring with its local representatives regarding the annual 60-day servicing period observed by the company.

The Penn Mutual Company works under the assumption that life insurance, like automobiles and various other mechanical and electrical appliances, needs periodic servicing if it is to function perfectly.

Life insurance agents are supposed to keep in touch with policy holders throughout the year. Mr. Bethea pointed out, to see that when circumstances necessitate changes in policy provisions or additional coverage these shall be made and supplied.

Since production of new business requires a large part of a life insurance agent's time, the Penn Mutual has devised a plan of designating a special period during the year for concentrating upon the needs of existing policy holders. Mr. Bethea explained.

With W. Stanton Hale, manager in Atlanta for the company, taking the part of a policy holder, and Mr. Bethea playing the role of an agent, a sales demonstration was staged showing the effectiveness of the servicing plan.

The luncheon was attended by every agent of the company in this territory, many of them having policy holders as their guests.

Mr. Bethea formerly resided in Atlanta and expressed a great deal of pleasure at having an opportunity of visiting here. He is now on the vice president's staff in the Penn Mutual organization.

RAILROAD SEEKS RIGHT TO DISMANTLE TRACKS

Georgia and Florida Opposed in Move To Abandon Two Branch Lines.

The application of the Georgia & Florida railroad for permission to abandon and dismantle its tracks between Millen and Garfield, and Graymont and Pendleton was taken under advisement by the Georgia public service commission Thursday following an all-day hearing.

Representatives of the railroad, including N. W. Purvis, former president and present co-receiver, presented testimony that the branch had been operating at a loss for several years, and that no relief was in sight.

Other officials of the road supporting the application for abandonment included D. F. Kirkpatrick, assistant traffic manager of the Georgia & Florida; W. L. Graham, present superintendent of the road, and S. W. Saxe, assistant to the receivers.

Walter Harrison, mayor of Millen, was the chief witness for those opposed to the application.

A. S. Anderson, Millen attorney, testified, and during cross examination by J. J. Williamson, of Augusta, attorney in charge of the railroad's case, said that he thought the public service commission "should make you operate and keep up the road even if you do lose money on it."

G. C. Dekle, Millen attorney, represented those opposed to granting of the application.

Kappa Alpha Theta Meets Saturday For Luncheon

Members of Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity will meet for luncheon at the Piedmont hotel Saturday, April 5, at 12:30 o'clock. All Thetas are invited to attend. For reservations phone Mrs. M. L. Hollowell, Hemlock 7002-J, or Miss Berenice Kaufman, Hemlock 2008.

Mrs. George S. Woodard, of Fort McPherson, is president of the fraternity, and Mrs. E. H. Goss is secretary. The members include Mesdames Nathan D. Bachman, R. M. Cote, Reuben Gilliam, E. M. Godat, W. A. Humphrey, M. L. Hollowell, Hugh H. Harris, Parks Kirkpatrick, Walter Powell, Roy Repasa, Fleming Law, Anderson Redding, T. H. Scott, William H. Sibley, Trenton Tunnell, J. T. Corry, William P. Bell, Harry Uhl and Misses Turpin Crot, Emma Gregg, Rhoda Kaufman, Berenice Kaufman, Alice Maniz, Mary Thomason, Mary Torrence, Elizabeth Green and Dr. Mary F. Sweet.

A large number of out-of-town members will attend the luncheon meeting Saturday, at which future plans of the fraternity will be discussed and an interesting program presented.

LEGION TO LAUNCH MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

An intensive membership drive will be launched at the regular luncheon meeting of the local post of the American Legion today in the civic room of the Ansley hotel with R. L. McArthur, chairman of the membership committee, in charge of this second phase of the year's membership campaign.

The luncheon, which will begin at 12:30 o'clock, will include several entertainment features, including the introduction of Captain Gordon Keith, noted vaudeville actor and versatile entertainer, as a quartet of saxophone players under the direction of H. V. Carpenter; popular songs by Katherine Ball, of the Fox theater, and other items. The program is under the direction of Committee Chairman Ray Baxter and Bob Stowers, of the entertainment committee.

How Often Are the Dividends Paid and When?

Preferred Stock dividends are mailed out by check every three months to fully paid shareholders. Dividends are payable on the first day of March, June, September and December. Many of our shareholders are having their dividend checks sent to their banks for deposit in their savings account. In this way they receive interest on their dividends, and thereby make their money do double duty. For any information concerning our $7.00 Preferred Shares, communicate with us, Southern National Gas Corporation, Rhodes-Haverty Building, Atlanta, Ga. (adv.)

Smart Shop

85 Whitehall St., S. W.

EASTER FASHIONS in Dresses that display individuality

$9.75

Home Burns.

Fire late Wednesday night destroyed the home owned by J. C. Jett, on Pine Grove avenue, Brookhaven. The residence, which was occupied by a tenant, was a total loss. The building was covered by insurance but the furnishings were not. Damage was estimated at $2,000.

Before the case went to the jury at noon Judge Bertini dismissed the indictments against all but 24 of the 57 original defendants.

ATLANTAN PROMOTED TO BRANCH MANAGER

John W. Sears, assistant manager, life, accident and group departments, in the Atlanta office of the Travelers Insurance Company, Hartford, Conn., has been promoted to manager of the company's branch at Little Rock.

Mr. Sears is a native of this state and became connected with the Travelers in 1921 in the local territory of the company. After serving as a field assistant, life, accident and group departments, in the Atlanta office of the company he was promoted to assistant manager on May 1, 1928. Neill E. McKay is manager, life, accident and group departments, of the local office of the Travelers in the Healey building.

BYCK'S

207 Peachtree
61-63 Whitehall

Genuine Snakeskin is the accepted mode for Spring!

The classic pump of all-over genuine beige snakeskin for smart afternoon occasions. Same in grey.

$14.50

This genuine beige watersnake shoe is contrasted with sun-tan kid. Similar type in genuine baby python, trimmed with patent leather.

$14.50

The high heel oxford of genuine beige snakeskin is smartest when worn with tailored tweed suits.

$14.50

For sports or street—the three-eyel oxford of all-over genuine beige snakeskin has a Cuban heel.

$14.50

Shop Byck's Windows Tonight or any Night, For the News in Shoes

FOUR PAGES.

ATLANTA, GA., FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 4, 1930.

PAGE NINETEEN

Jackets Nose Out Florida, 2 to 1, in Series Opener at Flats

BLETHEN REPORTS TO CRACKERS HERE TODAY

For a matter of years, Harry Bullion, baseball writer of the Detroit Free Press, has been coming through Atlanta every spring with the Tigers as they work their way back home.

In all those years when Ty Cobb was in his prime as player and as manager, Harry was cautious in his estimates of the Tigers. "Pretty good" was the best he would ever give them at this stage of the game.

I encountered Harry in the press box yesterday as the Tigers played the Crackers and asked the usual question.

"They look like a real ball club," said Harry. "Not worse than second place for us this year."

Henry Farrell, the erudite, quiet young man who recently was added to the Detroit Times staff to write baseball, also is here with the club.

Henry would not manifest undue excitement if he learned that Al Capone had been signed as managing editor of The Times. Henry never has been guilty of being a fan on any subject, save possibly the Olympian qualities of Miami Beach in February.

Yet I learned this from Farrell:

"This is a real ball club. I honestly do not see how, barring accidents, they can finish worse than second."

So, you are welcome to those two harmonious tips. Play the Tigers for place, if you insist on riding the Athletics to win.

GOING AFTER SCOTT.

"Pa" Stribling and his son boarded a train yesterday bound for New York. They sail Friday night on the Majestic for London to begin a barnstorming tour of Europe.

Stribling will fight Don Shortland, the British contender, in London; Roberto Roberti, the Italian, in Paris, and Pierre Charles, the Belgian, in Brussels.

These scraps, however, are considered by the Striblings as warm-up bouts. They are hoping to get a match with Phil Scott in the Royal Albert hall, London, late in May. Otherwise they would not be hustling off across the pond for three meaningless matches.

PHILIP IS SHY.

"Just between us, I doubt whether Phil Scott will accept terms for a match with W. L.," Pa said before he left yesterday. "Jeff Dickson, the American, who has been promoting fights on the continent for many years, has not yet brought Scott to terms. If anybody can get Scott into the ring with W. L. Jeff can do it. But I have an idea Scott does not want to fight just now."

"Scott is a sort of hero now. The British fans feel he was robbed at Miami in the Sharkey fight and he has general sympathy. If Dickson can play up the possibilities of the match he may create a public demand and force Scott into the ring."

"If he does—W. L. can lick Phil Scott six times in any one week. He can win a clean-cut decision and come home in a greatly improved position in the heavyweight ranks."

The Striblings are gambling on rushing over to Europe, advertising they are hunting for a match with Phil Scott and thereby create a demand for Scott to vindicate himself.

The Striblings, incidentally, have agreed to accept the lowest percentage cut for which EVER fought in order to get a chance at Scott.

PAGE TED GOODRICH.

Fistic affairs in Atlanta are at a temporary standstill. Since Ted Goodrich walloped his way to fame by knocking out Joe Dundee in two rounds, things have been quiet.

Max Abelson planned to bring Primo Carnera here for one of the "acts" Primo has been staging around and about the country. That would be a sad error just now. There would be little entertainment in seeing the giant knock over a worn-out gladiator. The exhibitions of the sour science Primo has been staging around the country have palled on the public mind.

Until Carnera's handlers are ready to pit their rhino against a fairly good opponent, selected by the local promoter, Atlanta probably would not be interested. Carnera was a sad flop in Jacksonville recently. That should be the tip-off to Max Abelson.

Ted Goodrich right now is the one boxer in whom Atlanta is interested. Goodrich fights no set-ups.

DUKE AND ALABAMA.

Your correspondent returned from Augusta to find the locker rooms buzzing at Wallace Wade's impending change from Alabama to Duke University.

Duke landed a great coach in Wallace Wade. If the university co-operates and waits patiently to let the man get his system working, the Blue Devils will be right up in first division in a year or so after he takes charge.

Meanwhile, speculation is rife as they express it in big time writing circles, over Wade's successor at Alabama. What will Alabama do now, poor thing, is the tenor of comment.

It so happens that there is a vast lot of unemployment right now in the coaching profession. More good coaches are at liberty than ever before, a prominent coach told me the other day. He was in touch at the moment with several hundred who were unattached.

Alabama has plenty of time to cast about and get the right man.

Meanwhile the newspaper boys have a royal opportunity to make any number of selections themselves and save Alabama a lot of trouble. It is an opportunity that will not be overlooked, rest assured. Look for nominations and even elections on an average of one a week from now until Wallace Wade leaves in 1931.

MAKE YOURSELF AT HOME.

Someone has suggested that Kaye Don take out naturalization papers and become one of us permanently. He must have begun to feel very much at home in Daytona while waiting for the beach to settle down.

JACKETS NOSE FLORIDA, 2 TO 1, IN FAST GAME

Collegians Hurl Well. 'Gators Get Six Hits, Tech Four.

By Herb Clark.

Georgia Tech's Jackets earned a 2-1 decision over the 'Gators of the University of Florida on the Rose Bowl field Thursday afternoon in the first of a three-game series.

It was a pretty ball game. It might well have been played in June. Errors were few—Tech made one and Florida one. Those errors were redressed by bits of sparkling work.

The pitching was good. Tech's swingers connected only six times. The 'Gators got four hits. Fisher, for Florida, walked one man. Broonan issued two passes to the 'Gators. Broonan forced four 'Gators to strike out. Three Jackets whiffed for Fisher.

GOOD FROM START.

It started out to be a good ball game from the first. It was three up and three down for each team in the opening session. And the first batter on each club fell victim to the skill of the rival pitchers.

Fisher almost stepped off into deep water in the second inning after the 'Gators had been held safe in their half. Red Harper, one of Coach Kid Clay's best sophomores, grabbed the first ball thrown him and seared the second-baseman's socks. Ritchie, another soph, sent him to second with a bunt. Frink walked. Then our friend Fisher settled to work. In some dark, dark enough, brightened perceptibly as he forced Preston to hit an easy pop foul. They took on a positively sunny look as he threw three fast ones by the Farmer.

This same Red Harper came close to breaking Fisher's heart in the fourth. Again he grabbed the ball and again it started from here. This time it was off the ground and shot on a line to deep right-center. When it finally completed its trip back to the infield Harper stabbed a sidearm into third base and rested a moment. Ritchie, ever willing to try, poked out but could do no better than a fly to short center field. Harper refused to hurt Ritchie by feeling by spurning the aid and skidded home in a cloud of dust. That was the first Tech hit.

Fisher caught a bit of shelling in the fifth. Preston, another of Clay's bustling sophomores, cracked away with a double. He went to third on Broonan's effort, a single by grace of the sun which bewildered Sauls in right field. He came home on Terrell's one-base drive through second base. And that was the last Tech hit.

Sauls got his second hit, a double, to start the eighth. He went to third on Smith's hard infield out. He scored as Ritchie bounced Evers' drive on the baseline. Fisher fled out to Harper in right field, and that was all. The game was over.

Both teams played bang-up ball, the best that has graced the Flats in some time and brand that sets a good standard for the new year. The teams tangled again this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the second of their series. The 'Gators are one down, but have power. The Jackets are one up and also have power.

TEAM	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
FLORIDA	28	6	11	11	1	1
Georgia Tech	28	1	3	10	1	1
LeGass, ss.	4	0	1	1	0	0
Deer, 1b.	4	0	0	1	0	0
Black, 2b.	4	0	0	1	0	0
Shidley, 3b.	4	0	0	1	0	0
Fiske, lf.	4	0	0	1	0	0
Smith, rf.	4	0	0	1	0	0
Evers, cf.	4	0	0	1	0	0
Fisher, p.	3	0	0	1	0	0
Totals	28	6	11	11	1	1

Gagnon, Griffiths To Fight Again

BOSTON, April 3.—(UN)—Jack Gagnon, sensational Boston heavyweight, who scored the greatest triumph of his career at Philadelphia Monday night when he knocked out Tuffy Griffiths, of Sioux City, Iowa, has agreed to meet Griffiths in a return bout at Chicago on April 30. Phil Buccola, Gagnon's manager, announced here tonight.

The bout, according to the announcement, will be staged at the Chicago coliseum under the direction of Mate Lewis. The guarantee and purses of the fight have not been disclosed, but Buccola said his terms had been met.

Lott, Doeg Win At New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, April 3.—(AP)—George Lott, of Chicago, and Johnny Doeg, of Santa Monica, Cal., were extended here today to win from Arthur Waters and Charles Granger, both of New Orleans, 6-1, 4-0, 6-1 in the New Orleans Country Club's invitational tennis tournament.

Previously Granger and Waters had bested McMillan and Sanders, of Oshkosh, Wis., 6-3, 6-3.

Johnny Van Ryn, Orange, N. J., and Donald Cram, Nashville, Tenn., defeated Fred Bagge, Newark, N. J., and Marcel Rainville, of Canada, 6-3, 6-1.

Cliff Sauter and Maurice Bayon, both of New Orleans, defeated Hackett and Abrahamson, 6-0, 6-0.

Van Ryn defeated Bagge, 6-4, 6-4 in the only singles match.

'My Club Seems Okay, How About Yours?'

Jonathan G. Dobbs, left, eminent fox hunter of Ringgold, Ga., and manager of the Atlanta Crackers, was snapped Thursday afternoon by a Constitution staff photographer while talking baseball talk with Bucky Harris, manager of the Detroit Tigers. Both clubs seem set to make good races, the Crackers in the southern and the Tigers in the American league. Dobbs' club, incidentally, whipped Harris' Thursday. The score was 5 to 4, which is considered close.

AUBURN PICKS ROCKNE PUPIL

Chester A. Wynne Comes to Village Under Three-Year Contract.

AUBURN, Ala., April 3.—(UN)—Alabama Poly, scrapping tailender in the Southern conference, has signed Chester A. Wynne, former coach at Creighton University, Omaha, Neb., for a three-year contract as coach. President Bradford Knapp, announced today.

Wynne, familiarly known as Chet, formerly was an all-American fullback at Notre Dame and was selected by Grantland Rice in his 1921 honor roll as the most outstanding fullback in college football. He begins his new duties here May 1.

Wynne, familiarly known as Chet, formerly was an all-American fullback at Notre Dame and was selected by Grantland Rice in his 1921 honor roll as the most outstanding fullback in college football. He begins his new duties here May 1.

President Knapp considered the record and applications of more than a hundred coaches since last October when Coach Bohler resigned.

Wynne went to Midland college, Nebraska, the year following his graduation in 1922 and won for that school the Nebraska collegiate conference championship. At Creighton his teams won 13 consecutive games against leading eleven, including Utah University, which had not lost a game in three years.

Rockne himself sent a personal telegram of recommendation in behalf of his protégé.

Shotton's Tourists Back in Philly

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Nationals returned home today after approximately a month and a half of pre-season training under southern skies. They arrived ready for the start of the championship series with the Athletics Saturday.

Thirty players and five non-combatants composed the squad which, headed by Manager Bert Shotton, moved into their hotel headquarters to remain until the opening of the National league season on April 15.

Rockne Is Patient At Miami Hospital

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., April 3.—(UN)—Found at the St. Francis hospital here he said he was taking minor treatment for an asthmatic condition but was not seriously ill, Knute Rockne personally denied to the United Press tonight he had any intention of summoning a Mayo physician for treatment.

He added he may leave the hospital any day, having entered last week-end.

The famous coach was in good spirits and enjoyed the radio in his hospital room. He said he came to the hospital for rest and treatment because his ocean front apartment was too damp.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., April 3.—(UN)—A report out of Rochester, Minn., today, saying Dr. J. C. Barborica, of the Mayo Clinic, was rushing here to treat Knute K. Rockne, famous Notre Dame football mentor, caused amazement in the Rockne household.

"I haven't the least idea where such reports originated," Mrs. Rockne told the United Press after Dr. Barborica had arrived at Chicago by airplane and had booked passage on an Illinois Central train arriving here at 7:30 a. m. Saturday. "We have not sent for any physician." Dr. Barborica was said to have left Rochester hurriedly on receipt of word Rockne had suffered a sudden turn for the worse.

Thomasville Favors Class 'D' Baseball

Prospects of Crackers Backing Club There Stirs Fans of City of Roses.

THOMASVILLE, Ga., April 3.—Probability of support by Rell J. Spiller, of Atlanta, of a baseball team in the South Georgia-North Florida league, as outlined in The Atlanta Constitution Thursday morning, promptly caught the interest of diamond fans in Thomasville this morning. Immediately there was discussion of conferring with Mr. Spiller with a view to getting Thomasville in on the proposition.

The two men in this town who take greatest interest in baseball affairs are Tom T. Caldwell and Heeth Varnedoe. When the matter was called to their attention they both expressed the opinion that any town that might get in on a proposition of this sort would be lucky. But they were not to be deterred.

Miss Maddox, 2-1, for the championship of the first flight. Mrs. Keeler defeated Mrs. Roy Harris, 4-3, for second flight title honors and Mrs. Garrett and Mrs. Gillard will play for the third flight championship today.

Miss Maddox and Mrs. Williamson played one of the best matches of the tournament. Miss Maddox shot an 82 and Mrs. Williamson shot a 90. Mrs. Williamson had a 15-stroke handicap.

It was announced Thursday by Mrs. Keeler, president of the association, that a one-day medal play tournament will be played during the middle of the month at Capital City and another tournament will be played at East Lake during the latter part of the month.

The semi-pro league which was in the process of formation until the new Class A league idea was developed, can be easily changed.

A number of those interested are at work Atlanta is willing to take over a club in the league to use as a farm and it is possible that Brooklyn and another club or so will do the same thing.

Additional developments are expected today. Gordon Reynolds, of Albany, and other south Georgia baseball men are interested.

Rockne Is Patient At Miami Hospital

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., April 3.—(UN)—Found at the St. Francis hospital here he said he was taking minor treatment for an asthmatic condition but was not seriously ill, Knute Rockne personally denied to the United Press tonight he had any intention of summoning a Mayo physician for treatment.

He added he may leave the hospital any day, having entered last week-end.

The famous coach was in good spirits and enjoyed the radio in his hospital room. He said he came to the hospital for rest and treatment because his ocean front apartment was too damp.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., April 3.—(UN)—A report out of Rochester, Minn., today, saying Dr. J. C. Barborica, of the Mayo Clinic, was rushing here to treat Knute K. Rockne, famous Notre Dame football mentor, caused amazement in the Rockne household.

"I haven't the least idea where such reports originated," Mrs. Rockne told the United Press after Dr. Barborica had arrived at Chicago by airplane and had booked passage on an Illinois Central train arriving here at 7:30 a. m. Saturday. "We have not sent for any physician." Dr. Barborica was said to have left Rochester hurriedly on receipt of word Rockne had suffered a sudden turn for the worse.

CRACKERS BEAT DETROIT, 5 TO 4

Jim Battle Is Hero of First Major League Victory.

By Ralph McGill.

It isn't often that one can come right back with another story of how the boy hero made good right in the old clutch but here it is.

Rookie Jim Hammond led the assault on the Junglers from Detroit yesterday afternoon at Spiller field and the Crackers came loping in with a 5-to-4 decision, their first over a major league foe.

The home bred outfielder started the rally Wednesday which kept the Crackers from being shut out at the hands of the Cincinnati Reds. Yesterday afternoon he banged out two doubles in four times at bat, missing another two-bagger by a couple of inches. They call him "Powerhouse" and rightly so. He was the power in the Cracker attack.

SCORES TWO.

Each one of those double-barreled blows brought a Cracker scurrying over the platter. The Crackers got but four hits. Consequently even one with the barest semblance of mathematics may see that Jim Hammond drove in two-fifths of the runs and got exactly one-half of the hits.

The Crackers got off to a lead when Jim Hammond doubled in the first inning to bring in Jack Sheehan, who had been walked by Wyatt, the Georgia boy from over near Chattahoochee, who was working on the rubber for the Tigers.

They increased that lead in the second when two of the Detroit infield, Dale Alexander, the colossus at first, and Rogell, at short, juggled that baseball long enough for Cracker runners to get safely aboard the sacks.

Wyatt struck out the next two hitters, Yelle and Koob, but Frank Walker singled to send Dick Burris, first of those on by errors, home. Jim Battle came hustling over to third.

STEALS HOME.

And then there followed a perfect delayed double steal. Walker going down to second and Battle, hesitating like a fullback on a delayed buck, charging in home with the second run.

And right there that score stayed. Ernie Koob, the crooked arm, was pitching good baseball. He went five innings and in only two of them was he in a dangerous position. He pitched out of one hole that looked very dark indeed, leaving three Junglers to perish on the bases. In the fifth they got to him for three runs when three successive hits, one a double, and a sacrifice fly, furnished three Tiger runners with transportation home.

Lefty Wiernier, the chunky left-hander with a sense of humor, a knuckle ball and a good curve, and doublet Ernie Koob after the fifth and he pitched even better baseball than his predecessor.

GOOD PITCHING.

He retired the side in their half of the sixth and the Crackers came right back with a couple of tallies in their half of that same inning. Wyatt hit Johnston and Hammond doubled.

Jimmy Johnston, bounding along like a gazelle, although he does not look at all like a gazelle, came hustling home. Brown sacrificed Hammond down to third. He was caught at the plate on the next play, Gehring shooting in Burris' grounder to perish on the bases.

Continued on Third Sport Page.

PEACHES GET PARHAM FROM DODGER CLUB

Blethen's Return Fills Spot in John Dobb's Hurling Staff.

By Ralph McGill.

Climas Blethen will report to the Crackers today. The right-hander who churned up such a pitching froth last season in Cracker's liver has been turned back by the Brooklyn club. Announcement was made late yesterday afternoon by Brooklyn officials.

At the same time it was announced that Bob Parham, the outfielder whom the Crackers picked up last season after his graduation from Tech, would toil with the Macon club this summer for the final seasoning deemed necessary to make him a fixture in the Brooklyn outfield.

POSSIBLE FARMS.

Atlanta and Newark had been mentioned as the possible seasoning farms for Parham. But Your Uncle Wilbert Robinson decided to keep Parham at Macon, where he would be used as desired by the Robins owners.

Indications are that there will be no working agreement between the Robins and the Crackers. The return of Blethen follows the terms of a conditional sale by which the right-hander was to be returned to the Crackers in the event he failed to stick with Brooklyn.

FILLS HOLE.

Return of Blethen, the lean New Englander, the mighty muck hunter from Maine, fills one of the aching voids on the pitching staff, the right-handed side of it, where Joe Kiefer and Don Brennan were the only veterans.

Blethen won 23 games for the Crackers last season with a comparatively mediocre club behind him. With a better offensive team this fall and one which should produce more effective defensive work, he should again go steaming up to the 20-games-won mark.

"I am delighted to have Blethen back," said Johnny Dobbs when informed of the deal, "but I will say nothing of the deal. I am sure he will have another great year for Atlanta. I used to wish I had him when I was sitting on the Birmingham bench."

Getting Blethen back leaves Dobbs with a problem of signing another right-hander for the team. The Crackers need another right-hander to complete that side of the pitching staff. The left-handed side of it, with Dunlap, Evers and Koob, to choose from, looks good enough.

IN SHAPE.

Blethen has been working every day with the Robins and will report in good shape. He should be ready to pitch right away and may get into action before that.

Thursday saw the Robins turn loose two former Crackers. Max West, outfielder, was sent to Jersey City. West and Blethen visited in Atlanta Tuesday.

Additional business transacted by the Crackers yesterday was the return of Ed Lass, the nimble Nebraskan, to the Nebraska State league. The showing of Ed Hammond, local star, in the Crackers' own, was responsible for the return of Lass.

Hans Wagner Picks All-American Nine

NEW YORK, April 3.—(UN)—Babe Ruth is the only present-day player awarded recognition on the "all-time All-American" baseball team named by Honus Wagner, former Pittsburgh Pirate star, in the current issue of Collier's weekly.

Wagner's selections are: Pitcher—Mathewson. Catcher—Johnny Kling. First Base—Hal Chase. Second Base—Napoleon Lajoie. Shortstop—Joe Tinker. Third Base—Jimmy Collins. Left Field—Babe Ruth. Center Field—Ty Cobb. Right Field—Babe Ruth.

"For manager of that team I'd nominate John McGraw, a hard man, but a just man, who always protected his players," said Wagner. "An ideal umpire for the All-American team would be Bob Emslie and Bill Klem."

'Powerhouse'

DETROIT	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Johnson, 1b.	4	1	1	0	0	0
Funk, cf.	4	0	0	0	0	0
Gehring, 2b.	4	0	0	0	0	0
Alexander, 1b.	4	0	0	0	0	0
Rice, lf.	3	0	0	0	0	0
Allen, 3b.	2	0	0	0	0	0
Rogell, ss.	4	0	0	0	0	0
Shaw, c.	2	1	0	0	0	0
Wyatt, p.	3	1	0	0	0	0
Page, p.	1	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	33	4	0	0	0	0

ATLANTA

Walker, cf.	3	0	1	0	0	1
Sheehan, 1b.	4	1	0	0	0	0
Johnston, 2b.	2	1	0	1	0	0
Hammond, 3b.	4	1	0	0	0	0
Brown, lf.	3	0	0	0	0	0
Dunlap, 1b.	4	2	0	0	0	0
Battle, cf.	4	1	0	0	0	0
Tello, c.	2	0	0	0	0	0
Hammond, 3b.	2	0	0	0	0	0
Koob, p.	1	0	0	0	0	0
Slangerford, p.	1	0	0	0	0	0
Wiernier, p.	1	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	30	5	1	1	0	1

Struck out by first. Detroit by innings: 000 000 100-4. Atlanta by innings: 000 000 000-2. Two-base hits, Hammond 2, Rice, Wyatt; three-base, Walker, Battle. Sacrifices, Brown, Gehring, Allen. Double plays, Gehring to Alexander, Battle to Sheehan. Left on bases, Atlanta 3, Detroit 4. Base on balls, off Wyatt 4, Koob 2. Errors, Hammon, Alexander. Time of game, 1:45.

Braselton Beats Kentucky Five, 29-26, To Enter Quarter Finals

SAVANNAH WINS FROM CHICAGO FIVE BY 35 TO 27

Both Georgia Quintets in Quarter Finals of National Tourney.

CHICAGO, April 3.—(Special.)—Coming from behind to overcome a 10-point lead in the last half, and then going on to win in an extra period, Braselton high school, one of the two Georgia teams competing, qualified as the first of the quarter finalists in the Stagg Interscholastic Basketball tournament by defeating Kavanagh, Kentucky, 29 to 26, in an overtime contest today.

The win was due largely to the expert marksmanship displayed by Thrasher, Braselton forward, when points were needed late in the contest. After he had been only fairly successful in the earlier stages of the contest, Thrasher tied the score at 20 to 20 just before the regulation playing time ended by scoring three field goals and a free throw in the final quarter.

RICE BREAKS TIE.
Rice was the maker of the points that broke the tie and gave Braselton victory. Going into the overtime session with the count knotted at 20-all, Rice took the opening tip off and twined his way with a deceptive dribble to beneath the basket. Hawthorne, Kentucky guard, tossed him into the crowd and Rice made one of the two free throws given him to send Braselton into the lead, for the first time in the contest. Later in the overtime Rice and Archer passed the ball into short range. Rice lifting in a field goal that sufficed to raise the Braselton margin to three points.

Braselton was never prominent in the early stages of the game. Four baskets compared to the Georgian's two gave Kavanagh an 8 to 4 lead as the first quarter ended, and with a free throw by Archer, and field goal by Thrasher and Bogg the only Braselton scores of the second period, the teams left the floor at half time with the Kentuckians in the lead 19 to 9.

LONG RANGE.
Braselton had been attempting to work the ball in for short shots but as the second half opened the Georgians began to shoot from long range, and three field goals and a pair of free throws brought the count up to 22 to 17, with Kavanagh still leading at the end of the third quarter.

Hawthorne added two points for the losers with a long field goal that opened the final quarter, but after Archer had dropped in a field goal from the corner and Borries had balanced it with a basket for the Kentuckians, Thrasher staged a one-man drive that resulted in three field goals and a free throw that tied the score at 26 to 26 just before the gun ended the fourth quarter.

Braselton will meet St. John's Military Academy of Delafield, Wisconsin, in the quarter finals at 9 o'clock Friday evening. St. John's defeated Denton, Texas, 22 to 21 today.

Savannah Wins In Chicago Meet.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 3.—Georgia placed two teams in the quarter-finals.

Continued on Fourth Sport Page.

The Days of Real Sport

By Briggs

Summaries

KAVANAUGH (KY.) (26)	B.	F.	P.
Bartlett, R. F.	3	0	1
Borries, L. F.	3	0	1
Hawthorne, G.	1	0	0
Hawthorne, R. G.	4	0	2
P. Mouches, L. G.	0	0	2
Totals	11	0	6

BRASELTON (GA.) (29)	B.	F.	P.
Rice, R. F.	3	2	1
Thrasher, L. F.	5	2	0
Bogg, C.	1	0	0
Braselton, R. G.	1	0	0
Archer, L. G.	2	1	1
Totals	12	5	2

SAVANNAH (35)	B.	F.	P.
Futrell, R. F.	2	3	4
Shore, H.	3	2	1
H. Johnson, G.	1	0	1
Jackson, R.	1	0	1
S. Johnson, G.	1	0	1
Dismann, H.	3	1	0
Davis, R.	2	1	1
Totals	15	11	13

MORGAN PARK (27)	B.	F.	P.
Kevhart, R. F.	2	3	2
Harbury, H.	3	2	1
Rankin, C.	3	2	1
Harvey, R.	3	2	1
Penson, H.	1	0	1
Janis, H.	0	0	1
Warren, H.	0	0	1
Totals	15	10	13

HUDSON, TRASEK WILL RACE HERE

Entry List Reaches 11 for Opening Events at Speedway Saturday.

Two new entries, J. S. Hudson, of Charlotte, N. C., and Leo Trasek, of Chicago, Ill., were received Thursday night for the American Legion's benefit auto race program. Hudson's Saturday afternoon, the Atlanta speedway on Pace's Ferry road. Paul Bost, of Ann Arbor, Mich., and "Shorty" Ginrick, of Tampa, Fla., wired their entries Wednesday night, making a total of 14 to date.

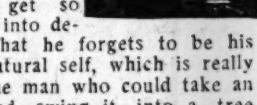

Several of the racers who are already in town will tune up their cars this noon. Bob Sall, Sebe Thompson, Bruce Thompson, Billy Wain, Jimmy Patterson, Glenn Roberts, Charles Cyr and Helman Schurch are here and will try out their racers today.

Bob Robinson, of Benson Springs, Fla., a team mate of late Ray Keech, wired Manager Hamilton several days ago that he would arrive today.

Good Golf

Golfers always will be interested in the dozens of supposedly precise methods involved in golfing and, while the degree of interest in golf thus made manifest indicates the desire for improvements in their own notion of golf, it is too much plastered with these things. The player becomes so involved in them, or can easily get so deeply into details, that he forgets to be his own natural self, which is really why the man who could take an axe and swing it into a tree with natural, rhythmic swings, is a hopeless mess with himself when he takes hold of his golf club.

After all, the golf swing is a natural, easy action, so instead of trying to be so exactly precise with any one thing try thinking of yourself as "looking like a golfer" then swing. Thinking of the action as it is never will even suggest to your mind any of the little details. Which gets to the golfing conclusion, and not a theoretical one either, that when you swing avoid thinking of any particular part or detail of the action. Give your attention to the ball, but even so, don't even think of "keeping your eye on it," for that would be thinking of that particularly. You see the ball without consciousness of seeing it; you swing without consciousness of doing any one thing.

TRY TO LOOK LIKE A GOLFER

FOX, BRUNOWICZ TO CLASH HERE

Mat Card Planned for Tuesday Night at Auditorium.

Just where John Paxos, George Tragos and other well-known Greek wrestlers are holding forth while Charley Fox continues to yell that while he lost to Sauer he shouldn't have and that he can still beat any Greek wrestler in the game, remains something of a mystery. After a week's effort, Promoter Henry Weber has been unable to find a Greek opponent for Charley Fox, the Cleveland tough egg, but has signed Frank Brunowicz, the Polish champion, to see what he can do with the well-known hard-boiled egg.

That will be the main event of the wrestling card scheduled for next Tuesday night at the auditorium when a double-header mat program will be staged. Promoter Weber has a new man in the one-hour, semi-windup match, Alex Linow, cousin of the well-known wrestler-actor Ivan Linow, will appear with Roughhouse Nelson as his opponent.

Ivan Linow, who plays hard-boiled parts in movies, had a brief part in the movie "Sunnyside Up," which is completing a return engagement here this week. Those who saw the picture will recall the big fellow whom Janet Gaynor had a hard time making smile in the feature scene during the street show entertainment.

Alex Linow, his cousin, is just as large and just as good a wrestler. He has been winning matches since he came to the south a few months ago.

The card, while it carries no names near the championship, means, however, that the wrestling fans will see four evenly matched men.

ARABOND SHIRTS

at PARKS-CHAMBERS

A New Type of Shirt

Perfect in Every Detail

Priced $2.85 Each

3 for $8

THE ARABOND is the first shirt of its kind. It is pre-shrunk, and it is guaranteed a permanent fit.

A specially woven high-class broadcloth, patterned with a woven stripe in a distinctly new manner.

Soft-hued greens, blues and tans: A fine Eastside shirt.

Made with collar attached, or with two separate starched collars.

Priced $2.85—3 for $8

PARKS-CHAMBERS

Inc.

37-39 Peachtree

18 COLLEGES

ENTER RELAYS; LISTS CLOSED

Over 100 More Athletes Expected Than Attended Last Year.

With entries for the April 11-12 staging of the eighth annual Southern Relay Carnival officially "closed," it is certain that the field for this season will surpass that of 1929 by at least 100 athletes.

Eighteen colleges—14 members of the conference—have filed their blanks. And from those 18 institutions will come 348 of the most talented young spike-wearers in the south.

Twenty-four prep and high schools are already on the books. The entries have not yet been inspected, but an estimate Thursday afternoon showed a total of approximately 400 names on those blanks.

"Class" is written boldly on each blank. There are champions and near-champions everywhere. Records, so rudely treated last year, seem to be in a bad way again. Florida is sending Newcome to continue his drive for glory over the hurdles and Boyette to step the quarter mile. DeColigny, entered in both hurdle races and in both jumps, is coming from Tulane.

Chattanooga's Moccasin will strive for the 440-yard mark in the person of Strong; Tennessee's hopes are banked on Clark in the 100-yard dash and Corbett in the hurdles; Morris will set out over the sticks for Southwestern Louisiana Institute; the Mississippi Aggies will pull for Fredrick in the pole vault; Arnold will try for honors in the same event wearing the Tarheel colors of the University of North Carolina; L. S. U. counts strongly on Brown to step the century in record time; Davidson is sending along a speedy hurdler in Whittle.

Still others will be on late entry blanks received by Coach Alexander at the Flats today and tomorrow, mailed late.

Colleges sending entries follow: Florida, Tulane, Duke, Southwest Louisiana Institute, Tennessee, Chattanooga, Mississippi A. and M., Vanderbilt, Auburn, Clemson, U. N. C., L. S. U., Alabama, Georgia Tech, Furman, Davidson, Georgia Tech. High school entries have been received from: U. S. S. Tech High, Russell High, Battle Ground academy, Butler County High school, Baylor, Morristown, Washington (Ga.) High, Toccoa High, Monroe High, Riverside, Gainesville High, McCallie, Richmond Academy, Charlotte (N. C.) Central High, Martin Institute, Darlington, Berry, G. M. A., Brewton-Parker, Mt. Vernon High, Commerce High, Alexander Graham Junior High, O'Keefe Junior High.

(Copyright, 1930, for The Constitution and the North American Newspaper Alliance.)

The Next Champion

After a delay of nearly two years the discarded heavyweight crown will be returned to somebody's brow in just a trifle over two months.

And for the first time since Fitzsimmons upset Jim Corbett at Carson City a delegate from the other side of the Atlantic has at least an even chance to carry said crown across the water.

Carpentier never had a chance against Dempsey and Heeney had just as slim a chance to beat Tunney. They were both rank outsiders. But it might be mentioned even this far ahead that Schmeling will be an even shot against Sharkey and there should be no decided choice up to the moment they square away.

"Jack Johnson and Jack O'Brien are to box three exhibition rounds in Boston."—News Item.

The winner will undoubtedly be sent against Carners. Or would he take a chance with Johnson?

A number of experts have voted the long iron into a cross wind as the hardest shot in golf. Riff Lardner still insists the hardest is the explosion shot off the tee.

All-Around Nominations.
Sig Spaeth's nomination for the best all-around college athlete of all time is Richard Harte, of Harvard.

On what grounds? All-America end, captain of the Harvard baseball team, point winner on the track team, member of the Davis cup tennis squad in addition to winning intercollegiate doubles with his partner—a consistent star and winner in four major sports. Those who have entries to shoot against him can relay the same along.

Phillies, Robins and Reds.
Cullen Cain, a keen-eyed rover who has been visiting the different National league camps along the Dixie and western highways, reports back with this tip—

"Watch the Robins, Phillies and Reds. They will make any team hustle at any time. They are not only much stronger than a year ago, but they are keyed up and keen."

Outside of the Cubs, who still carry the class, there are six teams in the older circuit who are well enough matched to make a dizzy pennant race, if some way can be found to keep the Cubs from bounding too far forward.

Mr. Cain says there is more than the usual optimism in almost every camp, not overlooking the fact that baseball is replete with optimism about this time every April.

Horton Smith is now facing his twenty thousandth mile in about a year. His slogan is to play golf and see the world. The trouble with the average golfer in this respect is that few can see much of the world from the bottom of a bunker.

Bobby Jones proved how suddenly golf can turn and bite even a champion when he played 31 consecutive holes in 10 under par and then played the next three in 6 over par.

Young Stribling has four battles booked in England and France, one against Phil Scott. There is a rumor now spreading that Lou Magnolia will not accompany him.

When interviewed by members of the press it is said that Mr. Magnolia practically confirmed this rumor.

After The Price Tag Is Off

THE

HENLEY

$29.50

You've lost your last chance to recognize the Henley as a twenty-nine fifty suit . . . after that it looks, feels, and wears like suits of much higher price should. . . We are proud of the Henley . . . it is our contribution to better dressing at lower prices. . . In the newest Spring Styles, fabrics and colors, the Henley represents an exceptional value at $29.50.

2 Trousers of course!

Special Elevator at Ellis Street Entrance to Men's Shop Second Floor

DAVISON-PAXON CO.
ATLANTA—affiliated with MACY'S New York

HIRSCH BROS.

74 Whitehall St.

$27.50
$32.50
$37.50
$42.50
$47.50
$52.50
$57.50

Spring

For Spring, fashion says the best colors are Browns, Grays, Blues; whether solid colors or fancy patterns she leaves to one's individual choice.

The model shown here with high, broad shoulders is the favored style for young men. You will notice the waistline fits rather close.

One of several smart styles you will admire in this range of hand-tailored suits, each with two pairs of trousers.

The price range is broad enough to encompass all pocketbooks.

Babe Ruth Hits Two Home Runs as Yankees Lose Game, 9 to 6

Charlotte Outhits Macks To Win, 4-2

Jimmy Foxx Gets Homer, Double, Single, While Championship Mates Are Idle.

WICHITA FALLS, Texas, April 3.—(AP)—Babe Ruth hit his fifth and sixth home runs of the spring barnstorming season, but the New York Yankees were defeated by Wichita Falls of the Texas league, 9 to 6, today.

The defeat broke the Yanks' winning streak that had extended to five straight.

Ruth was responsible for half the New York scoring, one of his home runs coming with a man on base. Dickey also made a circuit drive as a pinch hitter in the ninth inning rally.

New York.....000 001 002-8 8 3
Wichita Falls.....000 000 000-2 11 2
Sherid, McEvoy and Hargrave; White, Hill and Crouch.

A's Outhit.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 3.—(AP)—The Philadelphia Athletics were outhit by the Charlotte Sally league team today, but managed to win behind Jimmy Foxx's clubbing, 4 to 2, on a rain-drenched diamond.

Foxx slapped a hard double against the top of center field fence, a single, and a homer over the right field barrier. Charlotte made both its runs off Pitcher Ed Rommel in the seventh.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Athletics.....010 000 100-4 6 2
Charlotte.....000 000 000-2 11 2
Greer, Rommel and Perkins; Wray, Pety, Harris, Wells and Luebbe and Eastman and Watts.

White Sox Win.

FORT WORTH, Texas, April 3.—(AP)—The Chicago White Sox finished up their stay in Texas today with a 10-to-4 decision over Frank Snyder's Fort Worth Texas league team.

Dutch Henry, former New York Giant southpaw, worked six innings for the Sox and was batted hard but received good support.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Chicago (AL).....030 000 004-10 14 1
Fort Worth.....030 001 000-4 13 0
Henry, Walsh and Asbury; Hardaway, Gribble and Snyder.

Revision Helps Cubs.

LOS ANGELES, April 3.—(AP)—Another revision in the Chicago Cub infield lineup failed to slow down the National league champions today and they made it three straight over the Los Angeles Pacific Coast leaguers.

Lester Bell was back at third base, but Rogers Hornsby's heel was too painful to permit him to work and handy Clarence Bell played second. Riggs Stephenson continued his great hitting with a home run and a double.

Chicago (N. L.).....002 030 000-5 11 1
Los Angeles (P. C. L.).....011 000 003-4 12 1
Batteries: Root and Schulte; Barfoot and Shiff.

Timely Hitting.

MACON, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—Timey hitting off Johnny Cooney in the early innings gave the Brooklyn Dodgers a 7 to 4 victory over the Boston Braves today. All of the Dodger runs were made off Cooney before he retired in the fifth in favor of Siebold.

Bill Clark worked the first five innings for Brooklyn and was then relieved by Johnny Morrison. Babe Herman and Del Bissonette, of the Dodgers, were forced out of the game with Charley Hornsby.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Brooklyn.....030 000 100-4 10 1
Boston.....004 100 000-7 9 1
Cooney, Siebold and Spahr; Collins, W. Clark, Morrison and Lopez.

Bucs Nose Win.

HOUSTON, Texas, April 3.—(UN)—Pittsburgh nosed out the Houston Texas league club today, 8 to 7. Larry French went the route for the Pirates and gave up 10 hits, barely preventing Houston from tying the score in the ninth.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Pittsburgh.....013 103 000-8 12 2
Houston.....110 200 201-7 10 2
French and Boel; Lingrel and Morrow.

Colonels Win, 15-10.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 3.—(UN)—Louisville defeated the Boston Red Sox, 15 to 10, in a free-hitting game today. The big leaguers overcame the Colonels' early lead, but a six-run attack in the eighth decided the contest.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Boston.....000 024 000-10 12 2
Louisville.....080 211 005-15 11 2
Ruffing, Bayne and Berry; Williams, Brown, Green, DeBerry and Barnes, Thompson.

BARON HURLERS IMPRESS MILAN WITH SHOWING

Pate and Ludolph Particularly Pleasing in Performances.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 3.—(AP)—Work of Birmingham veteran hurlers, who have been earning big major league and Class AA teams in exhibition games, is proving a source of satisfaction to Manager Clyde Milan, of the Birmingham Parsons, today. The hurlers met the Washington Senators in exhibition games tomorrow and Saturday.

Barons Beat Reds.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 3.—(UN)—The Cincinnati Reds came to the end of a five-game winning streak today, losing to the Birmingham Southern association club, 3 to 1. The Reds made all of their runs off Silas Johnson, young right-handed pitcher.

Cincinnati (N).....001 000 000-1 7 3
Birmingham.....020 100 000-3 10 3
Johnson, Eckert, Ash and Gooch; Pate, Ludolph and Yarnan.

No Visiting Firemen.

MOBILE, Ala., April 3.—(AP)—The exhibition game between the Mobile Bears and a team composed of Moss-point (Miss.) firemen at the latter place, scheduled for today, was called off on account of wet grounds.

The Milwaukee American association team came in today from Florida and will start a three-game series tomorrow afternoon. Manager Jimmy Hamilton, of the Mobile club, will start Hughie Harmon, an Indian right-hand pitcher, against the Brewers, while Big Ed Strelecki will work for the visitors.

Another Licking.

NEW ORLEANS, April 3.—(AP)—The Pelicans' training today took the form of another trouncing, by the Cleveland Indians. The Tribe won, 6 to 4, through better hitting and tighter baseball.

New Orleans.....000 030 100-4 7 4
Cleveland.....020 040 000-6 14 1
Kleinhaus, Urisano and Anderson; Glatto, Harter and Franka; Harris.

Chicks Lose, 1 to 0.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 3.—(AP)—"General" Al Crowder held Memphis to four hits and the St. Louis Browns won today, 1 to 0, although they made only five hits, all singles off Walter Beck, former St. Louis Brown hurler. Crowder was the first Brownie pitcher to go 1½ full route this season.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
St. Louis.....001 000 000-1 8 0
Memphis.....000 000 000-0 4 0
Crowder and Ferrell; Beck and Berger, Campbell.

Lookouts Win.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 3.—(AP)—Falling on Richmond, a young southpaw, for five runs in the first three frames, the Chattanooga Lookouts defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 5 to 2, here today.

Lookouts were held hitless after the first three frames, Long Jim Weaver and Boelen, another youthful portside, joining the triched Orioles in the fourth. Orioles touched Art Decatur and Merle Settlement for nine hits, including three doubles and a triple but could get only two men across.

Stribblings Off For Continent

After spending Wednesday afternoon and night in the city "pa" and W. L. Stribbling left the city at noon Thursday for New York, where they will sail tonight on the Majestic for London.

Pa stated that four fights had been booked for Europe, including one with Phil Scott in the Royal Albert hall in London during the middle of next month.

Others included on the foreign bookings are Don Shortland, in London, April 25; Roberto Roberti, the Italian, in Paris on May 4; Pierre Charles, in Brussels, Belgium, on May 10.

7 Bouts Ended In Smithy Meet

Seven more bouts were completed Thursday afternoon in the first annual Tech High school boxing tournament. The bouts were held in the Henry Grady basketball court shortly after school closed.

Three knockouts and an extra round bout featured the Thursday afternoon program. Pat Knudsen, of the Bulldogs, knocked out Max Moran, substitute second baseman and football player, and Earl McKenzie, substitute pitcher, were the three other members of the faculty from engaging in extra-curricular activities.

Coach White will have two posts to fill tomorrow afternoon when the engine team takes the field against the veteran Tarheel combination. He will have to locate some one in left field and some one for right. Ben Hilburn, who has been competing with Catfish Smith for the center field assignment, will be in left field at the hole left vacant by Downes.

Coach White stated this afternoon. Either Jimmy Murdock, star twirler of the Bulldogs, or Tommy Paris, Georgia's peppy little quarterback of last fall, will appear in right field. If Murdock starts tomorrow's game on the mound, Paris will go to right field, otherwise, Murdock will be at right.

The regulars bested the pitching efforts of Lefty Carriers, Bulldog pitcher of other years and now a member of the Columbus club of the Southeastern league, and got no less than seven hits off the portside in a five-inning practice game against the Yannisians this afternoon. The regulars won the melee, 2 to 1, after a last-inning rally by the Yannisians ended when a fast double play, Caswell to Gorman to Rothstein, retired the side.

Wood Planning Try For Mark Saturday

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., April 3.—(AP)—Attempt of Gar Wood, sleek fox of the water courses, to better his own world's record for speed boats of 33.123 miles an hour, tentatively has been set for some time Saturday, it was learned today.

With his Miss America VIII back in mechanical trim after minor disabilities that occurred prior to his scheduled run last week, Wood is ready to make his attempt to set a 100-mile-an-hour mark for the fleet craft.

The trial will be made over a marked mile course in Biscayne bay, not far from the Indian creek course, where he set the present world's record about a year ago. The racing pilot was in Miami today, following his return by airplane from Cuba yesterday, but he was expected to return in time to complete arrangements for the test.

In case the trial is held Saturday, official A. A. A. timers will be on hand to record the speed of Miss America VIII as she skids across the waves of Biscayne bay. Timers and A. A. A. officials came here last week during the annual Miami Beach regatta to officiate at Wood's scheduled run, but the attempt was postponed when a cylinder head in the vessel was cracked.

TIGERS LOSE TO CRACKERS

Continued from First Sport Page.

to the plate in time to get him. Jim Battle walked and Erskine Thompson, who had relieved Yelle, banged a single that gave Burris a trip home with the second run.

Detroit had a run to score on a sacrifice fly in the seventh which left Wierman with one run to work on. And how he worked.

OLD COLLEGE TRY.

The chunky little Dutchman, on whom waivers have been asked, was pitching as if he were in a great series with a great record at stake.

And he contributed one bit of heroics that was great to see. It smacked of plenty of the old raw courage.

After getting the Tigers out in order in the eighth, Funk opened the ninth with a drive that was far to Wierman's left. He dived with his meat hand stuck out. The ball struck it with a smack that could be heard in the stands. His impetus was such that he fell forward, smack on his lobby, but he scrambled up and threw the man out. The next two were easy.

MADE THEM COUNT.

The Crackers made their base hits count in pleasing fashion. They got four hits and five runs. One man who walked and another who was hit by a pitched ball, were scored by subsequent hits.

The Tigers will play here today and again on Saturday. Today's game will begin at 3 o'clock. Johnny Dobbs indicated that Red Oldham and Joe Keifer would work the game from the box today for the Crackers.

Earl Whitball, former star left-hander with Birmingham, will be one of Detroit's pitchers with Herring as another probable choice.

Street Is Satisfied With Slab Staff

BRADENTON, Fla., April 3.—(AP) Satisfied with his pitching staff, which had been regarded as the weakest department of his team, Manager Gabby Street of the St. Louis Cardinals, today devoted his attention to his batters.

The Cardinals had no game today, the contest with the Rochester club at St. Petersburg having been canceled. The remainder of the games with Rochester will be played here because Street did not like the sandy playing field at St. Petersburg.

Penn. State College Break Relations

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—(UN) Athletic relations between the University of Pennsylvania and Penn State college will be severed after the close of the present season's schedules, it was learned today.

Authorities at the two schools denied the death of Oliver Horne, Pennsylvania boxer, who was fatally injured in a bout with William Strubbe of Penn State, influenced the break.

FACULTY AT BAT AS BULLDOGS FACE TARHEELS

One Regular, Three Georgia Subs on List of Ineligibles.

By Buck Anderson.

ATHENS, Ga., April 3.—The Georgia baseball team will open its conference schedule here tomorrow against the University of North Carolina with one regular player and three subs definitely out of the running because of ineligibility.

Austie Downes, diminutive star football player, who was in left field in the Mercer series and who Coach Bill White counted on to fill that post tomorrow, was the lone regular who went on the inactive list because of deficiency in his studies. Red Leathers, substitute right fielder and star line-man on the football team; Tommy Moran, substitute second baseman and football player, and Earl McKenzie, substitute pitcher, were the three other members of the faculty from engaging in extra-curricular activities.

Coach White will have two posts to fill tomorrow afternoon when the engine team takes the field against the veteran Tarheel combination. He will have to locate some one in left field and some one for right. Ben Hilburn, who has been competing with Catfish Smith for the center field assignment, will be in left field at the hole left vacant by Downes.

Coach White stated this afternoon. Either Jimmy Murdock, star twirler of the Bulldogs, or Tommy Paris, Georgia's peppy little quarterback of last fall, will appear in right field. If Murdock starts tomorrow's game on the mound, Paris will go to right field, otherwise, Murdock will be at right.

The regulars bested the pitching efforts of Lefty Carriers, Bulldog pitcher of other years and now a member of the Columbus club of the Southeastern league, and got no less than seven hits off the portside in a five-inning practice game against the Yannisians this afternoon. The regulars won the melee, 2 to 1, after a last-inning rally by the Yannisians ended when a fast double play, Caswell to Gorman to Rothstein, retired the side.

Phi Delta Thetas Win Court Crown

Battling with every means at their disposal, the Phi Delta Theta courtmen won the Georgia Tech interfraternity basketball title from the S. A. E. quintet at the Tech gym Thursday night by a 19-15 score.

It was the second "upset" in which the Phi Deltas have participated. Tuesday they defeated the Delta Sigma Phi, winners of the 1929 tourney. Thursday it was the S. A. E.'s, runners-up last year, and favorites to win this season.

Fort McPherson Sets Polo Game Sunday

Fort McPherson and Fourth Corps Area Headquarters army polo teams will inaugurate the game for the coming season at Fort McPherson Sunday at 3:30 o'clock.

Sideboards and goal posts are being replaced and repaired for this event and benches are being placed along the length of the field for the opening event. The length of the field is being increased to 300 yards, which will provide a faster game and more parking space for the growing crowd.

For those motorists who last Sunday circled the parade ground inquiring if there was to be a polo game, and for thousands of others in Atlanta and its vicinity who have come to look forward to polo at Fort McPherson as a Sunday afternoon diversion, the game promises to be a closely contested event. Last year the same two teams met on four occasions, each team winning twice. Some changes have occurred in both outfits, with probable improvement in each case.

Fort McPherson will select its lineup from Major Gus Tolson, Captains Albert G. Wing, James Donahue and Tom Ramsey and Lieutenants Thomas S. Timberman and Frank J. Spettel. All reside at Fort McPherson except Major Gus Tolson, who lives in the city, and Lieutenant Frank Spettel, who reported for duty at the Georgia Military Academy last fall. Spettel carries a one-goal handicap and is expected to add considerable strength to the Fort McPherson squad this season.

Fourth Corps Area players will be selected from among Major General Frank R. McCoy, corps area commander; Major Gus Frank, Major Roland Gaudier, First Lieutenant William S. Biddle and Oscar Shubert, all on duty at corps area headquarters. General McCoy and his aide, Lieutenant Biddle, are new arrivals since last season.

Delker to Redwings.

Eddie Delker, Cardinal infielder, will be with the Rochester club this year. Joel Hunt was released to Houston.

Strawberries.

Strawberry is a baseball player. Doesn't always mean fruit. A skinned spot on the leg or hip from sliding is so named.

The FLORSHEIM Shoe

FLORSHEIM SHOES answer every requirement of the man who cares. They offer distinction and superiority of style that raises them above all others. They give you more in every respect than their moderate cost would indicate. Why don't you buy Florsheims this time?

FLORSHEIM SHOE STORE
77-A Peachtree Street

FOOT SAVERS

If your feet could talk—they'd heave a sigh of contentment the minute they slip into a pair of FOOT SAVERS. For FOOT SAVERS aren't merely comfortable—they're scientifically right, wonderfully smart in appearance and priced at only $12 to 14.

IT'S THE ONLY PART OF YOUR BODY THAT MUST BE FITTED PERFECTLY

Eiseman's
56-58 Peachtree St. THRU TO BROAD

Hats for Spring

Snaps Welts Homburgs

$5.00
$6.50

Stetsons
$8.50 -- $10.00

YOU must wear the narrower brim if you want to be in style. And if your new Suit is of a blue-grey cast you'll find the color tone in our Hat selection in perfect harmony. Of course, there are greys, fans and browns in all the wanted shapes. With quality certain these Hats at our prices offer you the utmost in value.

Eiseman's
56-58 PEACHTREE ST. THRU TO BROAD

AT TRIVERS- BEST VALUES IN TOWN

$22.50

1 and 2 PANTS SUITS
A new and greater clothes value at $22.50. Again proving TRIVERS Value-Giving Leadership.

Without question the best bet in the city today. Beautiful wools, hand tailoring and metropolitan styling—finished as high-class clothes should be.

$35

1 and 2 PANTS SUITS

The critical dresser finds his choice in TRIVERS 1930 Feature Line at $35. Specially selected imported and domestic wools—hand-tailored throughout in a manner to equal $50 and $55 clothes—all that's new and smart.

20 Stores in the South

See Our Window Displays

Produced by our master tailors—Direct from our own modern shops.

TRIVERS

35 Peachtree St.

Smithies, Prep League Leaders, Meet Russell Hi This Afternoon

EIGHT TEAMS TO SEE ACTION; DECATUR RESTS

Fourth Round of Play Reached; Three Tilts at Piedmont.

Prep Standing

TEAMS—	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Tech High	2	0	1.000
G. M. A.	1	0	1.000
Marist	1	1	.667
Commercial	1	1	.500
Decatur	1	1	.500
Boys' High	1	1	.500
Russell	1	2	.333
U. S. B.	2	2	.500
Fulton	0	2	.000

By Roy White.

Eight city prep teams will swing into action this afternoon in the fourth round of the season. Tech High, with two victories and no defeats, will meet Russell High. Commercial will face Boys' High. Fulton will play Marist and G. M. A. will play Marist at Marist.

Decatur High drew a bye in the league for today and will journey to Marietta to play Marietta High this afternoon.

Prep baseball fans of the city will have the opportunity to see three games at one park this afternoon. Tech High, Boys' High and University school will be "at home" on the three diamonds at Piedmont park. Marist will play G. M. A. on the Marist campus.

Tech High came through unexpectedly Tuesday with a well-earned victory over Boys' High, due mainly to the brilliant pitching of John Chambers. He let the Hurricane down with only one hit and one run, while his mates collected enough safeties to score 10 runs. The Smithies came back Wednesday afternoon with another victory over Fulton, due again to brilliant pitching on the part of Jack English. Fulton secured only two safeties.

Fulton lost its first game of the season to Marist. Wray, Fulton's ace hurler, was knocked from the mound in the early stages of the game and Norton relieved him and hurled a game. The Fulton fielders were off form Wednesday and committed 11 errors.

University lost its first two games, but came back strong and defeated Decatur Tuesday in a wild slugfest affair.

Reuben Tucker, Bluebird southpaw, found himself in the Tuesday game and held Decatur well in check, despite fairly fielding on the part of his mates.

After a good start with victories over the highly touted University and Fulton teams, Marist fell before the brilliant pitching of Cook, of Commercial, Tuesday. It was another of the upsets in the league.

Marist and G. M. A. should furnish the best game of today's schedule. G. M. A. won its only game of the season thus far Tuesday over Russell, despite the fact that the Cadets secured only three safe hits. Clark, one of the league's veteran hurlers, will probably be Coach Burbage's selection for this afternoon.

Tech Net Team To Meet 'Gators

Stepping away from home for its first test of the year, Georgia Tech's tennis squad will leave Atlanta tonight at 9 o'clock to play Florida at Gainesville.

Captain Sid Goldin, Red Williamson and Malcolm Reynolds, all veterans of the 1929 team, have been reunited to form a strong nucleus for the present club. Pat Napier and Jack Cones are still battling for the fourth place on the team, and fought to a draw in Thursday's practice session. A final match for the privilege of making the trip will be held this afternoon.

The Jackets, with three veterans and two good recruits, will look for a successful season in the campaign which starts today.

Florida, with the advantage of a longer training period, will stretch the talents of the Engineers to the limit.

Matched Irons and Woods

The Irons from $30 to $90 a Set

Matched Woods from $15 to $60 a Set.

Special Set for Beginners

Four Clubs $7.85 With Bag

The Golfer's Togs

Spring Wool Knickers, $5 up.

Light-weight Sweaters, small designs and solid colors, $5 to $12.

Golf Sweaters and Hose to match, $10 to $17.50.

Golf Hose from $1 to $8.50.

Moccasin-type Golf Ox-fords; black and white, tan and white, brown and tan—$10.

Golf Bags, $3 to $35.

PARKS-CHAMBERS INC.

37-39 Peachtree

Bowling

In the weekly matches of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Bowling league, the Lucky Strike team won the contest Thursday night with a team score of 1,437 pins. In the play-off for the individual trophy, held every week, W. L. Van Dyke won with scores of 143-108-100, making a total of 351 for three games. Mrs. M. M. Benton with 75-81-80—235, won the women's trophy. She had a handicap of 17 pins.

PLAYERS	DIV.	TRAFFIC	1	2	3
Armstrong	1	132	105
Reininger	1	107	124	117
Farmer	1	127	132	142
Eberhart	1	117	110	109
Norris	1	109	112	130
Totals		701	705	653

PLAYERS	LOCAL	TRAFFIC	1	2	3
Deale	1	141	130	124
Hall	1	121	180	139
Bateman	1	139	180	157
Davenport	1	110	139	201
Wilmarth	1	125	129	156
Totals		748	765	828

PLAYERS	LINES	1	2	3
Butler	1	121	140	147
Milligan	1	122	140	135
Furrell	1	133	130	139
Scott	1	127	166	189
Holmes	1	148	171	127
Totals		748	724	746

PLAYERS	MAINTENANCE	1	2	3
McDonald	1	172	150	149
Stevens	1	147	132	139
Terrell	1	157	138	147
Yandiver	1	127	134	139
McGee	1	129	126	218
Fair	1	127	134	139
Totals		611	740	832

PLAYERS	EQUIPMENT	1	2	3
Nelson	1	133	154	165
Taylor	1	121	180	139
Minnick	1	127	132	171
Steele	1	124	112	139
Apperson	1	107
Murray	1	114
Hendricks	1	124
Totals		789	723	800

PLAYERS	ACCOUNTING-SUPPLY	1	2	3
Eubank	1	149	130	123
Thornton	1	170	171	146
Pierce	1	121	149	133
Hubbard	1	138	161	162
Totals		739	839	811

PLAYERS	COMMERCIAL-AUDITOR	1	2	3
Parrell	1	130	160	147
Ellis	1	110	151	191
Smith	1	123	137	137
Kitchen	1	129	130	137
Morris	1	159	124	117
Totals		712	693	732

PLAYERS	JUNIOR CHAMBER COMMERCE	1	2	3
Parrell	1	130	160	147
Ellis	1	110	151	191
Smith	1	123	137	137
Kitchen	1	129	130	137
Morris	1	159	124	117
Totals		712	693	732

PLAYERS	LADIES TEAM—DEMOCRATS	1	2	3
Mrs. Benton	1	75	81	80
Mrs. Walraven	1	89	72	42
Mrs. Fowler	1	68	60	0
Mrs. O'Brien	1	68	60	0
Mrs. Camp	1	73	46	68
Mrs. Elder	1	48	71	58
Totals		461	428	421

PLAYERS	JUNIOR CHAMBER COMMERCE	1	2	3
Parrell	1	130	160	147
Ellis	1	110	151	191
Smith	1	123	137	137
Kitchen	1	129	130	137
Morris	1	159	124	117
Totals		712	693	732

PLAYERS	LADIES TEAM—REPUBLICANS	1	2	3
Mrs. Fincher	1	74	72	89
Mrs. Mangum	1	60	51	69
Mrs. Berry	1	46	32	0
Mrs. Ross	1	79	67	69
Mrs. Van Dyke	1	68	48	48
Totals		428	428	450

PLAYERS	S. F. A.—TEAM 1	1	2	3
Dickerson	1	103	100	100
Dawson	1	81	71	81
Stuckey	1	89	84	87
Person	1	74	82	81
McCullough	1	85	86	80
Totals		444	423	451

PLAYERS	TEAM NO. 2	1	2	3
Anderson	1	83	102	97
Penning	1	80	90	74
Pearson	1	89	91	89
Mohr	1	90	81	100
Dumay	1	80	86	80
Totals		422	450	436

PLAYERS	SPECIAL MATCH	1	2	3
Pendleton	1	95	90	90
Trutt	1	90	78	90
Morrison	1	78	82	100
Veach	1	78	81	79
O'Toole	1	83	103	106
Totals		425	450	475

PLAYERS	SOV. STATES LIFE INS. CO.	1	2	3
Antin	1	111	101	81
Camp	1	79	82	100
Kavanaugh	1	87	77
Phillips	1	89	82	107
McMekin	1	90	87	84
Haynes	1	115	88
Totals		455	480	480

PLAYERS	Big Jim De Jernett	1	2	3
Washington	1	111	101	81
Camp	1	79	82	100
Kavanaugh	1	87	77
Phillips	1	89	82	107
McMekin	1	90	87	84
Haynes	1	115	88
Totals		455	480	480

PLAYERS	Big Jim De Jernett	1	2	3
Washington	1	111	101	81
Camp	1	79	82	100
Kavanaugh	1	87	77
Phillips	1	89	82	107
McMekin	1	90	87	84
Haynes	1	115	88
Totals		455	480	480

PLAYERS	Big Jim De Jernett	1	2	3
Washington	1	111	101	81
Camp	1	79	82	100
Kavanaugh	1	87	77
Phillips	1	89	82	107
McMekin	1	90	87	84
Haynes	1	115	88
Totals		455	480	480

PLAYERS	Big Jim De Jernett	1	2	3
Washington	1	111	101	81
Camp	1	79	82	100
Kavanaugh	1	87	77
Phillips	1	89	82	107
McMekin	1	90	87	84
Haynes	1	115	88
Totals		455	480	480

PLAYERS	Big Jim De Jernett	1	2	3
Washington	1	111	101	81
Camp	1	79	82	100
Kavanaugh	1	87	77
Phillips	1	89	82	107
McMekin	1	90	87	84
Haynes	1	115	88
Totals		455	480	480

PLAYERS	Big Jim De Jernett	1	2	3
Washington	1	111	101	81
Camp	1	79	82	100
Kavanaugh	1	87	77
Phillips	1	89	82	107
McMekin	1	90	87	84
Haynes	1	115	88
Totals		455	480	480

FRENCH PROPOSE RULE CHANGES FOR OLYMPICS

Action Would Handicap U. S. in 1932 Events at Los Angeles.

By Frank Getty.

NEW YORK, April 3.—(UP)—The United States will be handicapped in 1932 if proposals by France for changes in the rules governing these quadrennial athletic contests are adopted by the Olympic Congress which meets in Berlin next month.

The latest suggestion made by the French Olympic committee is to limit each nation to one entry in each track and field event.

While it is quite possible that the French suggestion arises from a desire to limit the expense of Olympic competition, there is a sporting touch to the proposal in that it undoubtedly would favor the smaller nations.

Under the present rules, each nation is allowed four entries in each event. The athletic supremacy of the United States, maintained through successive Olympiads, has been established on that basis. No official point score is kept at the Olympic games, but the lion's share of the first, second and third prizes awarded for individual performances invariably came to this country.

At Amsterdam, the twenty athletic events for individuals, the United States won six firsts, six seconds and seven thirds, as well as a tie for third in the 200 meters dash in which Jackson V. Scholz was defeated with Helmut Korig of Germany.

Athletes from the British Empire, competing, however, for England or the respective dependencies separately, won six first places in track and field. Finland also took six firsts. Haiti and France one each.

U. S. HANDICAPPED.

With but one representative of a nation permitted in each event, the odds on an American sweep of Olympic honors would be decidedly lessened.

The Olympic Congress also will be urged to abolish Olympic track and field events for women, inaugurated in 1928 at Amsterdam, four women's events for individuals and a relay race were on the 1928 program. Of these, the first places were divided by the "Unit" States, Germany, Poland and Canada (2).

It was obvious to every one that the 800 meters run for women, in which several contestants collapsed in distress, had no place on the program, but the other events were picturesque additions to the Olympic scene.

WOMEN ATHLETES.

Although a group of American women interested in athletics for their sex recently went on record as opposed to participation by women in the Olympic games, the American vote at Berlin will be cast in favor of retaining a number of women's events.

And when it comes to the proposal to limit each nation to one entry in each event, there will be a storm of opposition, led by the United States spokesmen. The proposal might be adopted, however, and it might not be such a bad thing, at that. Continuous victory brought about by weight of numbers is not altogether satisfactory to real sportsmen.

BRASELTON WINS TILT

Continued from Second Sport Page.

of the annual Stagg basketball tournament here today when Savannah High school defeated Morgan Park High, Chicago, 35 to 27. Braselton is the other Georgia team to enter the quarter-final round slated for tomorrow.

Braselton beat Kavanagh, Ky., 29 to 26, this morning.

Savannah outpointed and outscored Morgan Park, runners-up to the Chicago city title, and finished the stiff battle when three substitutes broke a nip and tuck deadlock with a rush of baskets.

Rankin, center and high point man of the losers, opened the struggle with a quick basket. With both teams racing up and down the court, Jackson, high point man for the southern entry, scored with a sensational side shot and three free throws.

Close re-fighting resulted in a total of 25 personal fouls, Savannah scoring on 11 of their 12 chances.

Long baskets by Jackson and Johnston interspersed with two Chicago push-ups gave Savannah a 9 to 8 lead.

At the quarter, Morgan Park forged ahead on shots by Harvey and Keyhart but with Jackson continuing to pepper the hoop for three more scores, Savannah regained its one-point lead, 17 to 16, at half time.

Two baskets by Rankin at the start of the second session were offset with ringers by Shore and Furrille, of Georgia. Furrille then added two more of his five free throws and Savannah, led 24 to 21, by their center, was taken out of the game on fouls. Eisenmann, who replaced him, promptly sank a long toss, Morgan Park spurred on long baskets by Harvey and Keyhart and the count was knotted at 26-all when Jackson, Savannah star, was removed.

Eisenmann then placed a long bucket and a free throw and from then on the game belonged to Savannah. Shore was also removed, but Furrille's two short shots ran the score up to Savannah, 35 to 27, as the gun ended the game.

Quarter Finals Reached at Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 3.—(UP)—Fighting teams from the south, middle west and west arose to emergencies today and stopped the march of three teams favored to travel far in the University of Chicago's annual national prep basketball championship tournament.

They were Braselton, Ga., a team picked from a student body of 27 boys, which edged out Kavanagh of Lawrenceburg, Ky., 29 to 26, in a fast overtime battle; St. Johns Military Academy, of Delaford, Wis., which scored the biggest upset of the tournament to date by eliminating the strong Denton, Texas, Broncoos, 22 to 21, and the Wyoming state champion, Wheatland, victorious over the big red team from Durham, N. C., 18 to 13.

Of the three teams, the Wyoming champions looked the best. Their defense was excellent and their slow-breaking offense wilted the big Dixie stars.

Emhke Helps.

Mahaffey, the big pitching recruit of the A's, has great speed. Howard Emhke

The Emperor of America

by Sax Rohmer

TWENTY-FIRST INSTALLMENT

Followed some moments of silence. Then the instrument repeated its call: "Tick—Tick—Tucker—Tucker—Tucker—Tucker—"

At last the answer came:

"Your report."

"Roscoe allotted room facing Sound Stop Dogs have attacked perhaps killed perhaps killed someone in grounds Stop Search party setting out Stop Awaiting orders in room. Report ends."

"Proceed Roscoe's room," ticked the order. "Lift pillow Return at once and if silk extends through window Stop Test if tight or loose Stop Hold the connection Move."

The silence which followed was broken by a sound of running footsteps. They ceased somewhere on the edge of the hollow. There was a muffled colloquy first, then a figure appeared beside the car.

"Well!" said a musical voice—that of the man at the wheel.

Report of Sector Captain 3A3 covering Page Sutton home. Group Master 4, Sector 3A3, inside the Sutton home, was attacked by the dogs while adjusting connection. He used his pistol. The house is alarmed. Group master believed to be dead.

"Had he made the connection?"

"According to outside report—yes."

"Stand by for instructions."

The figure disappeared into darkness. The instrument in the car began to tick out a message:

"Zone 2A. Roscoe is there Stop Silk stretched tightly Stop Cannot stay in room longer. Report ends."

"Stand by from midnight. Disconnected."

Silence fell in the hollow where the money darkened car lay hidden.

"You're taking risks!" growled Ned Regan.

"I'm used to 'em," was Roscoe's reply. "We're all in dinner kit and I'm wearing a soft-brimmed hat."

Remote, behind the house, uprose the mingled protest of the dogs, kennelled by the daring cunning of Bach. He had rejoined them at this very moment. His left hand was swathed in bandages.

"All right, Doctor!" he said, catching Stopford's reproachful glance. "Those dogs are clean enough. I ought to know. I look after them."

"I've washed the wound," Dr. Cross interrupted. "I happened to be first in on the job, Stopford. It's superficial, and I used plenty of iodine."

"I'd like it cauterized."

"I take you on that, Doctor!" said Bach. "But let's get our job done first."

He was as usual, Ned Regan glanced back at him.

"You'll go far, my sport," said he, "if you live."

Already he had the bolts drawn, and the party of seven—for Wilson, the chauffeur, had reinforced the group—poured out on to the lawn. Molly O'Hay watched from the balcony. Particularly, she was watching Roscoe.

"Spread out!" said he, "there may be shooting."

They fanned out, then converged on the shrubbery. The night was still as a desert. Once under cover they came together by the spot where the victim of the dogs lay. Stopford actually found him first.

A ray from a torch told the truth. "Armitage!" whispered Page Sutton.

"Lights out!" snapped Roscoe.

The search party became plunged in darkness.

"Wilson"—Roscoe had automatically taken command—grabbed his head.

"I'll help," said Ned Regan. "Somebody hoof along and make sure the women aren't around."

"Better still!"—the hoarse voice was that of Dr. Cross—"open the summer ballroom, Sutton. If you haven't the key, run and get it. We can leave him there. It's unpleasant taking him into the house."

Five minutes later, a ghastly thing lay under a sheet in the long, low outbuilding, a wing of the Page Sutton home. Ignominious, Roscoe searched the body. He seemed to be dissatisfied.

"All in again," he directed tersely. "Then loose the dogs. Can you risk it, Bach?"

"Sure," was the confident reply.

"After which," said Stopford, looking at Dr. Cross, "I should like to take a peep at the wound, Bach."

Back in the house, Roscoe headed straight for the room which had been occupied by the dead man. Among Armitage's scanty possessions he found what he had looked for. Stopford was at his elbow. Roscoe held up his find.

"We know what the badge of a 'Zone officer' looks like," he said. "I take it is the badge of a lesser official. But we're sure, now, that Armitage belonged to the Zones."

The thing was attached to a safety clasp, by which it might be fixed to the owner's garment. It was enamel, colored blue and white; three parts blue and one part white. Below was a tiny "G" executed in small diamonds.

"Not such a lavish display of brilliants as in the badge of the zone officer, you'll note," Roscoe commented. "This chap must have corresponded to something like a sergeant-major."

"He earned his pay," said Stopford solemnly.

"I wonder if he did?"

"We shall know later," was the cryptic reply.

"What d'you mean?"

"Shouldn't headquarters be informed?" Stopford asked.

"Is headquarters?" Roscoe answered. "Is headquarters?"

"There was a certain correspondence between the house-party and the zone officer, as you say. The dogs, newly released, were making the night hideous with their howling."

There was a certain reluctance to break up the party. Nobody expected to sleep well. But when, at last, all the indications pointed to dispersal, Madame O'Hay, who had been chatting with Stopford, grew suddenly serious. Her charming face quite altered. It was as though the weight of troubled years had suddenly been imposed upon her. Glancing aside to where Roscoe was seated:

"I think we must all soon go to bed," she said. Dr. Stopford thought that her accent was exquisite. "I want to ask you a queer thing. I don't know how to say it."

"Oh, persevere," he urged. "I'm astonishingly broadminded."

"I am serious," she replied. "I am in the room that should have been the room of your friend—Commander Roscoe."

"Don't worry. He's quite happy."

"You do not understand." Now he was watching her closely. "The thing I have to ask is this—but you must protect me if he says 'Who told you?'"

"Do not let him sleep in that room tonight!"

Before Stopford had recovered from the surprise occasioned by this remark, madame had bidden everybody goodnight, had made her apologies charmingly, explaining how the car accident had shaken her, and had started up the stairs.

As she crossed the carpet-draped gallery, she glanced back, raised her finger to her lips, and pointed to Roscoe.

Out in the grounds, the wolf dogs had started howling again.

It was an hour later.

"The dogs are quiet enough now," said Stopford.

"Yes," Roscoe replied. "If I am right in my theory, the thing that is going to happen is above the dogs."

"Above the dogs?" Stopford echoed. "Don't follow. And what d'you mean when you say 'the thing that's going to happen?'"

"The death of Armitage perhaps stalled 'em."

"Poor fellow! D'you mean you've got a notion what he was up to out there?"

"Yes. Speak softly. Regan and Bach are covering this room, but I don't know who else may be doing the same."

Stopford moved nearer to the open window, but:

(Continued Tomorrow.)

(Copyright, 1936, for The Constitution.)

THE GUMPS—CALL OUT THE RESERVES

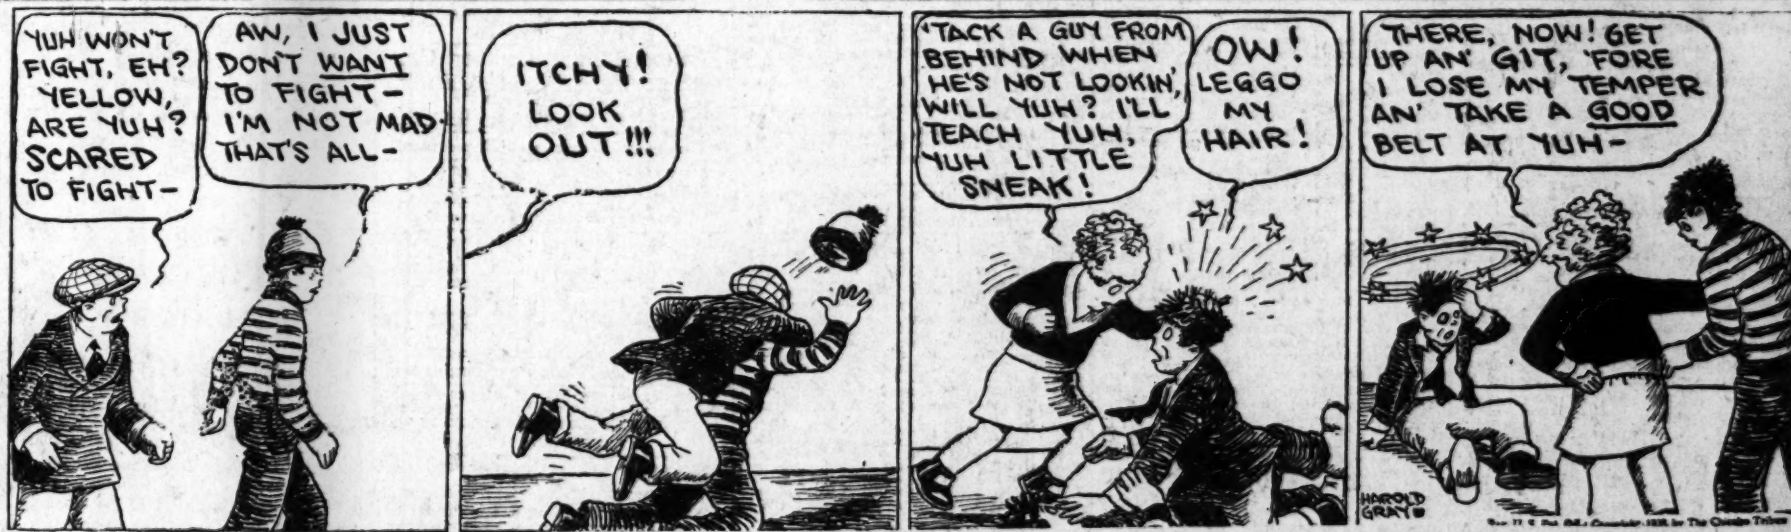

MOON MULLINS—THE POOR FISH

Little Orphan Annie—The Avenging Angel

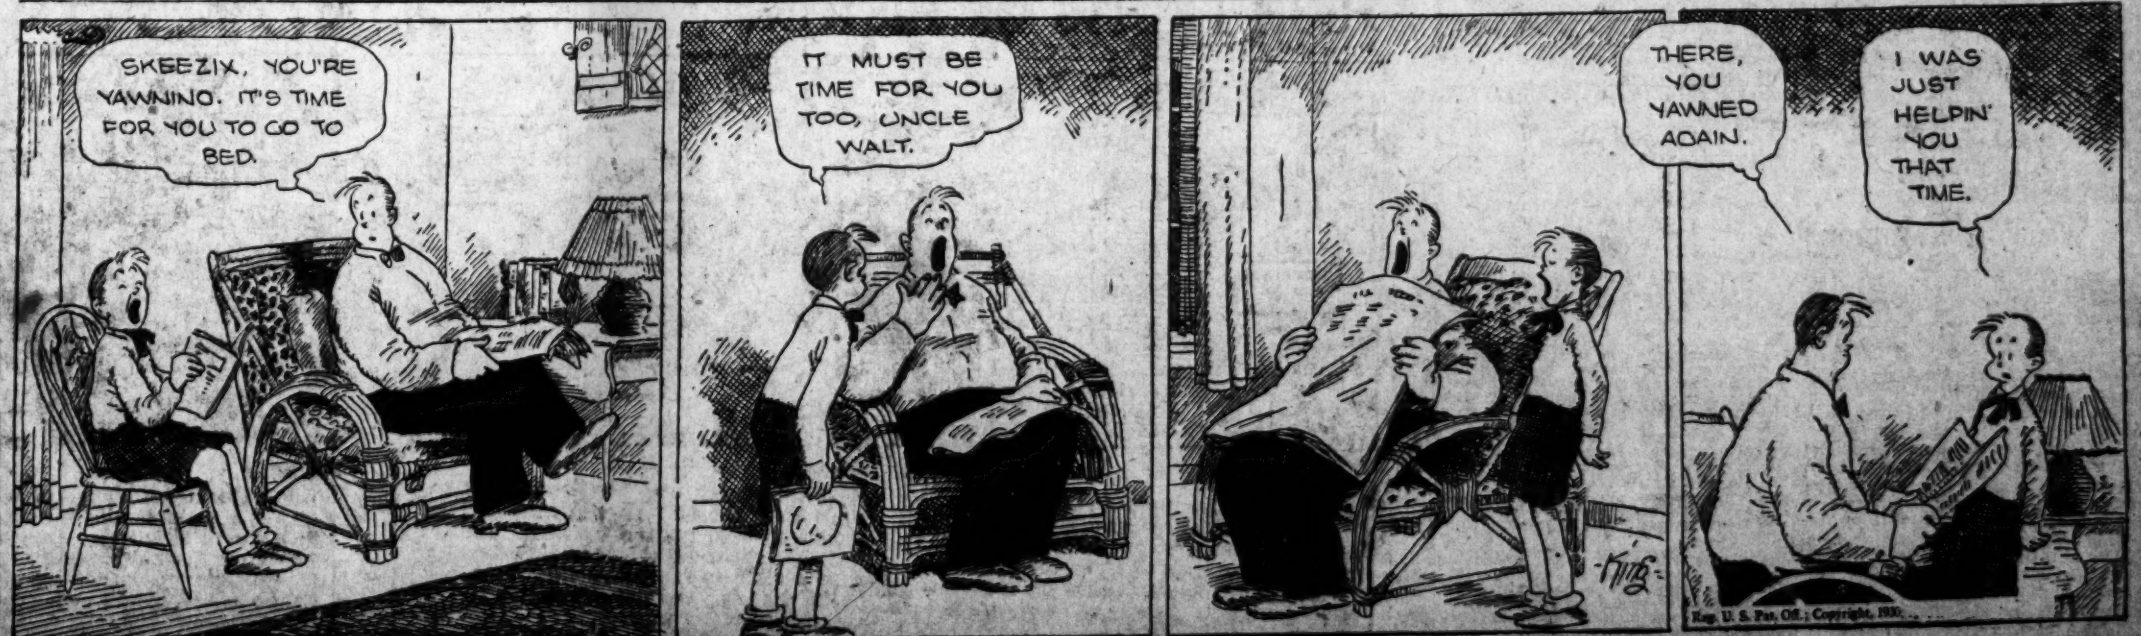

Aunt Het

Winnie Winkle, the Breadwinner: Marty Has Auto Intoxication

GASOLINE ALLEY—HO, HUM!

Today's Cross-Word Puzzle

ACROSS	50 Insect.	Answer to Yesterday's Puzzle.
1 Composition ac-	61 Lefty mountain	CALABASH
2 commodated to	62 Move swiftly,	BATTER
3 action.	63 Turn to the	ARMCHAIR
4 Greek letter.	64 Russian plain.	UNWISE
5 Anthropoid ape.	65 Buggy land.	UNSAVED
6 Radiant.	66 Fills with clay.	SIENNA
7 Shaver.	67 Jets.	LOT
8 Inclosure.	68 Disregard.	LET
9 Beam.	69 Mediterranean	SLEEP
10 Legal grant.	70 Tree.	AD CHIEF
11 Extant.	71 Suspicious:	ROBOT
12 Murmuring	72 slang.	TOAST
13 sound.	73 DOWN	LOBB
14 Is able to	74 Wood nymph.	TABLED
15 command.	75 Furnish with	NOTE
16 Tosses.	76 New weapons.	LOVE
17 Saddle pad.	77 Arabic demon.	CIM
18 Pronoun.	78 Mire.	TRO
19 Ancestral line.	79 Moradin dye.	XAX
20 Impress deeply.	80 Rip.	UNDETAKE
21 In.	81 Musical note of	CEASE
22 Innumerable.	82 Musical note of	BLADE
23 External coat of	83 Musical note of	BUSKS
24 fruits.	84 Musical note of	SINCE
25 Toss heavily.	85 Musical note of	WEB
26 Pertaining to	86 Musical note of	DOWN
27 feeling.	87 Musical note of	DIP
28 French coin.	88 Musical note of	BOB
29 Plane surface.	89 Musical note of	BOB
30 Long tirade.	90 Musical note of	BOB
31 Man's nickname.	91 Musical note of	BOB
32 Souvenir.	92 Musical note of	BOB
33 Flexible fabric.	93 Musical note of	BOB
34 of metal rings.	94 Musical note of	BOB
35 To happen.	95 Musical note of	BOB
36 Used diligently.	96 Musical note of	BOB
37 Almost sirup.	97 Musical note of	BOB

WORKERS HOPE TO STOP WELL TODAY

3,000-Pound Cap Will Be Placed Over Mouth of Gusher.

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 3.—(U.N.)—A picked crew of 50 men was ready tonight to make a final attempt to cap the giant Mary Sudik oil well, which has run wild for eight days. Final preparations were made and a skeleton crew was left on the field at dusk to watch the geyser, which is spouting oil and gas over hundreds of acres of land with a roar heard for more than ten miles.

The crew will be bossed by "Pat" Sutton, veteran superintendent of the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil Company, owners of the well, who deserted a comfortable office suite to stand shoulder-to-shoulder with the men in the field. Late today a 3,000-pound cap, known to oil men as a "breadbox," from Lubbock, Tex., was being swung, were made despite a high wind which at times threatened to blow men off the slippery steel girders. The oil spout is shooting 100 feet above the top of the well.

At the foot of the column labored another crew, wearing "tin hats," similar to trench helmets, rubber suits and with their faces bandaged. The majority of them were deaf temporarily despite the cotton pads worn over their ears. Many were partially blind, because their goggles leaked oil and gas fumes.

Tabulations tonight showed the well produced between 10,000 and 20,000 barrels of oil today.

The guards were instructed to permit none on the field except authorized workers and even they must not carry matches or cigarette lighters with them.

Oil men were not the only ones to suffer serious loss from the spray of oil and gas. Farmers near the field complained cows and chickens died from the gas. Some of the well's gardens were ruined and their lines damaged.

FIRE FIGHTERS WIN BATTLE WITH OIL

ELDORADO, Ark., April 3.—(U.N.)—As an aftermath of a fire in a 55,000 barrel storage tank last night, puddles of hot oil stood over several acres in the oil field near the tank and a fire in the earthen pit where the tank had stood still was burning tonight. Fire fighters were in control of the blaze however. Shortly before dawn today the boiling oil bubbled on the sides of the tank and the earthen pit and the flaming flood spread over the countryside for a quarter of a mile in all directions. No damage was reported except to the small houses, trees and underbrush.

So suddenly did the oil boil over that several fire fighters had narrow escapes and many received blistered necks from the intense heat. The heat melted the huge metal tank.

The loss tonight was estimated at $100,000 and the fire was accounted the most disastrous in this section since 1923 when a farm in the Norfolk field caught fire.

NEW GUSHER BLOWS IN ARKANSAS

ELDORADO, Ark., April 3.—(U.N.)—The Urbanian field, 13 miles east of here, scored its first big gusher late today when the Marine Oil Company brought in the Winn Number 1 well, production estimates of which range from 20,000 to 35,000 barrels per day.

The well tonight was flowing through a three-eighths inch "choke" at a rate of 245 barrels per day, approximately 6,000 barrels a day. Great gas pressure was encountered in drilling but the well was brought in under control.

Occupational Tax Enjoined by Court

William B. Harrison, state comptroller general, Thursday was restrained temporarily from collecting occupational taxes from a number of insurance agencies. Judge Virlyn B. Moore, of Fulton superior court, signed the temporary order on the petition of L. S. Brannan, M. N. Carroll, D. O. Hamby, J. D. Booth, W. C. Lewis, C. B. Woods, C. D. White, A. Bowie, James A. Ingram, H. L. Goldrock and S. W. Walker. Plaintiff contends that the tax is unconstitutional and discriminatory in that the act of the legislature exempts certain agencies, such as railroad ticket agents, who sell and accept insurance. Plaintiff is represented by Attorneys C. N. Davis, Paul L. Lindsay and J. K. Kemp. Judge Moore set the order for a hearing on April 12.

Bids on $100,000 Equipment Opened

Bids on nearly $100,000 worth of equipment for various departments of the borough of Atlanta were opened Thursday afternoon by the purchasing commission of council. They will be tabulated and awards made at the next session of that body.

Award of playground equipment was voted by the committee. Hill Standard Company and Clanton & Webb being successful bidders for about $22,000 worth of material required.

Equipment on which bids were opened Thursday follows:

Construction materials to be used in erection of an addition to the Hemphill pumping station; brass goods for the waterworks department; traffic signal lamps and street marking paint for the next three months; a concrete mixer for the construction department; concrete sand to be used for the year and concrete to be bought in erection of car load; surgical supplies for Grady hospital; a truck for the electrician's department and three trucks for the construction department.

Labor Mine Bill Wins in Commons

LONDON, April 3.—(U.N.)—The government's coal mines bill, which has been one of the most contentious measures in recent times, passed on third reading in the house of commons today, a motion for rejection being defeated 277 to 254.

The measure now goes to the house of lords.

The government's majority in the house of commons consisted of 100 members of eight on second reading some weeks ago. The main body of the liberal party refrained from voting in accordance with the recent decision not to support the government.

During the debate, however, voted with the government, while four others stood with the conservative opposition.

U. S. Asks 3,000,000 Gallons of Water

Request of the federal government for 3,000,000 gallons of water daily at United States base hospital No. 48 caused the water committee of council Thursday to vote granting permission for extension of a main out of Weirua road.

Alderman Claude L. Ashley, chairman of the committee, stated he felt that the main in that vicinity would be taxed to its maximum capacity in meeting requirements of the government, and that an extension would impair the service.

"We feel that the first petition to be considered is that of the federal government," Mr. Ashley said in explaining the committee's action.

"We simply deferred action on the petition of the private parties pending more definite information from federal agents."

Burglary Solved By Fingerprints

Burglary of Sandow's filling station on West Ponce de Leon avenue in Decatur several nights ago was written on DeKalb county police records as solved Thursday, when Bradley Pope, 18, of 119 Beaumont street, is said to have confessed the crime, confronted with fingerprint evidence by Captain M. J. Wright, of the Atlanta fingerprint department.

A print was left on the glass of the filling station's door, and this was photographed by Captain Wright. Wednesday afternoon Pope was arrested by Patrolman George S. Wright, of the Decatur department, and he was turned over to Captain Wright who took his fingerprints. When confronted with the fact that the two prints were identical, Pope is said to have confessed. He was lodged in the DeKalb county jail on a charge of burglary.

Taxi Driver Loses Plea for Injunction

Petition of W. C. Chipping, operator of a taxi, for an injunction to prevent the Georgia Public Service Commission and the state comptroller general from placing him under the Georgia Motor Vehicle Act Thursday was denied by Judge Virlyn B. Moore, of Fulton superior court.

Chipping alleged that he was not operating a taxicab between the city of Atlanta and fixed termini outside of the city limits, although he went beyond the incorporated limits on occasion. Judge Moore dismissed the temporary restraining order which had been granted.

THE CONSTITUTION CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

One time 20 cents
Three times 50 cents
Seven times 1.00
One month 3.00
Three months 8.00
Six months 15.00
One year 28.00

Classified advertising is the most effective way to reach the public. It is the only way to get your message across to the right people at the right time. It is the only way to get your message across to the right people at the right time.

WALNUT 6565

Scheduled train times for the Atlanta Terminal Station. (Central Standard Time.)

Atlanta Terminal Station. (Central Standard Time.)

Atlanta Terminal Station. (Central Standard Time.)

RAILROAD SCHEDULES

Train	Time	Destination
am	7:10	Atlanta
am	7:30	Atlanta
am	7:50	Atlanta
am	8:10	Atlanta
am	8:30	Atlanta
am	8:50	Atlanta
am	9:10	Atlanta
am	9:30	Atlanta
am	9:50	Atlanta
am	10:10	Atlanta
am	10:30	Atlanta
am	10:50	Atlanta
am	11:10	Atlanta
am	11:30	Atlanta
am	11:50	Atlanta
am	12:10	Atlanta
am	12:30	Atlanta
am	12:50	Atlanta
am	1:10	Atlanta
am	1:30	Atlanta
am	1:50	Atlanta
am	2:10	Atlanta
am	2:30	Atlanta
am	2:50	Atlanta
am	3:10	Atlanta
am	3:30	Atlanta
am	3:50	Atlanta
am	4:10	Atlanta
am	4:30	Atlanta
am	4:50	Atlanta
am	5:10	Atlanta
am	5:30	Atlanta
am	5:50	Atlanta
am	6:10	Atlanta
am	6:30	Atlanta
am	6:50	Atlanta
am	7:10	Atlanta
am	7:30	Atlanta
am	7:50	Atlanta
am	8:10	Atlanta
am	8:30	Atlanta
am	8:50	Atlanta
am	9:10	Atlanta
am	9:30	Atlanta
am	9:50	Atlanta
am	10:10	Atlanta
am	10:30	Atlanta
am	10:50	Atlanta
am	11:10	Atlanta
am	11:30	Atlanta
am	11:50	Atlanta
am	12:10	Atlanta
am	12:30	Atlanta
am	12:50	Atlanta
am	1:10	Atlanta
am	1:30	Atlanta
am	1:50	Atlanta
am	2:10	Atlanta
am	2:30	Atlanta
am	2:50	Atlanta
am	3:10	Atlanta
am	3:30	Atlanta
am	3:50	Atlanta
am	4:10	Atlanta
am	4:30	Atlanta
am	4:50	Atlanta
am	5:10	Atlanta
am	5:30	Atlanta
am	5:50	Atlanta
am	6:10	Atlanta
am	6:30	Atlanta
am	6:50	Atlanta
am	7:10	Atlanta
am	7:30	Atlanta
am	7:50	Atlanta
am	8:10	Atlanta
am	8:30	Atlanta
am	8:50	Atlanta
am	9:10	Atlanta
am	9:30	Atlanta
am	9:50	Atlanta
am	10:10	Atlanta
am	10:30	Atlanta
am	10:50	Atlanta
am	11:10	Atlanta
am	11:30	Atlanta
am	11:50	Atlanta
am	12:10	Atlanta
am	12:30	Atlanta
am	12:50	Atlanta
am	1:10	Atlanta
am	1:30	Atlanta
am	1:50	Atlanta
am	2:10	Atlanta
am	2:30	Atlanta
am	2:50	Atlanta
am	3:10	Atlanta
am	3:30	Atlanta
am	3:50	Atlanta
am	4:10	Atlanta
am	4:30	Atlanta
am	4:50	Atlanta
am	5:10	Atlanta
am	5:30	Atlanta
am	5:50	Atlanta
am	6:10	Atlanta
am	6:30	Atlanta
am	6:50	Atlanta
am	7:10	Atlanta
am	7:30	Atlanta
am	7:50	Atlanta
am	8:10	Atlanta
am	8:30	Atlanta
am	8:50	Atlanta
am	9:10	Atlanta
am	9:30	Atlanta
am	9:50	Atlanta
am	10:10	Atlanta
am	10:30	Atlanta
am	10:50	Atlanta
am	11:10	Atlanta
am	11:30	Atlanta
am	11:50	Atlanta
am	12:10	Atlanta
am	12:30	Atlanta
am	12:50	Atlanta
am	1:10	Atlanta
am	1:30	Atlanta
am	1:50	Atlanta
am	2:10	Atlanta
am	2:30	Atlanta
am	2:50	Atlanta
am	3:10	Atlanta
am	3:30	Atlanta
am	3:50	Atlanta
am	4:10	Atlanta
am	4:30	Atlanta
am	4:50	Atlanta
am	5:10	Atlanta
am	5:30	Atlanta
am	5:50	Atlanta
am	6:10	Atlanta
am	6:30	Atlanta
am	6:50	Atlanta
am	7:10	Atlanta
am	7:30	Atlanta
am	7:50	Atlanta
am	8:10	Atlanta
am	8:30	Atlanta
am	8:50	Atlanta
am	9:10	Atlanta
am	9:30	Atlanta
am	9:50	Atlanta
am	10:10	Atlanta
am	10:30	Atlanta
am	10:50	Atlanta
am	11:10	Atlanta
am	11:30	Atlanta
am	11:50	Atlanta
am	12:10	Atlanta
am	12:30	Atlanta
am	12:50	Atlanta
am	1:10	Atlanta
am	1:30	Atlanta
am	1:50	Atlanta
am	2:10	Atlanta
am	2:30	Atlanta
am	2:50	Atlanta
am	3:10	Atlanta
am	3:30	Atlanta
am	3:50	Atlanta
am	4:10	Atlanta
am	4:30	Atlanta
am	4:50	Atlanta
am	5:10	Atlanta
am	5:30	Atlanta
am	5:50	Atlanta
am	6:10	Atlanta
am	6:30	Atlanta
am	6:50	Atlanta
am	7:10	Atlanta
am	7:30	Atlanta
am	7:50	Atlanta
am	8:10	Atlanta
am	8:30	Atlanta
am	8:50	Atlanta
am	9:10	Atlanta
am	9:30	Atlanta
am	9:50	Atlanta
am	10:10	Atlanta
am	10:30	Atlanta
am	10:50	Atlanta
am	11:10	Atlanta
am	11:30	Atlanta
am	11:50	Atlanta
am	12:10	Atlanta
am	12:30	Atlanta
am	12:50	Atlanta
am	1:10	Atlanta
am	1:30	Atlanta
am	1:50	Atlanta
am	2:10	Atlanta
am	2:30	Atlanta
am	2:50	Atlanta
am	3:10	Atlanta
am	3:30	Atlanta
am	3:50	Atlanta
am	4:10	Atlanta
am	4:30	Atlanta
am	4:50	Atlanta
am	5:10	Atlanta
am	5:30	Atlanta
am	5:50	Atlanta
am	6:10	Atlanta
am	6:30	Atlanta
am	6:50	Atlanta
am	7:10	Atlanta
am	7:30	Atlanta
am	7:50	Atlanta
am	8:10	Atlanta
am	8:30	Atlanta
am	8:50	Atlanta
am	9:10	Atlanta
am	9:30	Atlanta
am	9:50	Atlanta
am	10:10	Atlanta
am	10:30	Atlanta
am	10:50	Atlanta
am	11:10	Atlanta
am	11:30	Atlanta
am	11:50	Atlanta
am	12:10	Atlanta
am	12:30	Atlanta
am	12:50	Atlanta
am	1:10	Atlanta
am	1:30	Atlanta
am	1:50	Atlanta
am	2:10	Atlanta
am	2:30	Atlanta
am	2:50	Atlanta
am	3:10	Atlanta
am	3:30	Atlanta
am	3:50	Atlanta
am	4:10	Atlanta
am	4:30	Atlanta
am	4:50	Atlanta
am	5:10	Atlanta
am	5:30	Atlanta
am	5:50	Atlanta
am	6:10	Atlanta
am	6:30	Atlanta
am	6:50	Atlanta
am	7:10	Atlanta
am	7:30	Atlanta
am	7:50	Atlanta
am	8:10	Atlanta
am	8:30	Atlanta
am	8:50	Atlanta
am	9:10	Atlanta
am	9:30	Atlanta
am	9:50	Atlanta
am	10:10	Atlanta
am	10:30	Atlanta
am	10:50	Atlanta
am	11:10	Atlanta
am	11:30	Atlanta
am	11:50	Atlanta
am	12:10	Atlanta
am	12:30	Atlanta
am	12:50	Atlanta
am	1:10	Atlanta
am	1:30	Atlanta
am	1:50	Atlanta
am	2:10	Atlanta
am	2:30	Atlanta
am	2:50	Atlanta
am	3:10	Atlanta
am	3:30	Atlanta
am	3:50	Atlanta
am	4:10	Atlanta
am	4:30	Atlanta
am	4:50	Atlanta
am	5:10	Atlanta
am	5:30	Atlanta
am	5:50	Atlanta
am	6:10	Atlanta
am	6:30	Atlanta
am	6:50	Atlanta
am	7:10	Atlanta
am	7:30	Atlanta
am	7:50	Atlanta
am	8:10	Atlanta
am	8:30	Atlanta
am	8:50	Atlanta
am	9:10	Atlanta
am	9:30	Atlanta
am	9:50	Atlanta
am	10:10	Atlanta
am	10:30	Atlanta
am	10:50	Atlanta
am	11:10	Atlanta
am	11:30	Atlanta
am	11:50	Atlanta
am	12:10	Atlanta
am	12:30	Atlanta
am	12:50	Atlanta
am	1:10	Atlanta
am	1:30	Atlanta
am	1:50	Atlanta
am	2:10	Atlanta
am	2:30	Atlanta
am	2:50	Atlanta
am	3:10	Atlanta
am	3:30	Atlanta
am	3:50	Atlanta
am	4:10	Atlanta
am	4:30	Atlanta
am	4:50	Atlanta
am	5:10	Atlanta
am	5:30	Atlanta
am	5:50	Atlanta
am	6:10	Atlanta
am	6:30	Atlanta
am	6:50	Atlanta
am	7:10	Atlanta
am	7:30	Atlanta
am	7:50	Atlanta
am	8:10	Atlanta
am	8:30	Atlanta
am	8:50	Atlanta
am	9:10	Atlanta
am	9:30	Atlanta
am	9:50	Atlanta
am	10:10	Atlanta
am	10:30	Atlanta
am	10:50	Atlanta
am	11:10	Atlanta
am	11:30	Atlanta
am	11:50	Atlanta
am	12:10	Atlanta
am	12:30	Atlanta
am	12:50	Atlanta
am	1:10	Atlanta
am	1:30	Atlanta
am	1:50	Atlanta
am	2:10	Atlanta
am	2:30	Atlanta
am	2:50	Atlanta
am	3:10	Atlanta
am	3:30	Atlanta
am	3:50	Atlanta
am	4:10	Atlanta
am	4:30	Atlanta
am	4:50	Atlanta
am	5:10	Atlanta
am	5:30	Atlanta
am	5:50	Atlanta
am	6:10	Atlanta
am	6:30	Atlanta
am	6:50	Atlanta
am	7:10	Atlanta
am	7:30	Atlanta
am	7:50	Atlanta
am	8:10	Atlanta
am	8:30	Atlanta
am	8:50	Atlanta
am	9:10	Atlanta
am	9:30	Atlanta
am	9:50	Atlanta
am	10:10	Atlanta
am	10:30	Atlanta
am	10:50	Atlanta
am	11:10	Atlanta
am	11:30	Atlanta
am	11:50	Atlanta
am	12:10	Atlanta
am	12:30	Atlanta
am	12:50	Atlanta
am	1:10	Atlanta
am	1:30	Atlanta
am	1:50	Atlanta
am	2:10	Atlanta
am	2:30	Atlanta
am	2:50	Atlanta
am	3:10	Atlanta
am	3:30	Atlanta
am	3:50	Atlanta
am	4:10	Atlanta
am	4:30	Atlanta
am	4:50	Atlanta
am	5:10	Atlanta
am	5:30	Atlanta
am	5:50	Atlanta
am	6:10	Atlanta
am	6:30	Atlanta
am	6:50	Atlanta
am	7:10	Atlanta
am	7:30	Atlanta
am	7:50	Atlanta
am	8:10	Atlanta
am	8:30	Atlanta
am	8:50	Atlanta
am	9:10	Atlanta
am	9:30	Atlanta
am	9:50	Atlanta
am	10:10	Atlanta
am	10:30	Atlanta
am	10:50	Atlanta
am	11:10	Atlanta
am	11:30	Atlanta
am	11:50	Atlanta
am	12:10	Atlanta
am	12:30	Atlanta
am	12:50	Atlanta
am	1:10	Atlanta
am	1:30	Atlanta
am	1:50	Atlanta
am	2:10	Atlanta
am	2:30	Atlanta
am	2:50	Atlanta
am	3:10	Atlanta
am	3:30	Atlanta
am	3:50	Atlanta
am	4:10	Atlanta
am	4:30	Atlanta
am	4:50	Atlanta
am	5:10	Atlanta
am	5:30	Atlanta
am	5:50	Atlanta
am	6:10	Atlanta
am	6:30	Atlanta
am	6:50	Atlanta
am	7:10	Atlanta
am	7:30	Atlanta
am	7:50	Atlanta
am	8:10	Atlanta
am	8:30	Atlanta
am	8:50	Atlanta
am	9:10	Atlanta
am	9:30	Atlanta
am	9:50	Atlanta
am	10:10	Atlanta
am	10:30	Atlanta
am	10:50	Atlanta
am	11:10	Atlanta
am	11:30	Atlanta
am	11:50	Atlanta
am	12:10	Atlanta
am	12:30	Atlanta
am	12:50	Atlanta
am	1:10	Atlanta
am	1:30	Atlanta
am	1:50	Atlanta
am	2:10	Atlanta
am	2:30	Atlanta
am	2:50	Atlanta
am	3:10	Atlanta
am	3:30	Atlanta
am	3:50	Atlanta
am	4:10	Atlanta
am	4:30	Atlanta
am	4:50	Atlanta
am	5:10	Atlanta
am	5:30	Atlanta
am	5:50	Atlanta
am	6:10	Atlanta
am	6:30	Atlanta
am	6:50	Atlanta
am	7:10	Atlanta
am	7:30	Atlanta
am	7:50	Atlanta
am	8:10	Atlanta
am	8:30	Atlanta
am	8:50	Atlanta
am	9:10	Atlanta
am	9:30	Atlanta
am	9:50	Atlanta
am	10:10	Atlanta
am	10:30	Atlanta
am	10:50	Atlanta
am	11:10	Atlanta
am	11:30	Atlanta
am	11:50	Atlanta
am	12:10	Atlanta
am	12:30	Atlanta
am	12:50	Atlanta
am	1:10	Atlanta
am	1:30	Atlanta
am	1:50	Atlanta
am

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

It diminished gradually until it ended in a series of diurnal moans. He listened fearfully but the hideous cry, half human, was not repeated. And then Werper swooned. When he awoke it was daylight and to his immense relief he saw that a flight of stairs led upward across the courtyard in which he had slept—how long he could not guess. Boldly he ascended the steps to find himself in a circular court bathed in brilliant sunlight.

Massive columns towered skyward twined about by clinging vines. Through leafy branches came no sound but the sighing of the wind, the cries of birds, and the chattering of monkeys. There was no sign of human beings. Just before him stood a stone altar, stained with rusty-brown discolorations. Soon he was to know their meaning! He saw several doors opening into the enclosure and above a series of open balconies.

Little monkeys scampered about the deserted ruins and gay plumaged birds flitted undisturbed among the galleries higher up. Werper felt relieved. He sighed as though a great weight had been lifted from his shoulders. He took a step toward one of the exits, and then he halted, for almost at the same instant a dozen doors opened in the courtyard wall and a horde of frightful men rushed upon him. They were the priests of the Flaming God of Onar!

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Real Estate

BRICK BUNGALOW
BOULEVARD PARK—Just four doors off Boulevard, an excellent little home, original cost more than $11, 000. Can deliver now for $5,300. A very attractive place. See H. S. COE, BURDETTE REALTY CO.

ANSLEY PARK BRICK
VERY ATTRACTIVE brick bungal-ow wonderfully located on a level lot in the heart of Ansley Park. Has two baths, steam heat, price $12,500. Consider small property in trade. W. A. 0586, Mr. thwa, Rankin-Whitten Realty Co.

TODAY'S BEST VALUES

$2,950 Six rooms. Lot 9x10-11.
East Atlanta. Has new bath and we will trade for a lot or auto.

$4,500 $100 cash, $20 monthly.
Almost new six-room bath, new kitchen, new school. New brick, 2 baths, 2 bathrooms.

$17,000 ft. lot, Druid Hills estate. Prices reduced $2,000 for quick sale.

$13,000 On Peachtree Road, Five bedrooms, two baths. Built to order, large lot, close to home. One of the best values in the area. Call for details. Will sell for a small home as part payment.

SEE us if you want to buy, sell or exchange.

Call or write for more information

OPEN EVERY DAY

NO. 2010 NORTHEAST DECATUR ROAD
New England Realty, Inc., Decatur, Ga.
home, handsomely finished, is in a fast growing, highly restricted section of the city. The lot is large and beautiful; on a large lot covered with attractive shrubbery overlooking the city. Please call for details. See yourself the splendour of inspecting the finest example of modern architecture. It has four corner bedrooms, all connecting with bath, and a large living room with fireplace. There is not an excellent chance that this big home will be sold. It is yours waiting to make your own. Don't miss it.

115 Canfield Bldg., Roswell, Ga. 30075

F. P. & GEO. J. MORRIS
76 Fryer St., N. E. W.A. 0438

Beauty Aids

PERMANENT WAVE

ADV. THE LATEST OUT
"La Salle" $2

F. P. & GEO. J. MORRIS
76 Fryer St., N. E. W.A. 0438

Beauty Aids

PERMANENT WAVE

ADV. THE LATEST OUT
"La Salle" $2

Permanent
Most beautiful and comfortable given anywhere. Our regular price on this ware will be $10.00. Gives this week at cost—$3.00.

RYCKELEY'S
WAVE SHOP
146 Peachtree St. JA. 6987

Merchandise

Betty's for household furniture, kitchen linoleum and outside doors
Betty's is without equal

Tripod Paint Co.
Pryor St., N. E. WA. 01

Money to Loan

LOWEST RATE

In Atlanta on Household Loans

$100 to $300

BY REASON of large volume and by limiting our service to the larger loans from $100 to $300, "Household" has been able to reduce its interest rate to a point less than that of the charge permitted by law.

Here Is the Cost

On 20-month Payment Plan
average monthly cost.....	$1.10
average monthly cost.....	$2.00
average monthly cost.....	$2.80
average monthly cost.....	$3.60

These figures are for loans made at 6% rate.

WE DO NOT NOTIFY your employer or father-in-law, or make loans to your friends, relatives or tradespeople.

CO-ENDORSE. If you are married, call a friend, or brother or sister, or write a home and we will send a representative to your home.

Household Finance Corporation (Established 40 Years)
TWO CONVENIENT OFFICES

4 Floor Atlanta National Bank Bldg
Corner Whitehall and Alabama Street
Phone WA. 5484-5

4 Floor Georgia Savings Bank Bldg
84 Peachtree Street
Phone WA. 5295-6-7

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Automotive

COMPARE THESE CARS AND PRECES

THESE cars thoroughly recomtioned by expert Franklin mechanics and we believe their values cannot be equaled.

1925 BUICK, Master "6" Sedan original paint polished out looks like new, driven comparatively little $750

1928 CHRYSLER "73" Victoria Coupe, driven only 15,000 by a very careful owner $800

1926 STUDEBAKER Dictator Sedan, new tires, new paint and in excellent mechanical condition, upholstery $350

1927 HUMPHIRE #622 $125

completely refinished, good tires and in excellent mechanical condition $450

Low Cash Payment

FRANKLIN MOTOR CAR COMPANY

481 W. Peachtree St., N. E.
Jackson 4202

Use Constitution Want Ads
for Results.

00

99 CENT SALE USED CARS
R. H.
Martin, Inc.
SALE NOW GOING ON EXCEPTIONAL VALUES
— FOR FRIDAY
OPEN UNTIL 9:30

WE PAY CASH FOR USED CARS

'26 Ford Touring	$ 29.99
'25 Ford Coupe	39.99
'26 Ford Touring T	49.99
'25 Ford Coupe, '30 tag	49.99
'25 Hupp Club Sedan, '30 tag	49.99
'26 Ford Road- ster T	59.99
'26 Ford Coupe	69.99
Reo Tour., perfect.	99.99
'27 Ford Pick-up Truck	99.99
'27 Chevrolet Coupe	149.99
'26 Dodge Sedan	149.99
'27 Essex Coupe	159.99
'26 Buick Coach	189.99
'27 Whippet Coach	199.99

'63 Cadillac Sedan	219.99
'27 Hudson Sedan	249.99
'27 Buick Coupe	249.99
'27 Pontiac Coach	259.99
'29 Essex Coach	299.99
'28 Ford A Tudor	319.99
'29 Ford A Tudor	369.99

TRUCKS

$30.99 and up. Fords, Dodges, Federalds, Chevroleets and Pontiacs.

ALL cars run and are outstanding values. Liberal Terms. Greatest Price Reduction Yet Offered Anywhere.

270 PEACHTREE

Walnut 1629
Walnut 0173

EVERY CAR A BARGAIN

-PAIGE

...rity of our Graham-Paige
...igned to trade in late model
...ed cars at our used car lot.
...to buy here—
...is a Pleasure

327 Paige Coach$275
327 Buickmobile Sedan325
327 Nash Sedan300
326 Nash Sedan185
324 Oldsmobile Coupe190
324 Ferret Coach110
325 Hudson Coach125

OTORS, Inc.

...re Dealer
...LOT

399 Spring St., N. W. until 9 O'Clock
23

Mrs. Rosa Inghram Dies in St. Louis

Funeral services for Mrs. Rosa Inghram, pioneer Atlanta social worker, were held Thursday at her home in St. Louis, where she died a week earlier. At her request the body was cremated and the ashes deposited in a crypt in a mausoleum at Valhalla cemetery.

Mrs. Inghram was Miss Rosa Lowe when she came to Atlanta in February, 1903, to take charge of the Settlement Home at 70 South Boulevard. She came here from Owensboro, Ky., at the request of the Atlanta city mission board of the Methodist church. Under her leadership the settlement work of Atlanta prospered.

MRS. L. R. SAMS DIES; LAST RITES SATURDAY

For 29 Years She Served as Principal of Formwalt Street School.

Mrs. L. R. Sams, 75, of 1633 Rock Springs road, for 29 years a teacher in the public schools of Atlanta and for 29 years the principal of Formwalt Street school, died at her home Thursday night after an illness of several months.

She was formerly Miss Georgia Taylor, of New Orleans, and her first marriage was to Major J. T. Williams, one of Atlanta's pioneer citizens. She was an active member of Saint Luke's church until the time of her death. She did not retire from the public school system until five years ago.

FUNERAL RITES TODAY FOR MRS. ELIZA SMITH

Funeral services for Mrs. Eliza Smith, 83, who died at a local hospital Wednesday night from injuries received in a fall at the home of her son, W. R. Smith, Macon road, will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from the chapel of Awtry & Lowndes, with Dr. Len G. Broughton officiating. Interment will be in Hollywood cemetery.

Lodge Notices

A called communication of East Point Lodge No. 288, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic Temple at East Point this (Friday) evening, April 4, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of conferring the Master Mason's degree. Cascade Lodge No. 94 cordially invited to meet with us. All duly qualified Master Masons cordially invited to attend. By order of H. T. SETTLE, Sec.

The regular communication of E. A. Minor Lodge No. 603, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic Temple at East Point this (Friday) evening at 8:00 o'clock. The following brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of H. T. SETTLE, Sec.

The regular communication of Palestine Lodge No. 486, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic Temple at East Point this (Friday) evening, April 4, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The following brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of H. T. SETTLE, Sec.

The regular communication of Lakewood Lodge No. 443, F. & A. M., will be held in the Masonic Temple at East Point this (Friday) evening at 8:00 o'clock. The following brethren are cordially invited to meet with us. By order of H. T. SETTLE, Sec.

Regular meeting Atlanta Post O. E. Travellers Protective Association, Friday, April 4, 1930, 7:30 p. m., at Cecil Hotel. Delegates to state convention will be named.

F. A. HILL, 1048 Oak St., S. W.

The regular meeting of Empire State Camp No. 7, W. O. W., will be held this (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock. Red Men's Wigwam, 160 Central avenue, E. W. Hall, 142 Woodmen cordially welcome.

By order of H. T. SETTLE, Sec.

Regular meeting Atlanta Post O. E. Travellers Protective Association, Friday, April 4, 1930, 7:30 p. m., at Cecil Hotel. Delegates to state convention will be named.

F. A. HILL, 1048 Oak St., S. W.

The regular meeting of Empire State Camp No. 7, W. O. W., will be held this (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock. Red Men's Wigwam, 160 Central avenue, E. W. Hall, 142 Woodmen cordially welcome.

By order of H. T. SETTLE, Sec.

Regular meeting Atlanta Post O. E. Travellers Protective Association, Friday, April 4, 1930, 7:30 p. m., at Cecil Hotel. Delegates to state convention will be named.

F. A. HILL, 1048 Oak St., S. W.

The regular meeting of Empire State Camp No. 7, W. O. W., will be held this (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock. Red Men's Wigwam, 160 Central avenue, E. W. Hall, 142 Woodmen cordially welcome.

By order of H. T. SETTLE, Sec.

Regular meeting Atlanta Post O. E. Travellers Protective Association, Friday, April 4, 1930, 7:30 p. m., at Cecil Hotel. Delegates to state convention will be named.

F. A. HILL, 1048 Oak St., S. W.

The regular meeting of Empire State Camp No. 7, W. O. W., will be held this (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock. Red Men's Wigwam, 160 Central avenue, E. W. Hall, 142 Woodmen cordially welcome.

MRS. DE LAPERRIERE PASSES AT HOSPITAL

Wife of Jackson County Official Was Beloved Hoshon Civic Leader.

Mrs. Arthur L. DeLaperriere, widely known Hoshon woman, died Thursday morning at 10:25 o'clock at a private hospital here. She was the wife of Arthur L. DeLaperriere, chairman of roads and revenues of Jackson county, and a prominent north Georgia merchant, banker and farmer.

Mrs. DeLaperriere formerly was Miss Berice Phillips, of Douglasville, daughter of the late Josiah E. Phillips and Mrs. Phillips, where as a young lady she was a great favorite because of her unusual talents and attainments. She was a student of Shorter College and the Atlanta Conservatory of Music.

At her home in Hoshon she was a recognized leader in all civic, church and club endeavors. She was a member of the Baptist church, president of the Woman's Missionary Society, superintendent of the Mulberry Missionary Association, and a tireless worker in all religious activities. She was vice president of the Hoshon Woman's Club, ninth district chairman of the Georgia federation, and also an enthusiastic D. A. R. worker.

The DeLaperriere family occupies a distinguished place in the history of Georgia and America. She is survived by her husband, Arthur L. DeLaperriere; a daughter, Miss Margaret DeLaperriere; her mother, Mrs. J. E. Phillips, of Douglasville; a sister, Mrs. J. C. Wright, of Laurel, Miss.; a brother, Thomas H. Phillips, of Oklahoma City, and many other relatives.

Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Hoshon. Interment will be in Oakland.

MRS. FANNIE D. BELL WILL BE BURIED TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Dunlap Bell, of 1001 Euclid avenue, N. E., who died Wednesday night at a private hospital as the result of a fall at her home 10 days ago, will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of the Rev. Ellis A. Fuller officiating. Interment will be in Oakland.

MRS. FANNIE D. BELL WILL BE BURIED TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Dunlap Bell, of 1001 Euclid avenue, N. E., who died Wednesday night at a private hospital as the result of a fall at her home 10 days ago, will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of the Rev. Ellis A. Fuller officiating. Interment will be in Oakland.

MRS. FANNIE D. BELL WILL BE BURIED TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Dunlap Bell, of 1001 Euclid avenue, N. E., who died Wednesday night at a private hospital as the result of a fall at her home 10 days ago, will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of the Rev. Ellis A. Fuller officiating. Interment will be in Oakland.

MRS. FANNIE D. BELL WILL BE BURIED TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Dunlap Bell, of 1001 Euclid avenue, N. E., who died Wednesday night at a private hospital as the result of a fall at her home 10 days ago, will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of the Rev. Ellis A. Fuller officiating. Interment will be in Oakland.

MRS. FANNIE D. BELL WILL BE BURIED TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Dunlap Bell, of 1001 Euclid avenue, N. E., who died Wednesday night at a private hospital as the result of a fall at her home 10 days ago, will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of the Rev. Ellis A. Fuller officiating. Interment will be in Oakland.

MRS. FANNIE D. BELL WILL BE BURIED TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Dunlap Bell, of 1001 Euclid avenue, N. E., who died Wednesday night at a private hospital as the result of a fall at her home 10 days ago, will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of the Rev. Ellis A. Fuller officiating. Interment will be in Oakland.

MRS. FANNIE D. BELL WILL BE BURIED TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Dunlap Bell, of 1001 Euclid avenue, N. E., who died Wednesday night at a private hospital as the result of a fall at her home 10 days ago, will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of the Rev. Ellis A. Fuller officiating. Interment will be in Oakland.

MRS. FANNIE D. BELL WILL BE BURIED TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Dunlap Bell, of 1001 Euclid avenue, N. E., who died Wednesday night at a private hospital as the result of a fall at her home 10 days ago, will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of the Rev. Ellis A. Fuller officiating. Interment will be in Oakland.

MRS. FANNIE D. BELL WILL BE BURIED TODAY

MORTUARY

ARCHIBALD McARTHUR. Funeral services for Archibald McArthur, of Lithonia, will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Methodist church of Lithonia. He is survived by his wife and son, daughter, Mrs. A. C. Hunter.

MRS. MARY M. HURST. Last rites for Mrs. Mary M. Hurst, 79, of 1818 Mosley place, who died Wednesday, will be held at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the chapel of J. Austin Dillon Co., Rev. W. M. Albert officiating. Interment will be in Greenwood cemetery.

V. A. McFALL. Funeral services for V. A. McFall, of Riverdale, will be held at 11 o'clock this morning from Wesley Chapel church at Sea Hill.

MRS. MARTHA ANN ELLIOTT. Funeral services for Mrs. Martha Ann Elliott, 76, who died Wednesday morning at her residence, 1770 Howell Mill road, will be held today, with Sam Greenberg & Co., in charge.

OSCAR B. WILLIAMS. Funeral services for Oscar B. Williams will be held at 11 o'clock this morning from the Stone Mountain Baptist church. Interment will be in Snellville cemetery.

JAMES W. FORD. Funeral services for James W. Ford will be held at 11 o'clock this morning from Wesley Chapel church at Sea Hill.

MRS. D. M. C. MORGAN. Funeral services for Mrs. D. M. C. Morgan will be held at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the funeral home of A. S. Leazer. Interment will be in Oakwood cemetery.

MRS. W. L. CAMP. Rites for Mrs. W. L. Camp will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of her son, J. W. Camp, at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

MRS. CLAUDE FITZGERALD. Rites for Mrs. Claude Fitzgerald will be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Edgewood Baptist church. Interment will be in East View cemetery.

DOROTHY DENSON. Dorothy Denson, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Denson, died at the house on Cascade road, Thursday afternoon. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon at the home of Harry G. Poole, funeral director.

MRS. LYNN S. KENDRICK. Funeral services for Mrs. Lynn S. Kendrick will be conducted at 11 o'clock this morning from the residence, 1079 Snyder street, N. W. Interment will be in Greenwood cemetery.

JOHN B. KALT. Funeral services for John B. Kalt will be held at 11 o'clock this afternoon from the chapel of Howard L. Carmichael, East Point. Interment will be in College Park cemetery.

MRS. W. E. SIMS. Mrs. W. E. Sims, 60, died at her home in Snellville, Thursday afternoon. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by H. M. Patterson & Son.

MRS. HETTIE J. CURRAN. Mrs. Hettie J. Curran died at her residence, 28 Harrison street, Thursday night. She is survived by three sons, Colonel Charles M. Curran, Chicago; Albert V. Curran and Jack P. Curran, of New Orleans. Funeral services will be announced later by H. M. Patterson & Son.

FRED PATRICK. Fred Patrick died at the Confederate Soldiers' Home Wednesday night. Funeral services will be held at 11 o'clock this afternoon from Spring Hill with the Rev. John C. Logan officiating. Interment will be in Hollywood cemetery.

DE LAPERRIERE—The friends and relatives of Mrs. A. L. DeLaperriere, Miss Margaret DeLaperriere, of Hoshon, Ga.; Mrs. J. E. Phillips, of Douglasville, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wright, of Douglasville, Ga.; Mrs. Ruby DeLaperriere and Mr. Julian DeLaperriere of Atlanta, and Mrs. H. P. DeLaperriere, of Hoshon, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Arthur L. DeLaperriere Sunday afternoon, April 4, 1930, at the Baptist church at Hoshon, Ga. Interment will be in Hoshon cemetery. Ed Bond and Condon Co., funeral directors, in charge.

BELL—The friends and relatives of Mrs. F. R. Bell, Mrs. W. D. Harwell and family, Mrs. Edgar Dunlap and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hill Jr., Mrs. T. N. Fulton, Mrs. J. M. Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. James Watkins are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. F. R. Bell, this (Friday) afternoon, April 4, 1930, at 3 o'clock, at the residence, No. 1001 Euclid avenue, N. E. Rev. Ellis A. Fuller will officiate. Interment will be in Oakland cemetery. The following gentlemen will please serve as pallbearers: Mr. J. F. Watkins, Mr. Edgar Dunlap, Mr. James C. Dunlap, Mr. Edgar B. Dunlap, Mr. Sam C. Dunlap, and Mr. Napier Fulton. H. M. Patterson & Son.

JOHNSON—Died, Thursday evening, April 3, 1930, Mr. J. B. Johnson, of 872 Briarcliff road, N. E., in his 71st year. He is survived by his wife; daughters, Mrs. H. H. Ronton, Paris, Tenn.; Mrs. G. N. H. Ronton, Paris, Tenn.; Mrs. Paul F. Doran, Spartan, Tenn.; sons, Mr. R. A. Johnson, Paris, Tenn.; Mr. H. M. Johnson, McKenzie, Tenn.; Mr. A. L. Johnson, Geneva, Lake, Wis.; and Mr. C. S. Johnson, Paris, Tenn. Funeral arrangements will be announced later. H. M. Patterson & Son.

FOR RENT OFFICES AND STORES

ADAIR REALTY & LOAN COMPANY

CASTLE PINES APARTMENTS

LIPSOMB-WYMAN-CHAPMAN COMPANY

PRINTERS—LITHOGRAPHERS—ENGRAVERS OFFICE FURNITURE AND SUPPLIES

FOOTE & DAVIES CO.

MONEY

OUR OF "Careful" SERVICE

Funeral Notices

HURST—The friends and relatives of Mrs. Mary F. Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. L. Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hurst, Mr. R. S. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Akridge, Mrs. Margaret Hurst, Mrs. Thomas Phillips and Mrs. Lina Dukes are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Mary F. Hurst this (Friday) morning at 11 o'clock from the chapel of J. Austin Dillon Co., Rev. W. M. Albert will officiate. Interment, Greenwood cemetery. Grandsons will act as pallbearers and meet at the chapel at 10:45 a. m.

KALT—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Kalt, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Kalt, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kalt and Mr. Joseph B. Kalt are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. John B. Kalt this (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock from the chapel of Howard L. Carmichael, 400 East Point avenue, East Point. Rev. J. A. Drewery, assisted by Rev. G. F. Venable will officiate. Interment in College Park cemetery. Woodmen Circle D. of A. are especially invited to attend. The gentlemen selected to serve as pallbearers will please assemble at the chapel at 1:45 o'clock.

FITZGERALD—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Fitzgerald, Miss Helen Fitzgerald, Masters Charles and Robert Fitzgerald, Mr. V. B. Satterfield, Misses Emily and Annie Louise Satterfield, all of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. J. F. Fagan, of Chicago, Ill., are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Claude Fitzgerald this (Friday) afternoon, April 4, 1930, from the Edgewood Baptist church, at 3 o'clock. Rev. L. B. Cranford officiating. Interment to be in East View cemetery. The pallbearers selected will please meet at the church at 2:45 p. m. Blanchard Bros. Funeral Home, 1088 Peachtree street.

ELLIOTT—The friends of Mrs. Martha A. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moyer, Mrs. Frank Morris and Mrs. J. C. Gentry are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Martha A. Elliott this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence, 1770 Howell Mill road, Rev. J. A. Blanks officiating. Interment, Greenwood cemetery. The following gentlemen will act as pallbearers: Messrs. Walter Camp, Hubert Myers, P. C. Jett, A. J. Elliott, Carl Garrett and Roy Fowler. Sam Greenberg & Co., in charge.

BEARDEN—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Bearden, of College Park, Ga.; Mrs. Fannie Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Caldwell and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Lasserre, of Fairburn, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. T. L. Bearden, this (Friday) morning, April 4, 1930, at 11 o'clock, at the College Park Christian church. Rev. W. G. Carter, assisted by Rev. C. K. Hutto, will officiate. Interment in Antioch cemetery (Fayette county). The following gentlemen will serve as pallbearers and please assemble at the residence, 214 E. Yale avenue, College Park, Ga., at 10:30 o'clock: Messrs. W. S. Cochran, A. C. Cochran, V. T. Bearden, Claude Bearden, Antony Flynn and B. W. Flynn. A. C. Hemperley & Sons, funeral directors.

DE LAPERRIERE—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. DeLaperriere, Miss Margaret DeLaperriere, of Hoshon, Ga.; Mrs. J. E. Phillips, of Douglasville, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wright, of Douglasville, Ga.; Mrs. Ruby DeLaperriere and Mr. Julian DeLaperriere of Atlanta, and Mrs. H. P. DeLaperriere, of Hoshon, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Arthur L. DeLaperriere Sunday afternoon, April 4, 1930, at the Baptist church at Hoshon, Ga. Interment will be in Hoshon cemetery. Ed Bond and Condon Co., funeral directors, in charge.

BELL—The friends and relatives of Mrs. F. R. Bell, Mrs. W. D. Harwell and family, Mrs. Edgar Dunlap and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Hill Jr., Mrs. T. N. Fulton, Mrs. J. M. Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. James Watkins are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. F. R. Bell, this (Friday) afternoon, April 4, 1930, at 3 o'clock, at the residence, No. 1001 Euclid avenue, N. E. Rev. Ellis A. Fuller will officiate. Interment will be in Oakland cemetery. The following gentlemen will please serve as pallbearers: Mr. J. F. Watkins, Mr. Edgar Dunlap, Mr. James C. Dunlap, Mr. Edgar B. Dunlap, Mr. Sam C. Dunlap, and Mr. Napier Fulton. H. M. Patterson & Son.

JOHNSON—Died, Thursday evening, April 3, 1930, Mr. J. B. Johnson, of 872 Briarcliff road, N. E., in his 71st year. He is survived by his wife; daughters, Mrs. H. H. Ronton, Paris, Tenn.; Mrs. G. N. H. Ronton, Paris, Tenn.; Mrs. Paul F. Doran, Spartan, Tenn.; sons, Mr. R. A. Johnson, Paris, Tenn.; Mr. H. M. Johnson, McKenzie, Tenn.; Mr. A. L. Johnson, Geneva, Lake, Wis.; and Mr. C. S. Johnson, Paris, Tenn. Funeral arrangements will be announced later. H. M. Patterson & Son.

FOR RENT OFFICES AND STORES

ADAIR REALTY & LOAN COMPANY

CASTLE PINES APARTMENTS

LIPSOMB-WYMAN-CHAPMAN COMPANY

PRINTERS—LITHOGRAPHERS—ENGRAVERS OFFICE FURNITURE AND SUPPLIES

FOOTE & DAVIES CO.

MONEY

OUR OF "Careful" SERVICE

ADAIR REALTY & LOAN COMPANY

CASTLE PINES APARTMENTS

LIPSOMB-WYMAN-CHAPMAN COMPANY

PRINTERS—LITHOGRAPHERS—ENGRAVERS OFFICE FURNITURE AND SUPPLIES

FOOTE & DAVIES CO.

MONEY

OUR OF "Careful" SERVICE

ADAIR REALTY & LOAN COMPANY

CASTLE PINES APARTMENTS

LIPSOMB-WYMAN-CHAPMAN COMPANY

Funeral Notices

SIMS—Mrs. W. E. Sims died at the residence, Snellville, Thursday evening, April 3, 1930, in her 60th year. Funeral arrangements will be announced later. H. M. Patterson & Son.

DENSON—Little Dorothy Denson died suddenly Thursday afternoon at the residence, Cascade road. She is survived by her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Denson. Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Harry G. Poole, funeral director.

CURRAN—Died, at the residence, 28 Harrison street, S. W., Thursday evening, April 3, 1930, Mrs. Hettie J. Curran. She is survived by three sons, Colonel Charles M. Curran, of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. Albert V. Curran, of New Orleans, La.; and Mr. Jack P. Curran, of New Orleans, La. Funeral arrangements will be announced later. H. M. Patterson & Son.

PATRICK—Died, at the Confederate Soldiers' Home, Mr. Fred Patrick, Wednesday evening, April 2, 1930. Funeral services will be held this (Friday) afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at Spring Hill. Rev. John G. Logan will officiate. Interment will be in Hollywood cemetery. All Confederate veterans and U. D. C. members are especially invited to attend. H. M. Patterson & Son.

KENDRICK—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn S. Kendrick, Mrs. Nannie Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morgan, and Mrs. J. T. Kendrick and family are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lynn S. Kendrick this morning at 11 o'clock from the residence, 1079 Snyder street, N. W. Rev. L. W. Snyder, of Plannagan officiating. Interment, Greenwood cemetery. Sam Greenberg & Co., in charge.

SMITH—The friends of Mrs. Eliza Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Smith, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith and Mrs. Alma Smith and family, of Atlanta, are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Eliza Smith, at 2:30 o'clock this (Friday) afternoon from the chapel of Awtry & Lowndes, Dr. Len G. Broughton will officiate. Gentlemen selected to serve as pallbearers will please assemble at the chapel. Interment, Hollywood cemetery.

WILLIAMS—Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar R. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. McCurdy, Miss Emily Williams, Mrs. Dorothy Williams, all of Stone Mountain, Ga., and Mrs. H. W. Merritt, of New Orleans, La., are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Oscar R. Williams tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2 o'clock from Stone Mountain Baptist church. Rev. J. H. Cowart will officiate. Interment, Snellville cemetery. White & Company, funeral directors, in charge.

FORD—The friends of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Worley, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Ford, Lithonia, Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Campbell, Centerville, Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Humphries, Jessie, Benfer and Bascumb Ford, Miss Essie Mae Ford, Conyers, Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ford and C. P. Ford, Atlanta; Mrs. J. R. Wade, Loganville, Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ford, Amarillo, Texas, are asked to attend the funeral of James W. Ford at Lenora church in Rockbridge district at 2 p. m. Friday, April 4.

MORGAN—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. C. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Morgan and Mrs. W. T. Morgan and family, Decatur, are invited to attend the funeral services of Mrs. D. N. C. Morgan this (Friday) afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the chapel of A. S. Leazer, Rev. Roy McTier will officiate. Interment in Decatur cemetery. The following gentlemen will serve as pallbearers and meet at the residence at 2 o'clock: Mr. Lucius Morgan, Mr. Guy Crossley, Mr. Will Crowley, Mr. Julian Crowley, Mr. Trouton Morgan and Mr. Allen Hunter.

CAMP—Friends and relatives of Mrs. W. L. Camp, Jonesboro; Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Turner and family, of St. Elmo, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Camp, Jonesboro; Mrs. Emma Holden, W. A. Camp and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Camp and Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Camp and family, all of Atlanta; Mrs. William Betty, Mrs. Mollie Crowley and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. W. L. Camp from her late residence, Jonesboro, Ga., Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. C. D. Read and Rev. Claude Hendricks officiating. Grandsons of the deceased will serve as pallbearers. Interment in Camp cemetery. J. G. Evans, funeral director, in charge. Chattanooga papers please copy.

ED BOND & CONDON CO.

Funeral Directors

(COLORED)

KIMBALL—Mr. Willie Kimball, 134 Currier street, passed away Wednesday, April 2. Funeral arrangements announced later. Sellers Bros.

TURNER—The remains of Mrs. Hester Turner will be sent this Friday to Madison, Ga., for funeral and interment. Hanley Co.

COPPAGE—Mrs. Mamie Coppage, 100-B Ellis street, passed away Thursday, April 3. Funeral arrangements announced later. Sellers Bros.

MORGAN—The remains of Miss Nellie Morgan were carried this morning to Commerce, Ga., for funeral and interment. David T. Howard & Company.

THOMAS—Friends and relatives of Mrs. Rebecca B. Thomas of 275 Fort street, N. E., are invited to attend her funeral this (Friday) at 2 p. m., from Tabernacle Baptist church. Interment, South View cemetery. Hanley Company.

HARDEN—The friends and relatives of Rev. Daniel Harden are invited to attend his funeral this Friday at 3 p. m. from Turner's Monumental A. E. church. Interment, Lincoln Memorial Park. Hanley Co.

JENNINGS—The relatives and friends of Mr. Charlie Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Ben L. Jennings, Mrs. H. Jennings, Mrs. Lucy Lloyd, Mr. Bonner Lloyd, and Mrs. Mary Lloyd are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Charlie Jennings this (Friday) afternoon, April 4, 1930, from Shady Grove Baptist church at 2 o'clock. Rev. Gates and Rev. Bell officiating. Interment in College Park cemetery. Cox Bros., funeral directors.

FRAZIER—Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Frazier, Mr. John Frazier, of Detroit, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Frazier, and family, of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Emma Holden, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen, Mrs. Eliza Black, Mr. Allen Billups, Mr. Ulysses Wilson, Miss Alice Greene and Miss Edna Gibson are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Emma Frazier, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from St. Peter A. M. E. church, Abbeville, S. C. Interment, Abbeville, S. C. (Friday) at 2 p. m. Interment at 11 o'clock, via L. R. Railway for Abbeville, S. C. David T. Howard & Co.

JACKSON 2036

JACKSON 2036

JACKSON 2036

JACKSON 2036

JACKSON 2036

JNO. L. MOORE & SONS
Inc.
Opticians
70 Forsyth St., N.W.
Haas-Howell Bldg.

<